3b) Whom does this project benefit?

All 102 boys at St Mary's have their birthday celebrated and get to participate in celebrations for fellow students. The Knights who participate find this experience very personally rewarding.

3c) What problem or need did this project resolve?

St Mary's offers residential treatment and services to at-risk boys age 10-17 who are emotionally disturbed and behaviorally dependent. The staff at St Mary's beleives these parties are a helpful part of their treatment.

3d) Why did the council select this project?

Several of our Council members knew of St Mary's from personal experience. They knew these kids don't have much to celebrate in their lives. They believed this would be helpful. Other Knights agreed and have joined. More than 20 Knights in our Council participate over a year.

3e) Describe the success of the project:
