April, 2015

Worthy Sir Knights:

Happy Spring and Easter everyone! Now that we are almost through Lent and in our Holy Week, I hope you all were able to contribute through thought, penance, and self-discipline in commemorating Jesus. Springtime and Lent can be viewed as a spiritual "Spring Cleaning". A time for taking spiritual inventory and a time to clean out the things that hinder our personal relationship with Jesus Christ, so we can be more like Him. Spring and Lent is also a perfect time for new life, strength, prayer, and new beginnings; so let's all cherish the season!

Our March meeting was held at Blessed Trinity Parish in Dane. Meeting was called to order at 7 pm by Faithful Navigator, Brian Dischler, which he led in prayer the Our Father and the Pledge of Allegiance. We had 9 officers present, 3 absent, and 1 excused. Faithful Comptroller, Ron Braem, reported membership to be at 151. Faithful Purser, Lyle Meeker, reported checkbook and CD balance of $7,891.63 and Memorial Fund balance at $3,694.56. Bill Liegel reported that there are people interested in all officer positions, and the nominations will be accepted at our April meeting. Some of our new 4th Degree members were at the meeting and were issued certificates and introduced to the Assembly. A motion was made by Ron Braem, and seconded by Bill Liegel to make three (3) payments of $500.00 for the RSVP Program this year. A discussion on name tags was held at last month's meeting, and if interested in having a name tag ordered, please contact Bill Liegel.
