A word from the Supreme Knight Carl Anderson

The tragic fire at Notre-Dame Cathedral evokes both our history and our responsibility as Catholics

I AM WRITING this column while a massive fire is still engulfing our beautiful Notre-Dame Cathedral in Paris. I say “our” because this magnificent structure has been for centuries an artistic patrimony of humanity, a place of prayer for millions of Catholics in France and throughout the world — and, more recently, a special place for the Knights of Columbus.

In May 2017, I joined a delegation of brother Knights from Paris to attend Mass at Notre-Dame Cathedral and to participate in a special exposition and veneration of the relic of the Crown of Thorns. Later that year, the Knights of Columbus was one of the major sponsors of a light show on the cathedral’s façade. Titled “Dame de Coeur” (Queen of Hearts), the light show depicted the history of the cathedral in commemoration of World War I.

From the two-volume history The Knights of Columbus in Peace and War (1920), we read this: “In Paris on Good Friday 1919, the most impressive religious service held in the history of the American Expeditionary Forces in Europe took place when the Knights of Columbus ... held a service there for the public adoration of the cross. Ten thousand Americans packed the great edifice; the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, Mons. Amette, presided.”

Much has been said about the significance of this tragic fire. It is difficult to grasp its significance for the French people and especially French Catholics.

Perhaps “The Virgin at Noon,” a poem by Paul Claudel, can help us understand. It is noteworthy that Claudel’s conversion took place in Notre-Dame Cathedral during the singing of the Magnificat on Christmas Day 1886.

*“It is noon. The church is open.
I must go in.
Mother of our Lord, I have not come to pray.
I have nothing to give and
nothing to ask.
I am here, my Lady, only to look at you.
To look at you, to cry for joy, to know
That I am your son and you are there.
Only for one moment when everything stops.
Noon!
To be with you, Mary, in this place
where you are.
To say nothing, to look at your face.
To let my heart sing in its own language.
To say nothing, but simply to sing*

*because my heart is too full... .
Because you saved me, because you saved France.
Because France too, like myself, was
for you a thing to be considered.
Because at that moment when everything collapsed, you intervened.
Because you saved France once again.
Because it is noon, because we are
at this moment of today.
Because you are there for always,
simply because you are Mary,
Simply because you exist.
Mother of Our Lord, we give thanks to you.”*

When the president of France announced today that Notre-Dame Cathedral will be rebuilt, I thought of how the great Gothic cathedrals were originally constructed. An account from 1144 states that the faithful were freely “harnessed to carts, laden with stones, timbers, corn and whatever might be needed for the work of building the cathedral, the towers of which rose like magic into the heavens... . Everywhere men humbled themselves, did penance, and forgave their enemies. Men and women could be seen dragging heavy loads through mire and marsh, praising in song the miracle which God was performing before their eyes.”

Mindful of all the controversies consuming the Church in recent years, the image of this burning cathedral seemed in a way to symbolize the devastation so many Catholics have felt as our Church has been rocked by one crisis after another.

Fires have destroyed great cathedrals before, and they have been rebuilt. So let us hope this will be true again.

But not only this church. Let us resolve to patiently “rebuild” the Church, not with granite and mortar, but with living stones in the spirit of those earlier builders — with humility, penance and with gratitude for the miracle that God is still performing before our eyes.

And let us do so with confidence in Mary, who “at that moment when everything collapsed” does not hesitate to intervene for us.

A word from the Supreme Knight Carl Anderson

Dear Brother Knight,

Your immediate action is needed to help protect life!

I urge you to contact your Congressman today and ask them to sign the discharge petition calling for a vote on the Born Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

This commonsense legislation requires that medical professionals exercise the same degree of care when an abortion results in a live birth as they would for a regular delivery.

Unfortunately, procedural hurdles have prevented the House of Representatives from considering this life saving legislation. By asking your Congressman to sign this discharge petition, you will be taking an important step to break the gridlock that is preventing a vote on this bill.

Please visit our action alert center to contact your Congressman today. If you prefer, you can also call their offices in Washington directly.

Thank you for your work to defend life!

Fraternally,

Carl A. Anderson
Supreme Knight

GENERAL ASSEMBLY ANNOUNCEMENTS AND UPCOMING EVENTS IN THE NEXT 2 MONTHS

ASSEMBLY QUICK LOOK CALENDAR EVENTS, PLEASE PLAN TO BE THERE:

July 4	Reading of the Declaration of Independence
July 4	Dale City Independence Day Parade

COLOR CORPS EVENTS

**Sir Knights, please spread the word to our brother Knights throughout the councils, that they are ALL welcome to come out and join in our parades. They are all welcome to march behind and with us. They are welcome to carry their banners as well.

Please consider joining us on the 4th of July. 0730 at the Bishop Russell Hall. A special guest appearance by one of our Sir Knights will read the Declaration of Independence. Afterwards, we will travel to Dale City and participate in their 4th of July Parade.

Please RSVP to the Faithful Navigator, SK Greg Murray at gp\_murray@hotmail.com and Commander, SK Carlos Sousa at: jhsousa1992gmail.com.

This event is open to ALL Knights. Read email for proper attire.

As you should know, Fr. Edward L. Richardson Assembly will once again be participating in the Dale City Independence Day Parade, Thursday July 4. As in past years, Fr. Richardson Assembly is asking your Assemblies to join us.

This year's request has a little added importance in requesting your participation. First, a request was presented to the Dale City Parade Committee that the Knights of Columbus be granted the honor of providing this year's Parade Honor/Color Guard. I'm happy to say that by unanimous vote by the Dale City Parade Committee, we have been selected to serve as this year's Honor/Color Guard and lead the parade, so we'll be up front and be done quicker than usual.

Second, as Knights we have another reason to be there to support this year's parade. As the Honor/Color Guard, not only will we be the lead element of the parade, leading what will likely be 150 or more units, the element directly behind the Honor/Color Guard is the Parade's Grand Marshal and this year the Knights will be taking center stage in one more way. I submitted a nomination for Grand Marshall to the Parade Committee, and at the first meeting of the committee, after reviewing the nomination and the bio I submitted, I'm happy to report that the Grand Marshall for this year's Dale City Independence Day Parade is our own State Deputy Elect Bob Szerszynski.

Our regalia will have been retired and unauthorized for by the time of the parade, so those with the new uniform will be the ones carrying the flags and taking the lead. However, Sir Knights can still participate in social regalia. That can easily be your tux, or dark suit with white plain front plain collar shirt; conservative tie, name plate, miniature ribbons, and social baldric. However, no cummerbund or white gloves.

Since the Knights are being honored with leading the parade, I would hope that we get plenty of support from Fr. Kelly and Bishop Flaherty Assemblies.

More details will be provided by e-mail as they develop.
