FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR'S REPORT

As you can see from my picture, I have finally received the new official 4th Degree dress. Overall it was a ten month wait due to a change in supplier. All Canadian orders are now handled by Roger Sauvé who advises the blazer and trousers are made in his shop in Quebec. The tailoring is excellent and the quality very good. At the January meeting the motion put forward to provide a $200.00 subsidy to the first twenty Sir Knights who order between January and June 30th was approved. As of June 30th, 2019, the honour guard and colour guard official dress will be the new blazer with crest, white shirt, trousers, 4th tie, beret with service baldric, sword and white gloves. A notice was put out in January advising how to order the new dress. The dress for social functions consists of one of the following;

- New official dress, blazer, trousers, white shirt and 4th degree tie
- Tuxedo with social baldric as current
- Dark Suit, white shirt and tie with social baldric

This past January was a busy month for confirmations and the basketball free throw held January 26th at St Thomas Aquinas High School. In February there are four scheduled confirmations at St. Mathews and a Special Olympic Event on February 13th. It is a busy schedule and I urge members of the honour guard to assist whenever you can, so we have good turnout.

Please check the website and indicate if you can attend.
