FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR'S REPORT

By the time you read this it will be January 2019; however, I am writing this before Christmas, so our editor will be able to publish the January Newsletter on time. I thought I would take this opportunity to reflect on our year to date and look at what we can expect in 2019.

To date I have found my role as Faithful Navigator very much more involved than I envisaged. In addition to the normal demands of Faithful Navigator the order is changing the official dress which is causing confusion and concern. The current social dress, tuxedo with baldric will be retained. In fact, new members no longer need purchase a tuxedo, they can wear a dark suit, white shirt with tie and the social baldric. However, all honour guard or colour guard dress changes officially as of the of June 30th, 2019. The cape and chapeau will no longer be used. I have heard many opinions regarding this change and unfortunately there is a lot of negativity. But we need to look at this and understand that after sixty plus years of the cape and chapeau Supreme has decided to update to a 21st century dress. I would guess the same concern was expressed by members over 60 years ago when the dress was changed from top hat and tails to the tuxedo. Initially the change as of June 30th, 2019 will have an impact on the honour guard numbers. In the December newsletter a motion was put forward to provide a subsidy of $200 per member who orders a new uniform between Jan 1, 2019 and June 30, 2019 and agrees to be active members of the honour guard.

The motion is limited to the first 20 members who order in the time frame specified and will be voted on at the January 16th. meeting. The new official dress is now being supplied from Canada by Roger Sauve' which means you do not pay in American dollars and there are no customs fees. I understand that the new dress will be sourced in Canada whereas previously the blazer came from Italy and the trousers I believe were from America. In an initial conversation with Roger Sauve' I was advised the price would be $685.00 plus tax and shipping. However, this price was based on my order which was to be supplied to Roger Sauve' from the US. I am hopeful that the price will come down since there will be no offshore shipping or duties to contend with. I personally am in favour of the new official dress and once the advantages of the new dress are realized I am confident the change will be accepted and welcomed by all.

In January we begin confirmations at our local parishes, the first taking place at Mary Mother of God on January 18th and 19th with St Mathew's scheduled for February 7th, 8th and 9th. I trust your Christmas was a joyous and happy time and the New Year brings you peace and good health.

FAITHFUL CAPTAIN'S REPORT

S.K. Renfred D'Sousa

Worthy Knights of the 4th Degree Bishop Paul F. Reding Assembly:

Thanks to all who attended the Advent Service and reception at St. James Church on 12th December. Our Faithful Friar Fr. Louis Lenssen celebrated the service and gave us the Advent Reflection. In all we had around 35 people including parishioners, who came for the service, attending the reception. The evening went off well and everyone enjoyed the reception. We had a lot of food remaining as we were expecting a bigger attendance.

The next General Body meeting will be held on 16th Jan 2019 at the Marian Hall. I look forward to seeing more of you attend.

I take this opportunity to wish you all and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year 2019. May God bless you'll with good health and happiness in the years ahead. Have a great and blessed time during the season.

LITURGICAL YEAR 2018-2019

The following is an animated image of the liturgical year 2018-2019 according to the Roman Catholic rite. It's called "liturgical year" or "Christian Year" at the time ranging from the first Sunday of Advent and the last week in Ordinary Time during which the Church celebrates the whole mystery of Christ from his birth to his second coming. One can say that the liturgical year consists of two times: strong times and ordinary time. The strong times are, Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter, during which a particular mystery of salvation is celebrated. Ordinary Time, in turn, does not hold any particular mystery, but rather the same mystery of Christ in its fullness, especially on Sundays.

Ordinary Time is divided into two parts throughout the liturgical year and in total lasts 33 or 34 weeks. Note that in the image below the corresponding date of 2019-01-01 has been highlighted. The term "ordinary time" is not meant to signify anything humdrum or mundane, it is so named since it is the season of ordinal nomenclature (e.g. the first week of Ordinary Time, etc), and specifically means ordered or numbered time. Ordinary Time is celebrated in two segments: from the Monday following the Baptism of Our Lord up to Ash Wednesday; and from Pentecost Monday to the First Sunday of Advent. This makes it the largest season of the Liturgical Year.
