FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR'S REPORT

February was a busy month. An Honour Guard was formed and attended the funeral of SK Benjamin Nachuk, I also attended his wake with GK Roberto Pegoraro and presented the Resolution of Condolence to the family. Following the funeral, the honour guard attended four confirmations at St Mathews. The last activity was the Special Olympics Flag relay. We were pleased to have our District Master Dan Lohin as a welcome addition to the Honour Guard for the Flag Relay. Our February meeting was cancelled in the interest of safety due to weather concerns, our next scheduled Assembly Meeting is March 20th; please mark your calendar.

The month of March is the beginning of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, March 6th, we attend Mass and receive ashes and in doing so we are reminded that our time here is not forever and this is but a journey we make to our eternal home. How we make the journey and how we get to our eternal home is left up to us. As children we promised to give up something for lent, candy or games or not fighting with brothers or sisters, obeying your parents. As adults we will probably think of giving up something for Lent but likely not with the same enthusiasm we had as children. I know I need to try and consider doing something meaningful to recognise Lent and to remind myself of my journey and where I am today. Today the practise of attending daily Mass during Lent is not as embraced as it was before. This Lent I want to make a special effort to attend week day Mass once or twice or maybe more often. It does not need to be in the morning as today many parishes offer evening Mass once or twice during the week. Lent is a special time, an opportunity for us to reflect on our life's journey and take account of where we are and where we need to be, I urge each to consider where you are on your spiritual journey and take advantage of this Lenten season to renew yourself.

By the time this newsletter is out the meeting of bishops in Rome to determine how to prevent sexual abuse by members of the clergy will have concluded. I sincerely hope that a determination to resolve and put an end to this offending action is formulated and put into practise. The church faces a crucial situation, the laity is expressing concern and disbelief at the scale of this offensive and destructive behaviour, the church must resolve this. I sincerely hope that a consensus was reached, and affirmative action put in place to restore trust and dignity to all the priesthood.

On Feb 13th, the Special Olympics Flag came to Oakville as part of the Knights of Columbus Flag Relay. The Flag Relay was a province-wide effort to show support for Special Olympics and the athletes within our communities. The Knights of Columbus recognized our own Special Olympians by having a special flag relay ceremony at St. Thomas Aquinas Secondary School. Below are pictures from the event.
