MARCH 2015 CHARITY UNITY FRATERNITY PATRIOTISM

STATEMENT BY CARDINAL COLLINS ON SUPREME COURT DECISION ON ASSISTED SUICIDE

“For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away.” Psalm 31

In our days, as in the days of the psalmist, so many years ago, people can suffer grievously during their journey through this “valley of tears,” and may even be tempted to request assisted suicide. The Supreme Court has now allowed that, and at first glance, it may seem to be the compassionate thing to do.

There is certainly no need to take extreme measures to extend the length of life. When people are dying, we should surround them with love as they enter into their final experience on this earth, and relieve as best we can any suffering they endure. We need as a society to make effective palliative care more available. But there is a profound difference between compassionately journeying with someone who is dying, or who is suffering when not in danger of death, and killing that person, or helping that person to commit suicide. No one has a right to do that, and it is simply wrong for the state to allow or to encourage that.

Suicide is already a sadly common tragedy in our society, as persons facing what at the moment they feel to be intolerable suffering of some kind, decide to end their life. We all need to reach out compassionately to anyone contemplating suicide, and to offer whatever help we can to alleviate their pain, be it physical or psychological, so they can appreciate the value of their life, and know they are loved. But for anyone actually to assist them not to escape but to commit suicide is wrong. It is a perversion of the vocation of physicians to have them engaged in helping people to kill themselves. Physicians are called to be servants of healing, not agents of death.

Assisted suicide is the deceptively attractive face of euthanasia. The most compelling cases grip our attention and sway the debate, and so the Court opens the door to assisted suicide, all the while seeming to do less than it actually has done by surrounding its action with a set of limiting conditions, seeking to guarantee informed consent, as if that were the key issue. But the state is authorizing the killing of an innocent person, whatever controls are in place, and even those

Navigator's Message – March 2015

We are now well into the Lenten Season of the Church Calendar. A key to understanding the meaning of Lent is simple: Baptism. Preparation for Baptism and for renewing baptismal commitment lies at the heart of the season. Since the Second Vatican Council, the Church has reemphasized the baptismal character of Lent, especially through the restoration of the Catechumenate and its Lenten rituals. We see this in our individual parish RCIA Programs. Our challenge today is to renew our understanding of this important season of the Church year and to see how we can integrate our personal practices into this renewed perspective.

Why is Baptism so important in our Lenten understanding? Lent, as a 40-day season, developed in the fourth century from three merging sources; the first was the ancient paschal fast that began as a two-day observance before Easter but was gradually lengthened to 40 days. The second was the catechumenate as a process of preparation for Baptism, including an intense period of preparation for the Sacraments of Initiation to be celebrated at Easter. The third was the Order of Penitents, which was modeled on the catechumenate and sought a second conversion for those who had fallen back into serious sin after Baptism. As the catechumens (candidates for Baptism) entered their final period of preparation for Baptism, the penitents and the rest of the community accompanied them on their journey and prepared to renew their baptismal vows at Easter. Lent, then, is radically baptismal.

I mention this for two reasons. Firstly, to make our Assembly members and their families aware that our parishes have a program for adults who wish to become Catholic, and secondly, it has been the practice of one of our Councils to welcome the new Catholic men from the program by offering them membership into our Order. I am pleased to say that we have several of our Sir Knights who began their journeys to Knighthood as a result of going through a Parish RCIA program and subsequently taking their Degrees. This Easter, I ask that you ask your Councils to consider extending an invitation of membership to those gentlemen who will be fully received into our faith from your parish. From that point, help guide them through the degrees to full Knighthood in the 4th Degree. In the meanwhile, please pray for those men who are in our Oakville Parishes RCIA programs on their final journey to the Easter sacraments.

On another note about membership, look inside your Councils for those good and worthy men – that should be all of them – who have not yet taken their final degrees. Help your Councils by encouraging the new members, and perhaps the older ones also, to take the lessons of the 2nd, and 3rd Degree and then proceed to full Knighthood in the 4th Degree. All this can be accomplished within several months in time for the next Exemplification this fall.

The pricing is set... the venue is booked... the tickets are now ready for purchase. We have been blessed with sponsors who have stepped forward to help cover some costs of putting on the 30th Anniversary Celebration of our Assembly. This allows us to provide you with an evening of good food, drink, fraternity, and some fine speechmaking, I'm sure, for an affordable price of $45 each, $90 per couple or $360 per table (8). Tickets are limited and there will be assigned seating, so grab your partners and get a table or two. See the ad further in the newsletter for ticket purchase information.

I would like to remind you all that we are nearing the time when you, the membership, will be electing your Assembly Officers for the 2015 – 2016 fraternal year. Nominations will begin at our April general meeting, with further nominations and elections to be held at the Assembly May general meeting. SK Milt Cowan, PGK, PFN, DD has been appointed Elections Chairman. If you have an interest in sitting on the Executive Team, please contact him or have another Sir Knight nominate you at the April general meeting. Last item... please look at our Faithful Commander's calendar of Honour Guard commitments and volunteer your time for as many of these events as you are able. Any Sir Knight who is not but wishes to join our Colour Corps is urged to contact one of the Commanders. Our March General Meeting will be held at Marian Hall on Thursday, March 19th, 8pm. There will be a sword drill at 7:15pm.

God bless in all that you are and all that you do. Vivat Jesus, limitations can over time be swept away, leading to the more widespread practice of euthanasia. We have only to look at some European countries to see what lies ahead. We Canadians patriotically believe our country is special, but it is not so special as to be immune to the dynamics of increasing access to medical killing, as individualist rationales make persuasive the argument for that in more and more cases.

Brendan Wall, PGK, FN

The court, recognizing that many physicians, faithful to their healing vocation, will not assist people to kill themselves, makes some very slight room for freedom of conscience. It trusts local Colleges of Physicians and other such groups to deal appropriately with the conscience issue.

This trust is misplaced. Currently the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario is proposing a draft conscience policy which states that physicians who refuse to perform a procedure to which they morally object must arrange that the procedure gets done by someone else. In other words, they are compelled to become accomplices. I urge the College not to go through with this unjust policy, and I urge Ontarians, especially physicians, to speak up against it. First the politicians; now the physicians: the assault on freedom of conscience steadily advances in our country.

We all are on the way to death and should gain wisdom from contemplating that inescapable fact, so that we use each present moment to prepare for the moment of our death by living well. We should provide all who are suffering with the best medical assistance we can offer, especially in palliative care for those who are coming to the end of life. Most importantly, we should accompany each person with love, especially those without friends or family. But any society that authorizes killing people through assisted suicide and euthanasia has lost its moral compass.

Knights of Columbus Sets Insurance Record for 14th Consecutive Year Record Caps Year of Milestones for the Order

The Knights of Columbus recorded its 14th consecutive year of growth in insurance sales in 2014 with $8.24 billion in new life insurance sold. The K of C now has more than $96 billion of life insurance in force. The record sales have led to an increase of nearly $50 billion in the last decade.

“In 133 years of operation, the Knights of Columbus has helped meet the spiritual and financial needs of Catholic families while also serving the community through charitable works,” said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. “We are pleased to have had great success on both of these fronts, which comes from our continued commitment to our founding mission of serving our neighbor consistent with Catholic social teaching. The continued growth in our insurance sales is a testament to our business model and to our close to 1,400 professional agents, who are the cornerstone of that model.”

Supreme Knight Anderson explained that record-breaking results mean that the K of C has “helped its members to protect their families while simultaneously enabling the Knights to support those most in need and the many works of the Catholic Church.”

This record concludes a year of milestones and accolades for the organization. In March, the Knights of Columbus was named a 2014 "World's Most Ethical Company" by the Ethisphere Institute, an independent center for research promoting best practices in corporate ethics and governance. It was one of only two companies named in the “life insurance” category and one of fewer than 150 total companies worldwide to earn this distinction.

In June, the Knights retained its spot on the Fortune 1000, and earned its 39th consecutive A++, Superior rating for financial strength — the highest rating available — from ratings agency AM Best. No insurer in North America is more highly rated than the Knights of Columbus.

The Knights enjoys a stalwart reputation for financial security, has one of the lowest lapse rates in the industry and offers a product line designed to provide life insurance, annuities, disability income and long-term care policies to meet the needs of Catholic families.
