FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR'S REPORT

As we enter September and summer draws to a close, we begin our new fiscal year 2019/2020. Our first general meeting is scheduled for September 18th.

The confirmation schedule for this year has been posted on the website, please check the website on a regular basis for events and schedules.

At our first General Meeting, commencing at 7.30 PM, our District Master Dan Lohin and his Marshall will be present to initiate the officers elected to serve this fiscal year. All positions except for Outer Sentinel have been filled. We are looking for a Sir Knight to step forward to stand for this position. Following the initiation, there will be a short general meeting concluding with a reception for all. Please plan to attend to show your support for your brother Sir Knights who have been elected to serve the Assembly, this fiscal year.

The annual audit was conducted and completed on July 24th. The Faithful Navigator, Purser, Comptroller, Trustees, and Captain were presented for the audit. The audit was submitted before the required date of July 30th.

In June of this year we held the annual Awards Dinner (some pictures shown on page 3). The awards were for exemplify service to the Knights and Bishop Paul Reding Assembly, service awards and major wedding anniversaries. A summary of the awards presented on the following page (if you were not present to receive your award it has been mailed to you):
