Facebook Posts On Fr Angelo Bartulica

Please see the updated information below from Nick Bartulica as of this morning!

Update on Fr Angelo. He is currently breathing on his own and is no longer at intubated. He will open his eyes and look around the room. Family thinks he will follow simple commands such as blinking when asked but doctors are more skeptical. Cautiously optimistic that he will live through this but has a long road ahead and unknown extent of brain damage. Plan is to transfer him to a hospital in Croatia possibly by end of the week. Please keep praying.
