COUNCIL 9058 NEWSLETTER

FROM THE DESK OF THE GRAND KNIGHT

Knight of the Month CHRIS CRONIN

Chris - Your always willing and helping hands have made you a most welcomed member of the Council's officer team. Your willingness to participate in monthly dinners is only more appreciated by the many" meeting refreshments" you and your family have provided. Thank you for being our brother.

The annual Easter lamb dinner was the high light of the Council's monthly dinner program. With Brother Nick Maselli temporarily slowed down by an impending hip operation, Brother Nick Sarbanis and his crew worked Friday and most of Saturday in the long but necessary preparation in addition to the "even month crew" (aka manga crew). Many thanks to all.

On April 12 Knights, John Cueno, Chris Kowalski and son, and Pat Bracken provided Council support for the Cantata Festival at Blessed Sacraments Church in Bradford, MA. The Cantata was organized and directed by St. Anne's choir director, Cyndie Verrill

Working with the Merrimack Knight's Council Brother Pat Bracken, has made a deal with the Fisher Cats. Contact for a "Knights of Columbus Night at Fisher Cats". See Nick Sarbanis for details and tickets.

Bothers John Keisling (Chairman) and Lance Rubio completed plans for, and were funded for a Council web site. Brother Knights with web design experience are welcomed to comments and participate in our Council's site.

Supreme has newly appointed Matt Walsh of the Joseph DiCalogero Agency as our insurance agent. Matt is from Hollis. Questions or comments of K of C Insurance should be directed to joseph.dicalogero@kofc.org 508-783-7343

THE LIGHTER SIDE

My Favorite Animal

Our teacher asked us what our favorite animal was, and I said, "Fried chicken."
She said I wasn't funny, but she couldn't have been right, because everyone else in the class laughed.

My parents told me to always be truthful and honest, and I am. Fried chicken is my favorite animal. I told my dad what happened, and he said my teacher was probably a member of PETA. He said they love animals very much. I do, too. Especially chicken, pork and beef. Anyway, my teacher sent me to the principal's office. I told him what happened, and he laughed, too. Then he told me not to do it again.

The next day in class my teacher asked me what my favorite live animal was. I told her it was chicken. She asked me why, just like she'd asked the other children. So I told her it was because you could make them into fried chicken.

She sent me back to the principal's office again. He laughed, and told me not to do it again. I don't understand. My parents taught me to be honest, but my teacher doesn't like it when I am. Today, my teacher asked us to tell her what famous person we admire most.

I told her, "Colonel Sanders."

Guess where I am now...

HAVING MOM OVER FOR MOTHER'S DAY DINNER

You don't even have to be a mother to enjoy this one...

Brian invited his mother over for dinner. During the course of the meal, Brian's mother couldn't help but notice how beautiful Brian's roommate, Jennifer, was. Brian's Mom had long been suspicious of the platonic relationship between Brian and Jennifer, and this had only made her more curious.

Over the course of the evening, while watching the two interact, she started to wonder if there was more between Brian and Jennifer than met the eye.

Reading his mom's thoughts, Brian volunteered, 'I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you Jennifer and I are just roommates.'

About a week later, Jennifer came to Brian saying, 'Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the beautiful silver gravy ladle. You don't suppose she took it, do you?'

Brian said, 'Well, I doubt it, but I'll send her an e-mail just to be sure. So he sat down and wrote:

Dear Mom,

I'm not saying that you 'did' take the gravy ladle from the house, I'm not saying that you 'did not' take the gravy ladle. But the fact remains that one has been missing ever since you were here for dinner.

Love, Brian

Several days later, Brian received an email back from his mother that read:

Dear Son,

I'm not saying that you 'do' sleep with Jennifer, I'm not saying that you 'do not' sleep with Jennifer. But the fact remains that if Jennifer is sleeping in her own bed, she would have found the gravy ladle by now.

Love, Mom
