Chaplain's Corner

NOTE: Father Benny has been home visiting India. As Father Binu departs from St. Mary's for Chicago this week, a throwback to his summer message last year! God Bless Father Binu!

Dear Brother Knights,

It's summer! Schools out and some of us have lighter workloads, making summer a prime season for family vacation and travel.

Reinvention, renewal, inspired ideas ... they all have time to breed just a little more during these lazy summer days when you may be taking an extra walk, sitting on a beach, hopefully even on vacation somewhere wonderful.

These are moments when we disconnect from the everyday moments that drive our every movement, the tasks and the chores of life, jobs and other charitable commitments and just take a deep breath — literally and metaphorically.

Brothers, you have been working all year long, not only for you and your family, as many do, but you were also working for others, especially those less fortunate than us. So you deserve a much needed summer break with your family. I am happy that our Council was mindful of this and had arranged for the family fun day at Bay Beach for its members. Hope you all enjoyed it with your families. Summer days are still to go and you deserve to be with family more for travel and vacationing.

Remember, this time is yours — so use it wisely. Are you doing what you want? Inspiring yourself to have the greatness in your life you deserve? Loving these moments, the best way you can? Sharing the way, you want and engaging in the things you love?

Every moment is a chance for Reinvention so never stop asking yourself if you're happy and how to have more of what you want/need/love in your life.

Be Inspired, Get Inspired and Go for It — It's Yours! Travel safe! Stay healthy!

Have more beautiful Summer Days!

Binu Varghese O. Praem

COMMITTEE REPORTS

MEMBERSHIP

During the rest of the summer we would like to encourage our fellow Council members to show what the Knights are all about by helping those in need in our community. Our next First Degree will be in September. Please call Steve Cribben at 606-4700 if you have a candidate in mind. Remember, new members keep our Council a vibrant organization.

COUNCIL

On Saturday, June 9th, thirty-five golfers took part in the second annual Knights of Columbus Charity Golf Classic benefiting the Our Lady of Lourdes and Notre Dame of De Pere schools. A total of $1710.00 was raised via hole sponsors, bucket raffle and a 50/50 drawing. The event was chaired by Chris Steier, Ron Van Dyck, Pete Nordeen and Brian Pritzl. Many thanks to all who participated in the event and donated to the event, especially Ryan Funeral Home who provided a sleeve of golf balls for all participants. We are looking forward to working with both schools to grow the event next year.

CHURCH

As reported in the June newsletter, over 30 Council and family members prepared the booyah sold at the OLOL Parish picnic on May 20th. Our efforts resulted in a profit of $4196 for the parish. Thanks again to all those who made this possible.

LAMBEAU TICKET SCANNING

I want to thank all the Brother Knights and family who signed up to volunteer at the Shopko Gate this year. We have just a few spots open. Thanks also for sending in your email requests. That allows for reduced calling to the membership. Lastly, I want to thank Dale Brown, Pat Lennon, Doug Vanden Langenberg Matt Diederich, Pete Nordeen and John Mueller for helping make calls during our draft night on June 24th.

As a reminder, any family member who is over 18 may help out. We have had several husband and wife teams work in the past as well as sons and daughters. This is an excellent way to get your family involved! – Pete Nordeen, Chairman

RESCH CENTER

On June 23rd, council members worked the James Taylor and Bonnie Raitt concert. Thanks to Pat Loomis, Doug Vanden Langenberg, Pete Nordeen and Matt Diederich for helping out. We have one event in July, The Tim McGraw and Faith Hill concert on July 6th.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

As we move into July, we celebrate our country's independence. However, events going on in our country today demonstrate we, as Catholics/Christians, are under assault. It is more important than ever we hold to our values and the teachings of the church. Society is trying to use our values against us by saying we should accept sinful behavior because Jesus did when he kept company with the tax collectors and prostitutes. Jesus took pity on the sinful and helped them to turn away from their sinful past, repent, and follow him. Some rejected this message and turned away. Our job to pray for them to turn away from sin, not to give them approval for their behavior.

God Bless!
GK Dave Pearson
