First and foremost, vote, Vote, VOTE! Early voting is available now. Election Day is Tuesday, November 6th. In addition to selecting political leaders, there are seven referendums on this year’s ballot. Two of these are of importance to the Church. As Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson, said in an essay earlier this year, “In the face of these challenges, the 1.8 million Catholic men of the Knights of Columbus — men known for their determined public moral witness — have an important role to play: We must continue to be in the forefront, demonstrating in word and in deed that truly “God is love.” This can make all the difference.”

The Council has taken a lead role in proclaiming the Church’s position in support for Question 4, the Dream Act and in opposition to Question 6, the Civil Marriage Protection Act. Members read announcements from the Maryland Catholic Conference at all Masses this past weekend. Next weekend before the election, we will present a video message before all Masses from the Archbishop of Baltimore and Knights of Columbus Supreme Chaplain, the most Reverend William E. Lori. Last but not least, the Knights are partnering with the parish to campaign on these issues at polling places on Election Day. If you’re available to help, contact Jarvis, the family director or myself.

At last month’s business meeting, worthy Financial Secretary, Rich Unglesbee, announced his intention to resign his position at the end of this fraternal year. I will like to find a suitable replacement by the end of the year, so

- Shall be a Third Degree Member;
- Shall be appointed by the Supreme Knight, for a three-year term with performance subject to review before reappointment
- Shall be at least 21 years of age,
- Shall not be engaged in the sale of life or health insurance
- Shall not hold another officer position within the council.
- Shall not have a criminal record.

Those wishing to apply should complete the application attached at the end of the newsletter and return to me by November 31st.

The chair officers and I will consult with the trustees and Past Grand Knights before submitting a nominee to the State Deputy for approval and advancement to Supreme and final approval.

The council is selling Christmas cards, Advent calendars, candles and wreaths in the Cassidy Center at church. Contact Dan Hundertmark if you're available after Masses leading up to Christmas to help.

Thanks to all those who served at Council events this past month, especially our Knight and Family of the Month. Not sure who they are? Come to the business meeting to find out!

Make time to thank a veteran on Veteran's Day. Starting this month, the worthy Chancellor will begin requesting your prayers for those killed in action while defending our freedoms.

This month, we'll remember our brother Knights and their ladies who have gone to their eternal reward. Join us in the Eldersburg church on Thursday, November 8th at 7pm to give thanks to God for their lives, for we know that their souls live on, and will be reunited with their bodies on the last day.

Reflections on Faithful Citizenship - Conscience Matters

Fr. Dave McGuigan, Associate Pastor

The rights and duties of citizenship in our country's political life urge Catholics, and all citizens, to bring to bear a most precious resource for decision making, conscience. The U.S. bishops' 2007 document on political responsibility, reissued in 2011 with a new introduction, is entitled, Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. (It is accessible, free and easy, via the website of the U.S.

Conference of Catholic Bishops: www.usccb.org). When is the last time we reflected on the gift of conscience, what it is, is not, and how we and society are served by its right use? If the last voice we've heard on conscience is Jiminy Cricket's, "Always let your conscience be your guide," some prayerful reflection on the gift of conscience may be helpful. Let us remember that conscience, as it relates to political responsibility, is not important once every four years, or only when critical issues appear on the ballot. Conscience always matters.

What it is not: "Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere 'feeling' about what we should do or not do" (Forming Consciences, #17). The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), art. 1776, refers to the Second Vatican Council's description of conscience as our "most secret core and sanctuary," where a person is "alone with God, Whose voice echoes in his depths." Forming conscience is a lifelong process and a profound responsibility. It began for each of us when we were taught right from wrong, to cherish the good and avoid evil; we never outgrow it and we don't do it alone. The formation and exercise of conscience brings together faith and reason: "It formulates its judgments according to reason, in conformity with the true good willed by the wisdom of the Creator" (CCC, art. 1783). It is private, a "sanctuary," and social as it relates moral knowledge to action helping us to make and evaluate decisions that involve our relationships and treatment of others.

Bringing conscience to bear on our political responsibility as Catholic citizens, sincerely, prudently, and prayerfully, assures that our participation is faithful and charitable: "Politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, sound bites and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable" (Forming Consciences, #14). To meet the challenge of this responsibility we rely on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Word of God, the authoritative teaching of the Church, as well as our own experience and prudent evaluation of reliable, creditable sources of information. Just as we can't rely on junk food to keep our body healthy, Catholic citizens are called to nourish our 'body politic' with the "moral convictions of well-formed consciences." May we do so with true love of neighbor and fidelity to God, Whose voice echoes in our depth.

7612 Council Family,

As the Home Corp. President I have instituted two new committees. I have instituted a repair and maintenance committee which will be tasked with making sure that all things that are broken or need to be replaced, get done in a timely manner. They are also tasked with coming up with plans for up coming projects, cost analysis, plan of action and man power and Otto Greul has agreed to chair this committee.

The other committee is a catering committee. Dave Smith has agreed to take on the challenge of coming up with menus and prices per person. His committee will decide the amount that the home corp. will charge a renter to cater their event. Dan Hundertmark is the hall rental chairman and he will communicate with the renter about the hall and the prices for any catering if they choose to have us do it.

If you want to help either of these committees, you do not need to be on the board of directors. Every member of the council is a member of the home corp., so you can help to take care of your council home. Let me know or contact one of the chairman and volunteer to help out.

Fifty people attended the October Halloween social. After a great dinner which was a true pot luck we played a table trivia game. After that we played a game called move the headless waiter. It was the ladies against the men. Once again, the ladies with their poise and talent beat the men. We then played a video guess the Halloween movie game which was a lot of fun, especially with the lights off and the candles glowing.

Thanks to all who attended and brought side dishes and desserts.

NEXT MONTH – MEMORIAL MASS NOVEMBER 8TH 7: 00 P.M.

On November 8, 2012 at 7:00 P.M. we will be celebrating our Memorial Mass which will be our November social. It is at Saint Joseph's and the Sheens' will be providing lite refreshments afterwards.

DECEMBER SAVE THE DATE - Our Annual Family Christmas party will be held on Saturday December 8, 2012 at 2:00 P.M. at the Council home. Please RSVP with the number of adults and children attending. More detailed information will follow soon.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

Congratulations to Steve Ransdell for being present and winning the $250 drawing! Brother Frank Rodski would have won $19 if had attended. This month's drawing will be for $56. You must be present to win!

Hello Ladies,

We held our monthly meeting on October 17 and we discussed the council Memorial Mass on November 8th at 7:00pm at St. Joe's. Bring your homemade items to Cassidy room before Mass. Jeanne O'Sullivan will chair this donation of finger foods and drinks. We have lost many in the Knights family this year. We gather annually to remember all our departed with thoughts, prayers and fellowship. Join us especially if you have been widowed and wish to be comforted by your Knights family.

October and November provided many opportunities to work beside our spouses whether at a Family Movie night, a Pit Beef sale, or the Ravens concession stand. You can decide how much and where you can donate your time and talent. Any and all is appreciated.

The annual Halloween Social was held on Wednesday 10/24 with a true potluck dinner. We had vampire and Raggedy Doll couples, an Energizer Bunny as well as a shipwrecked crew from Gilligan's Island. Again, the ladies won the relay race and those family size candy bars! The committee did a fun job of doing scary movie and holiday trivia contests. From Stephen King movies to horror classics like Dracula, we competed for even more candy with our families.

December brings the Sheen's Colleens Christmas dinner rather than a monthly business meeting. Wednesday, December 5th at 7:00pm at Maggie's in Westminster. If you want to participate in a Yankee Swap gift exchange, bring a gift wrapped item costing around $15. Remind all that like last year, we will have separate checks and pick off the menu. This allows us to spend our funds by giving back to the community, rather than on ourselves. We discussed and decided to make our $500 donation to an individual family with young children through the St. Vincent de Paul Society at SJCC.

Thank you and God Bless

Our Lady of Guadalupe Marian Prayer Program

On Thursday evening, October 25th, our council was privileged to host the Our Lady of Guadalupe Icon program in a special service at St. Joseph's church. Because of severe time restraints, the event could not be publicized in advance but it was announced via e-mail blasts throughout the council and the St. Joseph's community. A further report on the event is not available at the time of publication of this Communique but will be available in the next issue.

Council Memorial Mass

Our annual Memorial Mass will be on Thursday, November 8, at 6:30 p.m., at St. Joseph's church. All members, families and friends are encouraged to take this opportunity to remember our deceased brother Knights and spouses who worked so diligently over the years to make ours the great council that it is. Please come and join in this meaningful event.

Lenten Retreat with Fr. Pat

Saint Joseph's annual Lenten retreat will be conducted next year by Fr. Pat. It will be during the week of March 2, 2013. The parish is forming planning committees in the following areas: Worship, Publicity, Activity, Hospitality and Music. There will be lots of jobs, big and small, with opportunities for everyone. If you are interested in planning and helping in any of these areas, please let Peter O'Sullivan know."

Council Rosary Night

Rosary every Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm at Cassidy Center. Since 9/11/2001, Knights and their ladies of our Council family have gathered each Tuesday evening to say a Rosary in memory of those killed that tragic day and for service men and women at home and abroad fighting the war on terror.

Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

We, as a Council, have made a commitment to be present every Sunday morning, between 6:00 and 7:00am, for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel at St. Joseph's.

Baby Bottle Drive Check

On Wednesday, October 3rd the Knight of Columbus and the right to life committee of St. Joseph's presented the Tender Care Pregnancy Center with a check in the amount of $10,732.66.

Due to some requirements and restrictions, there were many delays in the opening of this center. But now the Center is beautiful and fully functional. We were given a tour and given examples of how a woman in a crisis pregnancy would be greeted and how the Center would help them.

The Staff at the Center were very happy for our donation and support! After the ceremony I felt energized to get the next baby bottle campaign going!

Thank you for your support and help!

"Would you like to give your grandchildren $1,000,000 that they could retire on one day?"

- This is a one-time payment
- All funds grow tax-deferred until they are withdrawn
- The funds are creditor proof
- The funds are exempt being counted as an asset when applying for college
- The grandparent controls the asset (for the time being)

For a newborn grandchild if you set aside a one-time investment of $40,000 into a Knights of Columbus single premium, paid up insurance policy the projected values are over $1,000,000 of tax advantaged cash at the child's retirement social security age of 70.

You can do larger or smaller amounts, and yes, you can also do this for grandchildren who are not infants. The nice thing is that this is a one time payment and there is no further obligation. This strategy is perfect for gifting money in a meaningful way, and perfect for leveraging money that you were probably going to "leave on" anyway into a much larger, tax advantaged asset.

Please email me or call me to discuss this further. My contact information is listed above.

Fantasy Football

Week 7 of the Council's fantasy football league featured a battle for first place. Powered by a 377 and 4 TD performance from QB Drew Brees and 153 yards rushing with a touchdown from RB Adrian Petersen, the younger Eagle vanquished a challenge from Weido's Incarnation to claim sole possession first place. The Grand Knight's team got off the schneid by playing better ball this month, but fell in a "battle for the basement" 60-103 in a week 8 match up against G-Men.

Sun, 11/11 at 1:00 PM EST

We have two events coming up in November. Monday Nov. 5th we will be supplying the refreshments for Purple Night at

M&T Stadium, a special events for all of the lady Raven fans. On Sunday Nov 11th we will be running the stand for the Oakland Raiders game.

We only have four games left, so if you would like to help out you need to act now.

It is very easy to sign up to help out at any of the Raven's Games. JUST CLICK THE BUTTON ON THE KoC COUNCIL 7612 WEB PAGE <http://www.kofc7612.org/> and you can sign up for any of the upcoming games. Please contact Tony Gioio if you have any questions about required training.

So come on down to the stadium, enjoy all of the excitement, have a lot of fun with the fans and your fellow workers, and help us raise some funds for our council.

Our Council's Family of the Month:

Fr. Anthony Vidal and his wife Helene has been instrumental in the continued success of the M&T Bank Stadium Football Concession stand. Their presence ensured the Council has the team and manpower needed to serve hundreds of Ravens Football fans. Fr. Vidal is also a pastor of Mount Calvary Church in Baltimore. He has converted to Catholicism earlier this year. Congratulations Fr. Anthony Vidal and Helene. Your presence at the stadium is very much appreciated.

Around Town:

Students at Liberty High School is serving Breakfast for Veterans on Nov 8th. All veterans are invited to attend. Please RSVP padileo@carrollk12.org or call 410-751-3560 by Nov 1st. Honor to those who served and remember those on active duty.

Movie of the Month:

We had 48 friends and families last Saturday to see the Lorax. Always a great night to watch a movie. Popcorn, and of course the Spaghetti dinner completed the fare. Thanks to all for keeping us company.

Don't miss the next one on Nov 17th, it's the movie "Brave". Princess Merida must rely on her bravery and her archery skills to undo a beastly curse. Starring Kelly Macdonald, Billy Connolly and Emma Thompson. No advanced tickets required, just signed up at the Cassidy Center.

Trick or Treats Safety:

Trick or Treating should be a safe one for kids! Children should always go out trick or treating accompanied by a responsible adult, and if possible in groups. Keep a flashlight on, and costumes should be fire-retardant. Always be visible. Stay on the neighborhood that's familiar. As always, check each treat for contamination. Be sure the treats can be consumed for those with known food allergies.

Colds or Flu:

For those of us that is not getting any younger, please get a Flu shot as preventive measure. Don't forget the kids too. As a reminder, keep them bundled from the cold.

Voters Needed:

Now is the time to say "No" on Question 6. We need everyone's vote to overturn the state's law legalizing same-sex marriage. Our turnout will be the proof the populist media has been counting out in numerous polls. Let's keep the traditional marriage "as a model and as a reference point for all that God calls humanity to be" as mentioned by Archbishop Lori. Your vote is to protect the faith and our family institution.

Brothers all,

We have had a busy month. We continue to help our veterans. Last month, the crab social was very well attended. The crab raffle raised about 600 dollars. Our Pilot Peters did a wonderful job organizing the Maryland Ren Fest work. At the deadline, we met the goal of people we needed to fill the stands. By the actual day of the event, we were 1 shy of those needed. Thanks to all who showed up and worked.

November will be a busy month for us. The Color Corps will be assisting all the councils with their Memorial Masses. If you can help, please let your commanders know. The next assembly meeting will be November 26. See you then.

Majority of Americans Support First Amendment Conscience Rights in Health Care

As America's bishops and Catholic organizations around the country file lawsuits to protect their First Amendment rights from the government's health care mandate, a new survey finds that a significant majority of Americans support the right to opt out of providing drugs, services and procedures for religious reasons.

According to the Knights of Columbus-Marist Poll, the survey found that nearly three in four Americans (74 to 26 percent) say that freedom of religion should be protected, even if it conflicts with other laws. Majorities would also protect the First Amendment conscience rights of hospitals, health care workers and insurers.

Strong majorities would let individual health care providers and organizations opt out of providing: abortion (58 to 38 percent), abortion-inducing drugs (51 to 44 percent), in vitro fertilization treatments that could result in the death of an embryo (52 to 41 percent), medication to speed the death of a terminally ill patient (55 to 41 percent) and birth control pills (51 to 46 percent). The number supporting the right to opt out of providing birth control is particularly interesting given the fact that more than eight in 10 Americans (88 percent) believe contraception is morally acceptable.

"This survey reveals that the American people are fundamentally dedicated to protecting the First Amendment conscience rights of everyone," said Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson. "Allowing people to opt out of these procedures or services ? which violate their faith ? is the right thing to do. It is also key to protecting the First Amendment rights of all Americans and enjoys strong public support as well."

Overall, the survey found that half (50 percent) of Americans have heard of the debate over the government's health care mandate. The mandate, promulgated by the Obama administration and the Department of Health and Human Services, requires employers ? including organizations that are religiously affiliated ? to provide free insurance coverage to women for services including sterilization, abortion-inducing drugs and birth control. In addition, a strong majority of Americans (52 to 31 percent) also indicated that laws in the United States have made it more difficult to follow one's religious beliefs in recent years. Nearly 9 in 10 Americans (88 percent) also agree that religious leaders should speak out on issues of religious freedom.

The survey found that an overwhelming majority of Americans said that forcing health care workers and doctors to provide abortion - when they object for religious reasons - is morally wrong (72 to 27 percent). Majorities also said that abortion (58 to 40 percent) and same-sex marriage (52 to 45 percent) were morally wrong.

The Knights of Columbus-Marist poll surveyed 1,606 adults from May 10 through May 14, 2012. Adults 18 years of age and older residing in the continental United States were interviewed by telephone with live interviewers. Telephone numbers were selected based upon a list of telephone exchanges from throughout the nation. The exchanges were selected to ensure that each region was represented in proportion to its population. To increase coverage, this land-line sample was supplemented by respondents reached through random dialing of cell phone numbers. The two samples were then combined. Results are statistically significant within ± 2.5 percentage points. The error margin increases for cross-tabulations.

Complete results of the poll are available at http://www.kofc.org/un/en/resources/communications/tables_first_amendment_conscience_rights.pdf
