

Adorers Needed, continued from p. 1

Will you come forth to join the many, including your brother council members, who are presently devoting an hour a week? Substitute adorers are also needed to fill in when a regular must miss. Please call Jayne at 624-4588 or Doris at 815-3132.

Fourth Degree—Footnotes

The Fourth Degree Assembly met May 15 at the K. C. Hall. The evening began with a fine pork rib dinner prepared by Robert Rowe. He also served slaw and beans, and Ken Schmidt provided a cake. Thanks, men. It was more than worth going for. Items of business for the evening included a fund raiser discussed later in this article and also the May 25 Corpus Christi procession for which knights in regalia as well as other knights would be needed. Our next meeting, on June 19, will be a 6:30 p.m. social at Olive Garden Restaurant at 4108 Central Avenue.

The fund raiser mentioned above will be a pancake breakfast at St. John's Parish Hall following both the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. masses on Sunday, June 22. For $5.00 you will be served sausage, pancakes, and juice. Children under 10 will be served free. For tickets you may contact Newton White at 622-0191, Steve Gallimore at 620-6269, Joe Giompoletti at 984-1991, or Louis Kosarek at 525-4741. Also, please contact Louis to volunteer help.

As a follow-up to the Grand Knight's article that dealt with the Corpus Christi procession, I want to thank Bob Kness, Bob Kortenber, Joe DePrez, Tony Torres, Larry Stamps, and Iturba Percefull who in full regalia joined me in the march from St. John's to St. Mary's. Joe Petruk and Louis Kosarek, who though unable to make the march, were present in regalia at the St. Mary's worship service that followed. Also present in regalia were Michael Kerwin and Rolf Osterlie from the Village council. Thanks to all.

Other upcoming Color Guard opportunities are coming up soon in Little Rock. The first is June 4 for the Bishop-Elect Vespers Ceremony at Christ the King Church. The second will be the following day for the Bishop's ordination at the Statehouse Convention Center. For the ordination ceremony, State Master Phil Hahn has requested that Color Guard report in full regalia, including swords, at 12:45 p.m.

Assembly officers to serve for the 2008-09 year will be inducted in a join ceremony with Hot Springs Village on Saturday, June 28 in the lower level of Sacred Heart Church. The evening will begin with the regularly scheduled mass at 5 p.m. Following the mass will be a 6 p.m. social, which will be followed by 6:45 dinner and then the induction ceremony. Please wear a tux, black bow tie, lay-down collar, tux shirt, and social baldric. Male guests should wear dark suits, and ladies should wear social evening attire. You are encouraged to invite friends and family members. The dinner menu is chicken oscar, twice-baked potatoes, mixed vegetables, salad, rolls, and turtle cheese cake. Dinner tickets cost $12.50 each. Checks should be in the hands of Ray Bertrand by Monday, June 23. His address is 11 Barcelona Way, Hot Springs, AR 71909./Newton White, Faithful Navigator

Scholarship Applications In

The applications for the Knights of Columbus $1000 scholarship are submitted, and judging is pending. July Knight Shift will announce the recipient. The scholarship goes to a graduating Catholic student from Hot Springs.

From Our Chaplain

This month we welcome with great joy the ordination of the seventh bishop of Little Rock, Anthony Taylor. The last two years have been a rare experience for Catholics in Arkansas as the last time we were without a bishop was during the Civil War. In the past the outgoing bishop remained while the search for a new bishop was conducted. This time we were on our own.

Certainly Msgr. Herbert did a superb job as diocesan administrator, and many in the diocese will miss his daily presence. He has a natural gift for administration that has been on display longer than expected, especially longer than he expected. But, while he has kept the work of the Church going well during these two years, the Church is not just another bureaucracy. The Church is the Body of Christ, and Christ has given shepherds to guide the Church according to a special consecration.

On June 5 we will celebrate an ordination, not just an installation. Bishop Taylor will not only assume responsibility for the working of the diocese. He will receive the sacrament of Holy Orders as something distinct from his ordination to the priesthood. To be a bishop is to be placed in Our Lord's service in a particular way, in a way impossible without the direct guidance of the Holy Spirit. The ordination of a bishop is a consecration so that the work of the Church remains the work of the Holy Spirit.

The Church teaches that only a bishop has "the fullness of the sacrament of Holy Orders" as priests are ordained to assist the bishop in the care of souls. The bishop does fill the role of ruling a diocese, but he is first and foremost entrusted with the office of sanctifying and of teaching. As a man ordained for that office his words and mere presence are guided and protected by the Holy Spirit. We can have confidence in his calling because of the simple fact that Jesus promised never to leave his Church untended. The bishop is truly the shepherd and we are grateful for his coming.

Bishop Taylor has made it clear from his first press conference that all are invited to celebrate the ordination with him. He understands the role he has to fill and that his life as Shepherd of the Church only has meaning in service to the flock. On June 5 we will gather around the shepherd watching closely the work God is doing in our midst. We pray that historic day once again renews the Church in Arkansas and that Christ continues to walk with us as he promised.

Raising Flags for Memorial Day

Perhaps the largest number ever showed up at Calvary Cemetery at 7 a.m. on Memorial Day to raise the flags. Even a lady was among the group. Those present were Jim Reiter, Louis Kosarek, Earl Robbins, Bob Kortenber, Harold Hager, Julian Post, Tom Gilleran, Newton White, Donald Sass, Joe Petruk, Ed McManus, Iturba Percefull, Gil Gibbons, Joe Giompoletti, and Larry and Sandy Stamps. As always, those present enjoyed coffee and donuts as well as the time to visit. The next flag raising will be Flag Day, June 14.

Council Arranges for Plaque in Meditation Garden

At the April 10 council meeting, members contributed $200 to add a plaque bearing the council's name to the new Meditation Garden behind St. John's Church.

K of C Long-Term Care Insurance Has Bonus Benefits

Since its addition to the Order's product portfolio in 2000, long-term care insurance has provided the Knights of Columbus with an excellent opportunity to further serve members and their families.

That added value is in the form of a service called "Provider Pathway," a program offering access to a network of a long-term care providers at discounted rates. The network covers home health care, personal emergency response systems, adult day care, assisted living, skilled nursing facilities and durable medical equipment.

Eligibility for participation in this program is open to Knights of Columbus Long-Term Insurance policyholders, their spouses, dependent children, parents and parents-in-law. All providers are fully credentialed and meet state licensing requirements.

If you haven't yet spoken with your professional Knights of Columbus agent about long-term care insurance, you owe it to yourself to do so. There are many decisions to make in choosing a plan—benefit amounts and durations, facility only plan or one that covers home health care, and the length of the "waiting period" before benefits kick-in are just a few of the items you'll need to consider.

Have a professionally trained agent—and a Brother Knight you can trust at that—to help you through the process. This is yet another valuable benefit that comes with your Knights of Columbus membership. Take advantage of it.

A Brother Knight helping you protect you and your loved ones! Give me a call. Let's talk.
