GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Another Christmas Season has come and gone. The decorations are down and put away for yet another year. We left 2013 in a very festive mood with an outstanding Christmas party. In almost seven years as a member of Council 5714, This past year's Christmas party had just about 60 people. It is always a good feeling to see so many people under on roof having such a good time. This marks the third straight year we have had an increase in attendees. Of course, thanks to Jim Berg's wife, Susan, and my wife, Molly, for their culinary skill in preparing another fantastic meal.

We have had some very nice accomplishments in 2013 including receiving the Columbian Award and, most recently, being awarded the Year of Faith Award. For details of this award please see the article in this month's Navigator.

I would like to thank our Council for your help with everything we accomplished in 2013 and I know I can count on your support for in making 2014 even bigger and better!!

COUNCIL NEWS

Phillies Raffle Tickets Are Here

We have received our supply of Phillies Raffle tickets. The prize is the same as last year, two lower level tickets plus parking for 14 Sunday home games. There is also an added second prize of a large screen television. The tickets are $5.00 each with 10 tickets per book. The drawing date will be March 29th this year.

We received 150 books this year. Bearing in mind we get to keep half of what we sell, if we sell all 150 books we stand to earn $3,750.00. This will not be easy, but if everyone sells one book, we will still make a very nice profit.

Please return any unsold tickets and the money collected for tickets sold to me by March 18th. This will give us time to get our final totals together and return the tickets to the Woodbury Heights Council by March 22nd.

My contact information is:

This is a great way to help our Council. Remember, we keep $2.50 for each ticket sold.

We are currently trying to set up two weekends when we can sell the tickets after all masses. At the moment, we are looking to do this during the first two weekends in March. This will only take a few minutes after each mass. Please check the back of the Church on those weekends to see where you are needed or contact me if you know you're available to help.
