Christ the King Council 14144 Newsletter

March, 2015

Grand Knight's Message:

Brother Knights,

Your council is "On the move!!!" We have already had two successful Pancake Breakfasts and Bake Sales. Christ the King Catholic Community has been very supportive of us and our projects. Our hard work and efforts have been returned in the way of financial blessings so that we can continue to do our 'good deeds' to support our church and those in need. Thank you to all who have volunteered your time at our fund-raising events; your support of Pastoral Council in selling 50-40-10 raffle tickets; and preparation for upcoming events. You guys, my brother knights, are awesome!

Our work on the wall of fame has slowed down recently and I am in need of your help. 'Calling all Veteran Knights and those currently serving'-- I am in need of a picture of you (preferably in uniform). Please get a wallet size or 3 1/2 X 5 photo of yourself to me by next meeting (March 10th) so I can plan the display for you; "Our Patriots".

Kindly volunteer to help out for: "Fish Fry Fridays" during Lent. "St. Patty's Day Dinner-Dance" on March 14th. If you need more Seminarian Education Fund Raffle Tickets to sell call us. We will need your help also to sell them after masses as well.

As you may know, the women have started the process of establishing a Women's Auxiliary at Christ the King. Please help us support them in their efforts to get this Auxiliary up and running. After a brief discussion with Luanne Wagner and Vickie Gorski; it looks like the Auxiliary is off to a good start with around 12 to 14 women attending the initial meeting.

As we prepare for Easter, a Knight's Lenten thought can be found in the church bulletin. Let us all learn to:

"Love for Lent"

We can turn our personal sacrifices during the Lenten season into a gift for others.

Vivat Jesus
SK Vincent Gorski, Grand Knight

Words to Live by:

"The Constitution was never meant to prevent people from praying; its declared purpose was to protect their freedom to pray"

Ronald Regan

"An evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral."

(Evangelii Gaudium, Nov. 24, 2013).

On February 18, 2015, we begin (began) our Forty days of Lent. This is a time of reflection and prayer for some and others may donate to charity in the tradition of almsgiving. For many though, the tradition of fasting is the chosen means of honoring their faith. Though the paths we take through the Lenten season may differ, we all embark on the same spiritual journey and we all share in the same goal; to reaffirm our commitment to Christ and to our fellow man.

Bishop Joseph Pepe

Are women supposed to cover their heads at Mass?

Here's the history of this practice: The 1917 Code of Canon Law specifies that women are obligated to cover their heads when approaching the altar and whenever in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. This tradition (as evidenced by St. Paul's treatment of the topic) was part of the Christian Tradition since the earliest days of the Church.

Now, here's where it gets tricky. In 1983, the Code of Canon Law (which replaces the 1917 Code) doesn't mention this practice. At all.

So, here are the facts: Catholic women are no longer obligated to observe this practice much like all Catholics are no longer obligated to abstain from meat on Fridays. The practice is not null, but it is no longer obligatory. Just as we are all called to make some sort of sacrifice every Friday in memorial of the Passion (be it abstaining from meat, making an effort to spend extra time in prayer, giving the money we might spend on a fancy coffee to the homeless person we pass on our way to work, etc.), we (both women and men) are still called to discern how we can approach the Blessed Sacrament with special humility and reverence (be it wearing a veil, changing out of our gym clothes before coming to Mass, making the sign of the cross whenever we pass a church, etc.).
