Brother Knights

Another Wreath Sale has come and gone and we have done well. I'll let you know how well when I get the report back from Gerry Sharkey; this year's Wreath Sale chairman. The Wreath Sale is always a good time and we get to see people there that he haven't seen in a while (at least for me) people like Herb Foley and Joe Pils. It's always great to see folks contributing no matter the event or the time!

The SP7 has been turned in and that certainly exemplifies how much our Council actually does. As for membership, welcome our 11th new Knight of the year, Richard Boone. Richard is a St Bernadette's Parishioner and a graduate of Boy's Town in Nebraska. If you haven't been to Boy's Town, you need to go. Such a rich history and Richard is bringing it to the Knights...look for his own contribution to our Hog Roast on June 10th and say HELLO. We need just one more new member and one more person to become an insurance member to qualify for Star Council! Truly an amazing accomplishment for our Council regardless of whether or not we are selected.

We will vote on our new Officers at the next meeting in June. The slate of Officers is on Page-2 of this newsletter. The installation of officers will occur July 24, 2016 in the upstairs hall at 3:00 p.m.

You will be seeing some changes around the hall in the next month or so. First, we'll be getting a new alarm system at a significant cost savings to the Holding Company. That work should be complete by July 1st. Next, we'll be getting new LED lights to replace our sodium lamps in the upper parking lot and the lights on the poles in the back. I'll keep you updated on the time of completion or you can contact other members of Pius Holding's board. Speaking of the Pius Holding Board, we'd like to congratulate and welcome Tom Blosser to his appointment to the board for the next 2 years. Tom is also working for Pius as the rental manager and maintenance.

That about rounds out my first year as your Grand Knight and phewwww what a busy year we've had! I'd like to take this time to thank Bernie Lillig for all his hard work, constant reminders and patience as he's been working with me for this portion of the newsletter. The newsletter is so well put together and informative. Next time you see Bernie give him a big pat on the back and a THANK YOU. And finally, come join us in our final Knight Year Event, the Hog Roast on Friday, June 10th starting at 5:45 p.m. Music and food for $10.00! Look forward to seeing you there!!!

Yours in Christ
