Brother Knights:

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! I hope this finds you doing well and looking forward to the New Year. We had a very busy 2015 and 2016 is looking to be just as much fun.

As a council, we have been instrumental in raising right around $40,000.00 for our churches and other charitable organizations. We have 4 new members and we are seeing more use of our hall, both upstairs and downstairs. Current and former Council members are serving as District Deputies (Pat Carr, Tom Day and Greg Marquart), State Chairmen (Mike Jarrett and Cliff Miller) and supporting Diocesan Vocations (Ed Columbus). Without ALL of our hard work none of this would be possible.

Now for 2016. In January, we start off with Playoff bound Chiefs watch party January 3rd and 10th. We follow that with a First Degree on January 14th at 630 p.m. Then it gets busy....February sees a Mouse Race and Super Bowl party and of course our Lenten Fish Fries. That's just the first 60 days! I hope you can again find the time to join us either at the event as a participant or a volunteer...in either case, I look forward to seeing you! And of course, every second Friday of the month, there is a card party for Council members and their families. Come join the fun and bring your favorite game.

Yours in Christ,

Grand Knight 4962
