Pope Pius XII Council 4962

Remembers:

As many of you who read the monthly Council newsletter may have noticed, obituaries with a photo (when available) have been included to honor our deceased brother Knights. In the Council Chambers at the Hall, are three plaques listing each and every deceased member, memorized with a brass plate showing the name and date of death. There are over 180 names beginning in 1963, three years after the Council was formed.

The listings in the newsletter started with the latest obituary going backwards in time, a timeline only interrupted by a current death. The Council Website includes all deceased Brothers with an obituary and a photo. If no obituary or photo was available, the Brother Knight's name and date of death is listed. If you have a photo and/or obituary missing from that information, please contact the Grand Knight.

This year the Council had a Memorial Mass at the Hall, as we do every year. Our Chaplain, Father David Holloway, said the Mass, during which several Past Grand Knights read every name of our deceased. The Ladies Auxiliary read every name of the deceased women. This past November 9, 2017 Memorial Mass was attended by many men and women, including several widows and widowers.

This link will take you to our Knights in Memoriam listing on our website:
