Awards for Previous Month

Knight of the Month – Marcelo Reyes

Marcelo was nominated for Knight of the Month for helping to organize the first Hispanic Mother's Day breakfast. He was instrumental in getting his Brother Knights to sing a song to the Mothers attending the breakfast.

Family of the month - John & Marsha Meyerhofer

John and Marsha were selected as Family of the Month for organizing the annual Knights of Columbus fishing trip. A big thank you for opening their home to host the event. Everyone had a great time, even though the fish were small. It was great to see some new Knights and their families attend this year.

Lady of the Month - Edye Pavlick

Edye was select for Lady of the Month for the fantastic job she does for the Women's Club in Health and Wellness. She puts a smile on a lot of faces when they receive a card in the mail, especially for those that are going through tough times. She does this for the entire Catholic family at St. Patrick's Church, where everyone contributes to the comfort and strength of the family. This is a very important Ministry, and everyone appreciates what you do. Great job!

Grand Knights Report

Dave requested nomination help for the awards for May. Brother Knights recommended Marcella Reyes for organizing the Hispanic Mother's Day Breakfast and getting the guys to sing to the Mothers, Edye Pavlick for the great job she does in sending out cards for the Ladies Club, and John & Marsha Meyerhofer for organizing the annual fishing outing for the Knights at their home in Madras.

Service Program Reports:

Church Director (John Fontana)

Duane Kloser updated the council on the visit to the Abbey on May 19th. Approximately 15 people attended, but on 2 members of the Knights. John did a great job writing up 2 prayers to say during the visit and the guests really enjoyed the visit.

Youth Report (Tyler Smith)

Youth – Due to no suitable movies playing at Canby Cinema and everyone on summer vacation, it was recommended that we delay the recognition until the fall when the kids are back in school.

Community (Greg Perez)

No Report

Family (Jim Currie)

Paul Crawford requested help for the Widows/ Widowers dinner on June 10th, starting at 2:00 for set up. A signup sheet was sent around for volunteers. Duane volunteered to call all the attendees from last year to get a count for food preparation.

Round Table Report (Ricardo Hernandez & Jesse Villarreal):

Jesse mentioned that 21 members of the Knights attended the last meeting. No non-Knights attended.

Jesse will ask the Hispanics to see if they are interested in a Strawberry social in June. A decision needs to be made ASAP if we are going to pick berries for the event. There were no volunteers to organize the event.

Unfinished Business:

Debbie Newberry recommended that the Knights wait until the end of June to submit any request for facilities for the new year.

Jesse Villarreal and Duane Kloser dressed in Regalia for the Corpus Christi Parade from St. Mary's Cathedral to the Pearl District park. A makeshift altar was assembled in the park and the rosary was said with a decade from 5 different nationalities. Approximately 750 - 1000 people attended the parade. Archbishop Sample was overwhelmed with the response, not knowing if there would be 20 or 100 people attend. The church was full for the mass and many more waiting outside to join the parade at 3:00 PM.

Fishing Trip - Jon Meyerhofer updated everyone on the fishing trip. The fish were small, but everyone had a great time. Dennis Richey and Brother Knights gave a big applause for the work John and Marsha did for hosting the event.

Mike Vlcek volunteered to provide refreshments for the July meeting.

No progress in finding a home for the display case and moving forward in getting the plaques mounted in the Parish Center. Steve Heli volunteered to check with the Canby schools. It was learned that Syl Pavlick was one of the Knights in the purchase of the case.

New Business:

The new officers were unanimously selected for the 2018/2019 fiscal year with only one Knight nominated for each position. The following Knights will be inducted at the July business meeting:

Grand Knight - Dave Bernklau

A major change was announced at the state convention where the current 6 programs will be combined into 4 (Faith, Family, Life and Community). The new Service Directors will work on reorganizing the budget to reflect the changes. Because some areas of responsibility have many projects, it was suggested that we have more than just one person be assigned to areas, like Family.

More discussion was held on who can attend our meetings. Can a member bring a child or other family members? Tony Davis, our Advocate, will work with Jesse Villarreal to contact our State Advocate (Mike Steele) to determine if this is possible. The initial recommendation is that they should not attend, and it would be better to provide child care services if this is necessary.

Duane Kloser volunteered to organize the Relay for Life Survivor Luncheon on June 23rd. Duane will contact Molalla's Grand Knight Roy Salvetti to get more volunteer help, if needed. With the combined event, Canby may not have budgeted enough money to cover the meal. Duane will contact Maureen Giger to get the details on the type of lunch they would like and if dessert will be provided. Paul Crawford, Dave Bernklau and Mike Vlcek volunteered to help Duane with the event.

Jesse Villarreal mentioned that the Knights are now allowing people to sign up to join the Knights of Columbus online. See the recent Knight Line magazine for more details.

Ron Suchanek passed around a form to sign up for the 4th of July Bingo. Please volunteer to make Ron's job easier.

No decision was made as to whether to hold a social in June. Jesse Villarreal will check with the Hispanic group to see if they want to help organize it. Last Year Dave Bernklau and Duane Kloser picked the berries, but less than 15 people attended.

Dave Bernklau is recommending that we have a health and wellness person for our council. Steve Heli may volunteer since he is stepping down as Deputy Grand Knight for next year.

Jesse Villarreal recommends that we have a publicity person to send in reports to Supreme. Even though councils from the west coast rarely make the Columbian Magazine should not be the reason that we discontinue sending them in. Bob Sheveland has been doing a very good job writing up the activities for the state magazine.

Fourth Degree Report (Bob Sheveland):

Duane Kloser invited at 3rd degree members to join us at the June meeting to be held at Ken Beppe's home in Mulino. The cost is $5 per person to cover the cost of the meat and drinks. This is a pot luck and guests need to bring a salad or dessert.
