As many of you know, I had “eye surgery” and an email was sent via Sir Knight Edward Columbus per my request indicating that there would be no August newsletter due to my surgery. I have reconsidered and decided to publish an August newsletter. The members of our Council deserves to be inform of the many activities that our Council is involved with. This newsletter is actually a July – August Newsletter since there was not a July newsletter due to inactivity in the Council.

Since my wife and I are “empty nesters” now, we have decided to downsize to a smaller “Ranch Style” home. We will be leaving our beloved Raytown, Missouri which I called home for fourth-one years to Lee’s Summit, Missouri. We will continue attending St. Bernadette Catholic Church as parishioners and I will continue being a member of Council 4962 and your Newsletter Editor for the foreseeable future.

Prayer Chain

This note is from the St. Bernadette Prayer Chain about our Brother Knight:

Ray Rinas' daughter Cammie wanted to say a special Thank You for our continuing prayers for Ray. Ray's Alzheimer's disease steals all short-term memories which can be overwhelming and very frustrating for him. But he still has his faith and attends church services and he did appreciate the visit with several longtime friends when they came to see him recently. Cammie says it's a comfort to Ray's family to have the care, concern and continuing prayers of all of us.

Council members and ladies, who are still receiving the newsletter by mail and wish to start receiving the newsletter by email, please notify Ed Columbus at:

816-358-8831

Do to limitations and mailing costs, inserts are normally not included in the U.S. Mail of the Newsletter.

The newsletter will no longer list birthdays since this information is both on the website and the Council Roster.
