CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

These are difficult days in the Church. Scandal has once again shaken us to the core and the revelations regarding Cardinal McCarrick are sickening. It is embarrassing for us as Catholics and personally insulting to those who, though imperfect, work hard to bring people into the Church while his and others' selfishness and abuse chase people out. Through it all we must never lose sight of those most affected, the victims of these evil and sinful acts. Tragically for them, their lives are permanently altered. Merely an apology can do little to heal the deep harm caused.

As Knights you have always supported your clergy. These days that is a difficult balancing act. How can we continue to support our priests and bishops and not appear to be making excuses, being part of a cover-up? It is not easy. The challenge is to look to Christ. Like St. Peter who began to sink when he took his eyes off Christ in the midst of the storm, we, too, will sink, if we don't focus on the Lord. The devil always seeks to sow confusion and chaos. It is important that we remain steadfast. We must be exemplary in our compassion and steady in our determination to remain true to Christ and the Church, as He intended it to be, and not like those who use it for personal pleasure and gain have tried to turn it to be.

Many years ago I remember a conversation in which a recovering alcoholic was listening to a discussion about a family member who was actively drinking. After a while, he observed that everyone was allowing the alcoholic to run the show, drawing everyone else into the insanity of his addiction. That wise insight applies in a way to these times. We must acknowledge the evil, confront it, but also not allow it to control us and take away our faith. Indeed, it is not an easy balancing act. In the end, we will endure and Christ will prevail.

In the meantime, continue to pray for all victims and for the Church. On a personal note, thank you so much for your continued support and encouragement which has always been there. Thank you so much, and keep the Faith!

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Every day we struggle with what we need to do, who we are supposed to be and where we are supposed to go. We find ourselves wondering if we are supposed to be doing more or if we are supposed to be something greater than we are. "I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish that He didn't trust me so much." Mother Teresa. What we are supposed to be is not as complicated or difficult as we make it. God wants you to be the best version of you that you can be. He is with you every day and if you let Him into your life you will find these difficult choices and decisions will become easier to understand. We are Catholic men living out our faith with our families and community. Do not let this world perception of who you are and who God is distract you from the truth. God is love and to do God's work is to love. Saint Augustine said; "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like." When you have God, you don't have to know everything about what you need to do; you are able to just do it.

Who you are is God's gift to you, who you become is your gift to God.

May God continue to bless you and your families.

Vivat Jesus,

Ed Massari G.K.

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney

(Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
