

Message from the Grand Knight

Volume IX Issue 3
September, 2018

Dear Brothers,

September is upon us! My how rapidly the year is going! School is open, football season is here, Labor Day activities are in full swing, and 9/11 memorials are quickly approaching.

This month we will be planning our Council's Church Drive and our Retention Drive as well as looking at having a Soccer Challenge and a Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest!

Most importantly, Saturday 9/8 is the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I believe Pope Benedict XVI said it the best when he said: "Mary is the mother and model of the Church, who receives the divine Word in faith and offers herself to God as the good soil in which we can continue to accomplish His mystery of salvation "

May we all be that good soil that bears fruit a hundredfold.

Fraternally!

Mark Mizzer, Grand Knight

It is that time of year again. It is Life Insurance Awareness Month. For this reason, during the month of September I am offering a FREE financial analysis with a printed color report complete with cash flow, college funding analysis, retirement planning and family protection analysis. Please contact me today to set up a time to get started.

Life insurance can be an important part of your financial planning. Many don't even know why they might need life insurance. Luckily, there are tools to help answer your questions about this important decision.

In order to determine how much life insurance you may need, it's a good idea to know exactly why you are buying it in the first place. This legal contract between an insured and a life insurance company, requires premiums and guarantees a benefit paid to the insured's named beneficiary upon his or her death. But insurance proceeds can go toward a number of financial obligations. Check out the reasons you may want to consider purchasing life insurance.

No. 1: Income replacement -- If you are a breadwinner in your home, insurance can help pay the bills or offer savings potential when your income is no longer coming in.

No. 2: Final expenses -- With funeral and burial costs totaling thousands, the death of a love one can leave quite a financial burden. Life insurance can help subsidize or cover these and other costs.

No. 3: Estate liquidity -- When an estate is inherited, there are many taxes your beneficiary may have to cover. From paying income taxes to federal estate and state inheritance taxes, insurance policies can provide some help.

No. 4: Locking in a low premium -- Premiums increase as people age. To optimize benefits, buying life insurance at a young age can lock in a low premium.

No. 5: Transfer family wealth -- Life insurance policies can allow you to leave more money to your family as part of your estate.

No. 6: Build cash value -- Whole or universal life policies offer a tax-advantaged way to build cash value.

No. 7: Cover debts -- A life insurance policy can help pay off a mortgage loan so beneficiaries can continue to live in the home or to remove the immediate need to sell it. Debt can be inherited, and then follow your family around for years if they have to go into foreclosure or even declare bankruptcy.

No. 8: Business succession -- For a family business or otherwise, the continuity and succession may require costs like a stock redemption buy/sell agreement or cross-purchase. To protect your descendants and your company, life insurance can provide important funds.

No. 9: Tax benefits -- Policies may provide a tax shelter and alternative to IRA options.

No. 10: Charitable gift -- A life insurance policy can help make a big impact to a important cause of the recently deceased. This could be done by donating the policy to charity or by naming the charity as beneficiary.

Once you've decided you need life insurance, it's a good idea to research options and compare policies to meet your needs. Call me to hear about these options. My cell phone number has changed. The new number is (803)833-2100.

God bless,

Bradley

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.
