Awards for Previous Month

Knight of the Month – Jesse Villarreal

Jesse and his wife have been at St. Pats Church and council for quite a few years and recently with our council Hispanic Round Table. He has been one of the primary recruiters for setting up Hispanic Round Tables in Oregon. He is our Faith director for our council and he and his wife help with Eucharistic adoration too. He recently became the Oregon Deputy Master of the fourth degree, which makes him travel a lot. Jesse is always helpful and has a great sense of humor. Thanks to Jesse for his support of our church, council and state knights.

Family of the month – Eddie Herrera

Eddie and Haidee have been at St. Pats a few years and with our council Hispanic Round Table. He has helped our community director too. He recently became a KofC insurance agent for our region. He is quite active with church in the Pastoral Council, in Bible study, being lector, and in Hispanic prayer group. He and his wife have a growing family of two and one on the way next year. Thanks to Ed for his support.

Lady of the Month – Debbie Newberry

Debbie has been at St. Pats for many years. During this time, she has been the admin/receptionist in our parish office. She has an important task at the parish office of answering phone calls from many people with many requests. We work closely with Debbie in scheduling our activities in the parish hall. It has been a good to work with her and thanks to Debbie for her continued support of parish life at St. Pats.

Community (Mike Robert)

Mike Robert reported that they will hold the Free Throw Contest after the Crab Dinner. They need a portable basket to make the event go faster. Last year, they had 15-20 participants. He will work with Adam Smith and Mike Patton. There was some discussion as to why we don't open it up to the community. Mike said this was done in the past at Trost and Baker Prairie Schools with very little success.

Family (Jim Currie)

No report.

Culture of Life (Duane Kloser)

Dave and Duane will work on a Novena after the new year.

Round Table Report (Ricardo Hernandez & Jesse Villarreal):

Jesse and Ricardo Are working with the Hispanics on the Posada. This takes a tremendous amount of work to make it a success.

Ricardo Hernandez recommends that we purchase 3 big screen TV's, two for the Parish Center and the other for the vestibule in the church. He will continue to peruse where to purchase them. It would be best to have a 70"+ TV for the Parish Center by the white board, and a 37-42" TV for the wall by the Parish Center entrance.

Since the Christmas music program with the Cantalinas has been cancelled, the Christmas social will be combined with the Posada celebration on Tuesday, December 18th. The Knights will help with the serving and contribute desserts to the event. Ron Suchanek will coordinate the event.

Unfinished Business:

Deacon Jerry Geiger indicated that usher training for St Pat's will follow after the diocese training after the new year.

Monthly refreshment for January will be provided by Dennis Richey.

See Service Program above for more details.

New Business:

The KCIC signs and cards will continue to be sold through the weekend of December 15th/16th.

Duane updated everyone on the Crab Dinner and Auction. It's critical that the directors show up for the meetings in December and January. The dinner tickets are going fast with hopes to be sold out by mid-January. Duane and Ron are handling a change to hors d'oeuvres, most likely cheese and crackers with hopes to keep the increased cost to around $200. We still need lots of help procuring silent auction items, the live auction items look good, with around 20 items nearing solidification. Dennis Richey reported that her would like to get 50 bottles of wine or monetary donations for the auction.

No purchases of aprons will be made at this time. It was decided not to purchase aprons in the future with personalized insignia unless the member of the Knights is willing to pay for the cost.

Steve is ordering the Family of the Month statue, with a drawing in January from the families selected for the last calendar year.
