CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

One of the Easter traditions in which I have participated for many years is an ecumenical gathering at the Barnegat Dock. Of course, it's not the same as Easter Mass but it is nice to gather with Christians from area churches at sunrise on Easter morning. A regular part of that brief service was when one of the local pastors, Rev. Richard Bell, would sing the spiritual, "Because He Lives." There was something special about the way he sang it. I always tried to join in but just didn't have his special gift. He died a number of years ago, but we still sing that hymn and think of him every Easter, as we will again this year. It's a great hymn for Easter and I share its lyrics with you to ponder as we approach the great feast of the Resurrection.

BECAUSE HE LIVES

*God sent His Son, they called Him Jesus;
He came to love, heal and forgive;
He lived and died to buy my pardon,
An empty grace is there to prove my Savior lives!*

(Chorus)

*Because He lives, I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives, all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living,
Just because He lives!*

*How sweet to hold a newborn baby,
And feel the pride and joy he gives;
But greater still the calm assurance:
This child can face uncertain days because He lives!*

(Chorus)

*And then one day, I'll cross the river,
I'll fight life's final war with pain;
And then, as death gives way to victory,
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He lives!*

(Chorus)

Happy Easter!
Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Jesus is Risen!

We should turn to the Lord our God, the Father Almighty, let us as best we can, give thanks with all our hearts, asking Him, that in His Goodness, He will mercifully hear our prayers, and by His grace drive evil from our thoughts and actions, and then by His strength, increase our faith and guide our minds, and grant His holy inspirations to bring us to joy without end, that shall flow through His Son our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

May God continue to bless you all.

Vivat Jesus,

Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

April 15th, the tax day, is not far off. It's a time when most of us focus on the income we've made...and how much of that we have to hand over to the government. Nobody's happy about that. And nobody's happy about all the complicated tax laws and regulations.

As your Knights of Columbus field agent, I can help. Our annuities can be used as a Traditional IRA or a Roth IRA. A traditional one may help you save money on your taxes and the Roth has some amazing tax advantages, too. Our annuities pay a competitive interest rate, consistent with our primary goal of absolute safety of principal. They all include a guaranteed interest rate, so you never have to worry. One of the best features of an annuity is that it is designed to provide retirement income you cannot outlive—guaranteed! You can open a retirement annuity for as little as $300.

So here are some facts about our annuities: Low contribution to get started; guaranteed lifetime interest rate; an even higher competitive rate being paid now; tax advantages whether or not an IRA; absolute safety of principal; an income you cannot outlive...all from the Knights of Columbus—How does that sound?

I'd be happy to meet with you in your home and at your convenience to explain the advantages of a Knights of Columbus annuity—and our other products: our highly rated life insurance, long-term care insurance and our disability income insurance. Vivat Jesus!

Fraternally,
James Castroville

Men leading the next generation into virtuous manhood

"A Shot in the Dark: Overcoming Suffering To Triumph"

Dear Parents and Pastors,

Present from almost the beginning of human history, innocent suffering has posed the greatest challenge to humanity. Since we're rational beings, our first response is often to ask "why?" Christians quickly follow that question with a much more difficult one: "How can a loving God allow his greatest creation to experience so much pain and sorrow?"

These ordeals bring us to a decision point: do we quit and succumb to them, become bitter, and discourage others? Or do we persevere and strive to overcome, learning to receive love and give love, thereby encouraging others by our virtuous example? This struggle becomes a contest in which mind, body and spirit are tested—often severely. That is strongly suggested by our language, when we say, "I'm wrestling with this or that problem." In that context, can we prepare for the inevitability of suffering, and train ourselves into virtuous fitness? For faithful Catholics, the answer should be "Yes" because of our 2,000-year tradition of faithful examples—beginning with Jesus Christ and continuing with his disciples:

- Jesus:....."Blessed are you when men revile you"
- St Paul:....."We rejoice in our suffering"
- St Peter:....."But rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings."

And that tradition lives on in Anthony Ferraro.

Born with a congenital eye malformation that made him legally blind, Anthony had many opportunities to quit over the great frustrations from his handicap—one especially felt during his teenage years. But he had the good fortune to receive that supportive training from his parents and his older brother. He had the additional good fortune of being a wrestler, an endeavor that, perhaps unlike any other, prepared him for the trials and tribulations he would face—on the mat or off—while legally blind. He learned to face them, and overcome them and himself, with the help of a devoted coach. This experience is depicted in the award-winning film, "A Shot in the Dark: He May Not See, But He Believes"

Please join us during our communion breakfast, one featuring this great film and a live presentation/discussion/Q & A with Anthony Ferraro. You will walk away encouraged and inspired, to live a more virtuous and purposeful life.

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney

(Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest,
 Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth,
 for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded,
 we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.

It is my sad duty to announce the death on Jan. 22, 2019 of the Most Rev. John Mortimer Smith, Bishop Emeritus (2010-2019) and Ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Trenton (1997-2010), former Coadjutor Bishop of Trenton (1995-1997), former Bishop of the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee in Florida (1991-1995) and former Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Newark (1988-1991). Bishop Smith died in Morris Hall Meadows, Lawrenceville, after a long illness. He was 83 years old.

Born June 23, 1935, in Orange, to Mortimer and Ethel Smith, both now deceased, Bishop Smith was the oldest of three children with two brothers, the Rev. Andrew Smith, O.S.B., and Gregory Smith. Bishop Smith attended St. Benedict's Preparatory School in Newark, and John Carroll University in Cleveland, Ohio. He entered Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall University in South Orange in 1955 and was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Newark on May 27, 1961. A graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., Father Smith obtained a doctorate in Canon Law in 1966.

In the Archdiocese of Newark, Father Smith held several positions, among them Assistant Chancellor, Tribunal official, parish priest, Director of the Cursillo Movement and Dean of Bergen County. In 1971, Father Smith was named a Monsignor by now-Pope St. Paul VI.

In 1982, Monsignor Smith was appointed to the faculty of the Pontifical North American College in Rome where he served until his return to Newark in 1986. He was appointed Pastor of St. Mary Parish, Dumont, and, later, as the Archdiocese's Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia. On Dec. 1, 1987, he was named Auxiliary Bishop of Newark, and was consecrated Jan. 25, 1988.

Bishop Smith was appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee on June 25, 1991. He returned to New Jersey as Coadjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Trenton in 1995 where he succeeded the late Bishop John C. Reiss in 1997. He served as Bishop of Trenton for 13 years until his retirement at age 75 in 2010.

Bishop Smith is survived by his two brothers.

May he rest in peace.

Most Reverend David M. O'Connell, C.M.
Bishop of Trenton
