Grand Knight's Message

Robert Slusher

Well it's a start of a new physical year. I missed last month's newsletter because I was in the hospital and under the weather. We got a good thing going; we got the Corn Hole League up and running. It ran for five weeks and we gave away the prize money. Everybody had a good time.

The Council is bringing back the breakfast after the Corporate Communion Sunday in September and December. Please attend Mass and have your family with you. A half hour after Mass; breakfast will be served in the lower Hall.

Thank you for everything you've done for me and helping me I appreciate it so much.

God be with you my friends, I appreciate it so much.

Yours in Christ,
Bob

Since I am no longer a member of St. Bernadette Catholic Church, Its very important that the Officers and Committee Chairpersons email me their articles as soon as possible. This newsletter is only as informative as the articles that you submit. Also, lets pray for the citizens impacted by Hurricane Dorian. I was involved in a hurricane aboard a United States Naval Ship in the middle of the Atlantic in 1966. Unlike the citizens of Florida, we had no place to vacate.
