Grand Knight's Korner

Ladies and Brothers,

I'm writing this on Super Bowl Sunday. It's wonderful yet amazing that the Chiefs are playing today. I'm wondering what words Andy Reid and Patrick Mahomes used to motivate this team to get here against the odds. Perhaps, it wasn't wording rather a display of relentless fortitude that poured into the hearts of the whole team.

St. Joseph's parish and school are facing financial difficulties and many changes. This might create doubt and skepticism, which are the Devil's favorite tools for despair. Admittedly, I've felt some unease this past week, but I was encouraged and hopeful after attending the 9:00 am mass. The attendance was good with some new young families and MANY familiar faces. The choir inspired and lifted our hearts. A big group of young children ran down the aisle to be blessed by our community and were outwardly excited to learn about God. Father Gibbons gave us a solid message about "showing up." The Eucharist fed our souls. One could sense the presence of Angel Armies rallying around us as we faced the wall of numbers.

Venting or remaining as bystanders will not improve our situation. Prayer is our weapon in spiritual warfare. Let's ask the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts and our parish with relentless fortitude to move forward.

God Bless,

Ed

Shining Armor Award

Larry Moore awards the Shining Armor Award to Mike McBride and Tony Gramelspacher. The Shining Armor Award is given to Knights in their first year who are involved in at least 3 council service programs, attend at least three council business meetings, receive the second and third degrees, meeting with their council's insurance rep and recruit at least one new member.

Greg Sturgill also received the Shining Armor Award but was not able to receive it at our January council meeting.

Great work, men!
