

The Knight Crier

Knights of Columbus Council # 4034
January 2020

Grand Knight's Comments

Knights and their families make a difference in our parish and communities. Knights are men who get things done. Knights are Saint Mary's quick response team. You should be very proud that our parish and community know they can count on our council to provide support, whether it be volunteers or resources.

Each year your officers, directors and chairmen attempt to create a Service Program that makes an impact on our community that tries to focus on at least one event that makes a significant impact. Our Charity Committee recently distributed grant checks from the Conor Jerome Catholic Education Assistance Program (CJCEAP) to families in need with children in our local Catholic Schools. We provided Coats to Kids in need and we reach out each month to the City of Fredericksburg through Micah Ministries and the Fredericksburg Food Bank as well as to Saint Mary's Outreach program, Fredericksburg Sheriff's Office and others to help identify those in most need.

We receive a number of requests for assistance, regularly. They are often touching and humbling because they come from individuals and families in need of the basic necessities of life: Food, Shelter, Medical Care and Financial Assistance for a way forward in life. Our state program Virginia Knights of Columbus Charities, Inc. (VKCCI) program allows councils to interview these individuals and families for grant purposes. Although not all are approved, grants have been provided to many individuals and families over the years, well over 1 Million.

Brothers I'm humbled by the kindness and love I've seen from our brother Knights in our council and throughout our state. If you have not participated lately in a council or parish activity, try to find a few hours where you and/or you and your family can participate/volunteer in support of our council, parish and community activities and fundraisers to help make the resources available for those in need. Charity begins at home, works outward to our parish, and community.

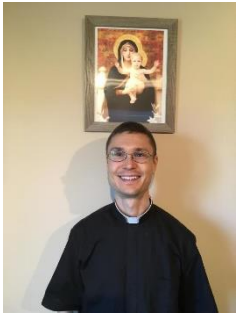

Fraternally,

Gary

December Family of the Month

Brother Gary Domaleski is always supporting our council assisting with the annual Christmas Tree Sales as a Day Captain, setting the example working shifts. His wife Gail is the vice president of the Council of Catholic Women (CCW) and she is always ready to lend a hand to our council with planning and executing events. Due to Gary and Gail's long-standing volunteerism within the council, parish and community participating in or supporting events or just being there to support our fellow Knights Gary and Gail Domaleski are selected as Family of the Month for December.

Chaplain's Corner

Well, here we are. A new year. And to end the year on December 31st, we were given the Gospel from the daytime of the first day of Christmas.

In this Gospel we were reminded that “the Word became flesh and [that He] made His dwelling among us.” That God became one of us. Freely took on our humanity with all of its limitations and weaknesses. Yet, He never gave in to temptation as God showed us Himself how to live life to fullest. How to combat sin. How to be holy. All of which leads to how to find true happiness.

This is why we have the various Gospel accounts of Christ's life. To show us how He handled various situations in life to show us what to do in life. Giving us the ultimate example as He is the model we look to imitate in all we think, say, and do.

And may we look to Him more so this new year as we reflect on this past year. First, where have we failed? What could we have done better in as fathers, sons, and brothers? This leads us to contrition for where we fell. And don't be discouraged from anything you realize. A good book to help in this regard is a new book by Fr. Timothy Gallagher, O.M.V. titled, “Overcoming Spiritual Discouragement: The Wisdom and Spiritual Power of Venerable Bruno Lanteri.” Basically, despite any shortcomings we may have had, we need to immediately begin anew.

Next, we should continue our reflection of this past year by making firm resolutions by thinking of, not only what to improve in, but also how to improve in it. Literally, make a goal and then think of a plan of action to accomplish it.

Finally, end on a note of praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for all of this past year's blessings and gifts. Thanking Him for making it through the really tough times when it seemed impossible. And just know that if it still seems this way, God will help you through it if you trust and stay close to Him.

So, may we start this new year by looking to Jesus Christ – our true guide and standard. And may we take this new opportunity to become even more like Christ, “the Word made flesh,” as we are sorry for where we fell, which leads us to make goals that we make plans of action for. All of which ends with us praising and thanking God from Whom all blessings flow. Praise be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

Amen.

I. COUNCIL SERVICE AREA

Knighthood (3rd) Degree

It is in the Knighthood Degree that we are reminded that all are united through the fraternity of the Eucharist as sons of God and in His love for and all of the Admission Degree Knights. There is no limit on the time between degrees. Look at the schedule and you will see that you can complete the Fourth Degree by April. The next 4th degree is in April near the Dale City.

We have 73 Formation Degree Knights ready for the Knighthood Degree, the strength of Unity in fostering a greater practice of charity is revealed and demonstrated through a simple yet powerful example. Both the lesson of Charity and the strength of Unity are given additional meaning in the Knighthood Degree.

Formation (2nd) Degree

We have 41 Brothers that are ready for advancement to the Formation Degree. We will be providing a signup sheet on our weekly Fraternal News update. Start signing up for the Formation and Knighthood degree. We will be getting groups together to attend.

Admissions (1st) Degree

Fr. Michael J. McGivney, our founder, and the early officers of our Order, understood the dual meaning of “charity” as love of our neighbor and love of God, and the importance of putting that love into charitable action. This lesson of charity is so important to each member, and to us as Catholics, that the true meaning of charity is the focus of the Admission Degree.

Belated December

Prayer Request

We believe in the power of prayer. Prayer unites us with each other. When we pray for and with each other we become one voice and one heart united in purpose. We can uplift and guide each other, encouraging one another in faith and hope. We make Christ present when we gather together to pray. We know this is true since Christ told us, "When two or more are gathered in my name, I am there in their midst."

In an attempt to make the process easier to use and more responsive to your needs, we will be providing links where you can submit the information into a spreadsheet in addition to e-mails.

Send your request to:

PrayerRequest@kofc4034.org and include:

Meetings

As members of the Knights of Columbus, we always participate in fraternal activities as Catholic gentlemen. We address each other in a spirit of Charity, the first principle of the Order. This means that members should engage in measured and respectful dialogue and debate, even when discussing matters as to which members may have strong opinions and opposing views. We want to create an environment where everyone feels that their opinions are valued and welcome. Because they are. Our professionalism is the best recruiting and retention tool

Refresher on Home Corporation

In the below discussion, "Home Corporation" equates to the Fredericksburg Columbus Club and Council to Fredericksburg Council #4034. Our Council is chartered as an entity of the Knights of Columbus. Under that charter, we cannot own property, therefore, a separate corporation has been established as the Fredericksburg Columbus Club.

In 2014, the Supreme Council established a policy that councils using Home Corporation facilities must maintain written agreements governing a council's use of Home Corporation facilities (our Fredericksburg Columbus Club) and how matters will be settled between the council (Council # 4034) and the Home Corporation in the event that the Home Corporation chooses to wind up its affairs. In establishing this policy, the Supreme Council expects councils and Home Corporations to work together in mutual respect in regard to their distinct but complementary roles — namely, that of tenant and landlord.

The Supreme Council expects that officers of councils and representatives of Home Corporations will act in good faith to clarify the relationship between them in order to promote the fraternal and charitable mission of the council. These expectations are consistent with members' original purpose of forming Home Corporations, which was to support the mission of the council.

In handling numerous inquiries regarding the relationship between councils and Home Corporations, the Office of the Supreme Advocate has developed extensive practical knowledge of the issues that arise in this relationship. In response to these requests for help, and in a spirit of fraternity, they have presented two model contractual agreements that should be used between a council and a Home Corporation: (1) a Terms of Use Agreement; and (2) a Charitable Distribution Agreement. These agreements recognize that councils, Home Corporations (Fredericksburg Columbus Club) and the Knights of Columbus are all separate and distinct entities, and that any agreements are made exclusively between a council and Home Corporation. Neither the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council nor any state council is a party to these agreements, which empower members of councils and Home Corporations to avoid potential problems before they happen and to address actual problems when they do arise. For councils that may decide in the future to become parish-based councils, these agreements provide a framework in which to manage such a transition.

The Terms of Use Agreement clarifies the relationship between a council and Home Corporation. Its purpose is to mitigate risk as much as possible for both parties by setting forth clear terms and conditions governing how a council uses Home Corporation facilities. These terms and conditions include minimum liability insurance requirements, rules governing the use of the trademarks of Knights of Columbus and a method for dispute resolution. This agreement does not involve the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council or any state council as a party. The agreement is between the council and the Home Corporation only, and its purpose is to assist councils and Home Corporations in resolving amicably, among themselves, a wide variety of issues that may arise.

The purpose of the Charitable Distribution Agreement is to clarify how funds and property will be distributed between a Home Corporation and a council if the members of a Home Corporation decide to dissolve the corporation. It does not state that the Home Corporation must dissolve. That is a decision that can be made only by the officers and members of the Home Corporation. By signing this agreement, a council and Home Corporation are deciding in advance how to settle matters between them in the event that the Home Corporation at some point is dissolved.

Taken together, these two agreements protect both the council and the Home Corporation from litigation risks and reputational damage, while minimizing disputes. They are crafted to address precisely the issues that the Office of the Supreme Advocate is often called on to resolve, and their purpose is to empower councils and Home Corporations to solve problems on their own. These two agreements will serve to protect the Trademarks of the Order and the name of the Knights of Columbus, the Home Corporation and the local council.

These agreements were voted on and passed in October 2016.
