Grand Knight Line

Brother Knights,

As we close the Fraternal year we are setting our self up for some new items for the Council. We have been on the new web format for almost a year now and I feel we are definitely getting our money's worth. Also created for the new year are the Committee's to help with the Budget and Retention of members. Thank you to all who have stepped up to assist in those matters. A final note for this month is the elections that will happen this month. Nominations have been submitted and elections will take place at the Business Meeting. If you want to run get your name in for that Office.

In the new year I hope we can reflect on the past year and try harder to gain the participation of our fellow brothers and gain some new members to our cause. I know it is the opinion of some that this seems to be the only goal of the organization but they couldn't be more wrong. The goals of our organization is to provide Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. It just so happens that membership is a key element to make this possible without new members or organization will dwindle away and disappear. As you all know our deaths are inevitable and it is a destiny we will all follow to one day join our Lord in Heaven.

Over the next year, we are going to try and increase our attendance in the Council at meetings and events. Please respond to the flier which was sent out and, if you haven't received one yet, more are coming. Another improvement to the Council will be the formation of the Retention Committee and Budget Committee. We have tried many approaches to improve the Council, and these are just two small steps to help with Retention. Help me to make this Council one that serves us all. Send your suggestions or concerns to my email, phone call or text.

I want us to also continue to focus on the monthly theme of "Building the Domestic Church." If you haven't received your copy of the book, let us know and we can get one to you, or you can download a copy from the Supreme web at:

Deacon's Beacon

Dear Brother Knights,

Following is a column written for our Church Bulletin in February, 2001; very relevant then and continues to be. May it provide some inspiration for our journeys in faith:

I continue to be impressed and nourished by so much of what is provided in the stories and meditations in The Word Among Us, a booklet published monthly, providing inspirational stories and a meditation on one of the daily Scripture readings. There has never been a time since I began using it in 1989 that it hasn't provided some helpful "food" for me; and surely that is evidence of the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in the production of this publication. This month's issue (Feb. 2001), Jeff Smith, in his "publisher's page" writes about the renewal of our minds. He writes about us reaching our full potential and says, "If we think about the way parents try to raise their children, we can get a sense of why God takes the renewal of our minds so seriously. Every mother or father loves to see their children fulfill all the promise within them, in terms of health, academics, friendships, sports, faith, and a whole host of other areas. Likewise, parents suffer when their children are hindered in their growth and development. How much more does God our Father love to see us grow into the children he created us to be! He wants all of us to learn how to walk in true holiness, love and faith. He even suffers whenever our potential is stifled." Jeff continues, "The mere thought of such a thorough renewal of our thoughts and desires can sound awfully intimidating. But the good news is that it's not up to us alone! While it does require our genuine desire and cooperation, this renewal only takes place through the comfort, guidance, and power of the Holy Spirit who lives in us. We don't renew ourselves --- God renews us as we surrender to him!"

Please notice three key words in the article: Desire, cooperation, surrender! I hope all of you who use The Word Among Us have read the entire article, and please share this fine booklet with a friend who may not subscribe to it yet; it truly is a treasure and one to be shared. Let's pray for an increased desire, a spirit of cooperation and surrender, to become all that God created us to be. Let's continue to grow, remembering, With God there is always more!"

"Dear Holy Spirit, you know my needs; inspire and direct me to become all God created me to be!"

Deacon Tom Hawksworth

MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

Psalm of the Month (Psalm 148)

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise him in the heights! Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host! Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars! Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens! Let them praise the name of the Lord!

For he commanded and they were created. And he established them for ever and ever; he fixed their bounds which cannot be passed. Praise the Lord from the earth, you sea monsters and all deeps, fire and hail, snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command! Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars! Beasts and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds! Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth! Young men and maidens together, old men and children! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven. He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the Lord!

Each circle elects officer members from their own rank, teaching skills of leadership and responsibility.
