Pray the Rosary

How to recite the Holy Rosary

1. SAY THESE PRAYERS...

IN THE NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (As you say this, with your right hand touch your forehead when you say Father, touch your breastbone when you say Son, touch your left shoulder when you say Holy, and touch your right shoulder when you say Spirit.)

I BELIEVE IN GOD, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty. He shall come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

OUR FATHER, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O MY JESUS, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, mother of mercy; our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

O GOD, WHOSE only-begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech Thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCE each mystery by saying something like, "The third Joyful Mystery is the Birth of Our Lord." This is required only when saying the Rosary in a group.

Deacon's Beacon

Dear Brother Knights,

Following is a column written for our church bulletin in June, 2007, and, of course, can still be useful for our spiritual reflection today:

For those of you who took a complimentary copy of the Scripture commentary booklet, the Word among us, and those who subscribe to it, I invite you to give particular attention to the commentary written for Monday, June 11; I believe it provides particular "food for thought" as well as a special challenge for all of us to consider. For those who don't have a copy of the issue for June, it was based on the Scripture reading found in Acts 11: 21-26; 13: 1-3 and the following are some excerpts from the commentary to help you know what it provided:

".....Barnabas is sent to Antioch to learn about the new converts there. When he arrives, he is stirred by the faith of the people, and encourages them not to lose heart. Because of his preaching and witness, a "great number" are added to the church (Acts 11:21). None of this should surprise us, after all; isn't that what apostles were supposed to do? But the facts about what Barnabas accomplished don't tell us very much: It's understanding how he did it that can inspire us. We are told that Barnabas was "filled with the Holy Spirit and faith" (Acts: 11:24). These two things were the key elements to Barnabas' success in evangelization. The Holy Spirit filled him with God's love, and his faith in God's promises and power allowed him to share that love with others. Barnabas became a saint because his heart was open to everything God had to give him (my emphasis). ....if we want to make it (evangelization) a part of our lives, we also need to let the Holy Spirit work in us, and we need to cultivate a lively, trusting faith. The Spirit teaches us; he gives us the words to speak, and he tells us who to speak them to. He inspires us to bring Jesus to the world through our example of service and caring. It's our faith that matters the most, though. ....Have we become insensitive to the Spirit? We can open ourselves to his presence in so many ways: through times of quiet prayer, and through meditating on God's word (my emphasis). ....Wherever God has put us, he has also put people and situations that will challenge us and help us to grow. We are his hands and feet, and we can be his shining lights – just as Barnabas was!"

May each of us be open to all the Holy Spirit wants to give us in order that we can be the "instruments" our Lord needs us and wants us to be. Let us be mindful it is the very same Holy Spirit that inspired and motivated Barnabas. God bless you.

"Holy Spirit, you are the Master Builder. Teach me to cooperate with you, and show me my part in building the kingdom of God!"

Deacon Tom Hawksworth

MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

THE CURSILLO WEEKEND?

During the three days of the Cursillo weekend from Thursday evening to Sunday evening, people from all walks of life grow close to one another. Religious and lay people form a living, working Christian community to gain a deep awareness of the treasures and responsibility of their faith. The goal of the Cursillo weekend is to give those who make it a new understanding of Jesus Christ, the basic Christian truths, and the desire to serve the church.

The Cursillo weekend is a blend of seriousness, light heartedness, spiritual exercises, talks and discussions. The teachings of Christ are discussed within an atmosphere of joy and song. There are meditations and talks by priests and laymen, and everyone making the Cursillo weekend is urged to participate by taking notes, discussing, and even by making drawings that illustrate major points.

The Cursillo weekend ends at the close of the three days. However, the whole point of the Cursillo movement is that ordinary people can steadily grow in the love and service of God and man for the rest of their lives. Christian growth is not easy, but the Cursillo weekend provides a framework for it, both during the three days and afterwards. In the Post-Cursillo, emphasis is on maintaining a vibrant and growing Christian community, thus springs the apostolic action required to make ours a better world to live in.

For many, a Cursillo weekend is a new awakening to a deeper friendship with Christ.

WEEKEND INFORMATION

For those Cursillistas who would love to come back and serve on a Cursillo weekend the Rockford Diocese holds weekends twice a year, once in the fall and spring for both men and women.

All weekends are held at:

St. Mary's Parish Community Center
881 North Mongan Drive
Oregon, Illinois 61061

Next Cursillo Dates: Spring April 20th - 23rd, 2017; Fall October 12th - 15th

June (Building the Domestic Church)

Psalm of the Month (Psalm 148)

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise him in the heights! Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host! Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars! Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens! Let them praise the name of the Lord! For he commanded and they were created. And he established them for ever and ever; he fixed their bounds which cannot be passed. Praise the Lord from the earth, you sea monsters and all deeps, fire and hail, snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command! Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars! Beasts and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds! Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth! Young men and maidens together, old men and children! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven. He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the Lord!

ADORATION AT HOLY ANGELS

Wednesdays starting after 8:00am Mass and ending before 8:00am Mass on Thursday morning. Check the book outside the chapel for open times or join others in this most blessed opportunity.

Squires Circle

Under the guidance of Christian Brother Barnabas McDonald (1865-1929), the first Columbian Squires circle was instituted in 1925. Membership in the Squires is for Catholic boys between the ages of 10 and 18. Squires' activities are many, varying from spiritual to active service for the Church and community. Each circle elects officer members from their own rank, teaching skills of leadership and responsibility.

Our Circle is #5658
