Chaplain's Reflection

Value of Our Life in the Eyes of God

How much is one human life worth? Kenneth Feinberg, the head of our government's compensation fund for 9/11 victims, had to wrestle with that question over 1,500 times. In his book, appropriately titled What is Life Worth?, Feinberg shares his agonizing struggle in trying to ensure that 9/11 victims' survivors received a fair compensation for their losses.

Even though all of the victims are equal in the eyes of God, not every family received the same amount of compensation. Instead, compensation was based on their perceived value to society, as measured primarily by their incomes. For example, stockbroker families received more than military families.

Feinberg was also aware that the government never awarded even a dime of compensation to any of the families whose relatives died in the 1995 Oklahoma City federal building bombing. Feinberg ultimately concluded that the whole process was unfair. He wrote: "Don't ask one person to act like Solomon and try to calculate the value of lives. To be judge, jury, accountant, lawyer, rabbi, et cetera, is very, very difficult."

God does not measure our value based on our income or the value society puts on what we do. In fact, God considers every one of us, regardless of who we are, to be so valuable that His only Son voluntarily surrendered His own life so that we might live forever. If God did not hold us in such high esteem, would He have bothered? How much effort would we make to save or protect something that we think has no value? Not much. We're generally happy to throw it away, or write it off as a loss. But God, through the suffering and death of Jesus, has shown us clearly how much our lives are worth to him.

Can we put a dollar amount on how much we're worth to God? If we were to try, we'd have to put a price on Jesus' life, since he gave His life for ours. Judas Iscariot, when he betrayed our Lord, received 30 silver pieces for Jesus'

"Doing Works of Charity with His Gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure"

If you have not kept your Lenten sacrifice, have no fear. God gives us a second chance many times. The Bible is full of people who received second chances: Peter, Jonah, Mark and Sampson and David. So renew that Lenten Sacrifice and when given the chance give someone else a second chance. Please do as God would do.

Your Council's Deputy Grand Knight is busy planning the next fraternal year that begins July 1. If you have an idea for an event that can benefit our Community, Faith, the Culture of Life or the Family please let him know. One element of that planning is the budget. We will be entering the first year that will not have the benefit of our Bingo Program, so our "Treasure" will be noticeably smaller.

Gus will be in need of Program Directors for our program areas of Community, Faith, Culture of Life and Family. He will be appointing also Membership, Recruitment and Retention chairmen. In an effort to connect with our parishes he will be looking for brother parishioners who can help him stay connected to their pastor. You do not need to be a Third Degree Knight to help these positions. Trustee PGK Terrence Moore is helping Gus with getting good candidates for the elected office positions.

We were able to help two more seminarians at the John Paul II Seminary. The state coordinator for this activity thanked the Rosensteel Council for its generosity in helping six seminarians this year.

Our Celebration of Saint Patrick's Day was well attended. PGK Dave Morgan pointed out to me that it looked like a typical Friday Night Dinner that was a standard at Rosensteel long ago.

In April there is a Maryknights' event to raise funds for the Rosensteel Charity Fund (see the ad on page 3), the Children's Easter Party on Palm Sunday and our Food for Families event on Holy Saturday. We will once again honor and thank our religious at the Nuns Appreciation Dinner. Please consider giving a gift for a door prize.

At the Beginning of May, many Council brothers and Maryknights will ascend upon Ocean City for the State Convention. Our Hospitality Room at the Princess Royale will have a theme of "Remembering the 1960s - Three Days of Peace and Convention Meetings." We will have a little bit of the 60's in everything: the food, Saint Pope John the 23rd and Woodstock. Get your picture taken in the Hippie Bus.

Finally, the Council officers wish you a meaningful and blessed Easter. Remember that Jesus Christ has died for us. Learn to give back by doing good deeds that glorify His Name.

Vivat Jesus, Jim Mannion

life. But this amount was an intentional insult, as it represented the fine to be paid to a slave owner by anyone who injured his slave.

Nicodemus better understood the value of Jesus' life. We heard how he anointed Jesus' dead body with over a hundred pounds of costly spices, an extravagant amount fit only for a king. Yet, even this comes nowhere near to representing the true value of Jesus' life. It would be absurd to try to place a monetary value on Jesus' life. It's much better, and far more accurate, to say simply that Jesus' life was priceless. And if Jesus' life is priceless, then, in a sense, the same is true of ours.

In God's eyes, we are indeed priceless. Yet God did pay a very specific price for us. He paid the price of our sins. We can't really attach a dollar value to cost of our sins, but costly our sins are. Sin hurts our neighbors, our families, even our enemies.

Sin hurts us, as it keeps us from being the people God wants us to be. And sin harms our relationship with God. Just as no amount of monetary compensation in the world could make up for the losses to the 9/11 victims, there's nothing we can do to truly make up for all the harm our sin has done.

Jesus had to do that for us. He is the one who satisfied our debt. He is the one who paid the price. And the price he paid was the Cross. The Cross shows us, more than anything else could, how much we are valued and loved by God. We may not be able to place a dollar value on our lives. But because of the Cross, because of "Good Friday," we know exactly what our lives are worth.

April 2 is Reconciliation Day. A special day to patch relationships and to make amends. A perfect action to take during Lent. If you've been holding a grudge or not been so nice to someone, this is the perfect day to correct that. Most importantly, let's be kind! Everyone can use a smile!

Luanne Flanigan

Fraternal Insurance

April 15, the tax day, is not far off. It's a time when most of us focus on the income we've made....and how much of that we have to hand over to the government. Nobody's happy about that. And nobody's happy about all the complicated tax laws and regulations. I heard a suggestion once that the income tax form could be simplified and reduced to just two questions and a statement:

How much did you earn last year?
How much do you have left?
Send it in.

Seriously, now is a good time to take stock of your finances and make sure you're on the path you want to be on. The focus around this time of year is saving tax money by contributing to an IRA for retirement. And whether you're getting close or whether you're fresh into a career and working life, it's not too early to plan. But many of the folks I talk with have lots of questions.

As your Knights of Columbus field agent, I can help. Our annuities can be used as a traditional IRA or a Roth IRA. A traditional one may help you save money on your taxes and the Roth has some amazing tax advantages, too. Our annuities pay a competitive interest rate, consistent with our primary goal of absolute safety of principal. They all include a guaranteed interest rate, so you never have to worry. One of the best features of an annuity is that it is designed to provide retirement income you cannot outlive - guaranteed! You can open a retirement annuity for as little as $300.

So here are some facts about our annuities: low contribution to get started; guaranteed lifetime interest rate; an even higher competitive rate being paid now; tax advantages whether or not an IRA; absolute safety of principal; an income you cannot outlive...all from the Knights of Columbus. How does that sound?

Vivat Jesus!

Knight of the Month - This month's Knight of the Month has been a Knight since 2017 and obtained his Knight-hood Degree nine months later. A very active member of St. Andrew Apostle Parish in Silver Spring, MD, he still finds time when he can to make our Council a better place. He has given support to the Council's Faith and Life programs, never hesitating to help when asked. Recruited into the Knights by his father-in-law, Brother Matt D'Antuono, please congratulate Brother Brodie Wise when you see him; the Rosensteel Knight of the Month for April 2019.

Family of the Month - This family is in a league of its own, consisting of about 50 strong Catholic Brother Knights, Maryknights and friends. They are early risers every Thursday from September through early May. Nothing starts before remembering those who need their healing prayers. Once that is done it's not all business as everyone can be heard cheering each other's successes. Staying out of the gutter can be a challenge and the morning is not complete until Tim Moriarty shouts out, "You gotta hit them!"

No, the sport is not boxing, but references have the sport's start dating back to the time of the founding of the Knights of Columbus and in the same city. They are in the community representing what is good about the Father Rosensteel Council. This Month's Family of the Month is the Rosensteel Retiree's Mixed Duckpin Bowling League.

I found some suggestions for a more spiritual way to celebrate Easter. Turn your heart to worship the sacrifice of the Messiah by reading John Piper's book Fifty Reasons Why Jesus Came to Die. It's an excellent book for personal devotion time. Watching the Jesus film every year will make Easter more meaningful.

Send an Easter care package to someone you would like to spend Easter with, but distance keeps you apart. Wear all white on Resurrection Sunday. Historically, Christians have dressed in white at Easter to symbolize that we are set free from sin and will one day be wholly pure.

Invite others to join you in preparing and/or sharing a feast to be remembered. Set the table with gold and white. Gold reminds us of our victorious King, and white represents the purity of his perfect life and purity that will be ours one day. Fill mason jars with white flowers. Use gold-rimmed paper plates and gold plastic silverware as well as paper cups. Celebrate with a regal indoor picnic!

If you enjoy music, make an Easter playlist of your favorite hymns and songs that focus on the cross and the resurrection and play them all day with everybody singing along.

The resurrection of Jesus the Messiah is the pinnacle of world history. It is the miracle of all time. Is it any wonder the watching world isn't impressed with our faith if our celebration is marked by the appropriate somber tone of Lent with only an hour or two of moderate joy on Easter Sunday? Remember, Christ's victory on the cross is the answer for every wound and need in every heart.

Keep the good feelings going as we meet for lunch with our friends the Tuesday after Easter, April 23. It will be a time to relax and let someone else do the cooking and cleanup.
