Charity is adhering to a new commandment. (Knights to Christ August 26th entry)

A new commandment I give you: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. (John 13:34)

Senior BBQ

On August 7, Brother Knights Mike McBride, Dan Fessler, Bill Telesco, Al Finken, Mo Mitchell and Rick Brentrup cooked a barbecue lunch for LOW seniors. Chairman McBride reported that 100 hamburgers, 72 brats and 48 dogs were served. Not surprisingly, Mike said no one went away hungry.

Supreme Appeal

The Supreme website (<https://www.kofc.org>) lists opportunities to support Knights of Columbus sponsored charities, including our effort to aid persecuted Christians around the world.

Unity

Unity is a Council of super heroes. (Knights to Christ August 27th entry)

In a large house there are not only items of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some are ignoble. If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful for the Master and prepared to do any good work. (2 Timothy 2:20-21)

Council Awards

At the August 25 business meeting, GK Derek Landreville presented a Certificate of Appreciation to PGK Dan Fessler (top photo below) for his service to our council. Derek also presented the July Knight of the Month award to Pat Garrison (bottom photo). Council Director Matt Traver announced that Francis "Fuzzy" Jensen was Knight of the Month for August. The GK also announced that Frank and Ronnie Seagren were the July Family of the Month and the Greg Polak family was the August Family of the Month. (Thanks to Brother Bill Telesco for the photos this month.)

133rd Supreme Convention

Calling the gathering of more than 2,000 Knights of Columbus and their families “the first chapter of the World Meeting of Families,” Archbishop Charles Chaput welcomed the 133rd Supreme Convention to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

“We will have a rather larger meeting here in 49 days,” he said, referring to the World Meeting of Families to be held in Philadelphia at the end of September, which will include the first apostolic visit to the United States of Pope Francis.

He made his remarks in his homily at the convention’s Opening Mass, of which he was also the main celebrant, on Tuesday morning, Aug. 4, at the Pennsylvania Convention Center in downtown Philadelphia.
