Grand Knight's Comments

Brothers,

At Mass, you have probably heard the theme of the importance of the Eucharist in the homilies. If there is one thing that I can say I am really thankful for it's the presence of Jesus in that most blessed sacrament. The days that I get to spend in communion with Christ just seem so much easier than the days without. Just think as Catholics we are given the opportunity to sit with the physical presence of Christ, how many of our Christian brothers and sisters lose out on this opportunity.

Despite this gift, we are plagued with the growing numbers of brothers and sisters that see the Eucharist as nothing more than a symbol. This is where it is on us to live out the duties that come with our Baptism, to help our fellow Catholics understand the very real and living presence of Christ, of God, in the Eucharist. That mystery of Faith that plants a small seed within us to grow closer to God.

Throughout this month, see if you are able to attend a daily Mass (or few). Maybe make some time to sit with Jesus in Adoration, bring your family or a friend. Last, when you do receive the blessed sacrament, be thankful, because as St. Pio had said this is but a taste of what we can expect in Heaven.

Vivat Jesus!

Chaplin's Comments by Fr Folmar

Stay focused men of God. In Matthew 14:22-36, St. Peter walks on water. He steps out in faith to go to Jesus, all of which is not seen with the other disciples. For he basically tells Jesus that if He wants something, then may He make it happen. And it does happen. Peter is able to walk on water but becomes distracted and then loses faith. He stops trusting and starts to sink.

Instead, he should have stayed focused and continued to trust.

For us, we can pray about something beforehand, asking Jesus to help us with it. It could be something that we see as very hard and difficult coming up, such as a big presentation at work, the taking on of new tasks, the blessing of becoming a father, and doing things for the first time.

We can step out in faith in what we are trying to do, but we need to stay focused on what we are doing and not lose hope; otherwise, we too will start falling. Feeling like we are sinking. Drowning even.

Therefore, as soldiers of Christ, who are seeking to carry out our Chief Commander's Most Holy Will,

We need to keep in mind that that is what we are striving to do – God's Will. Striving to do what's right. Striving to do things for the good of others, such as our society, and most importantly our family.

And thus, if things seem to start going bad, or not as good as we had hoped, we need to stay focused on what we are doing and continue to walk out in faith. In faith to Jesus. Sure, we are not perfect, but we strive for it, so as to be perfect as Our Heavenly Father is.

So do not give into any mishaps or side disturbances of the day, and never doubt. For if Jesus wants it, it will happen.

Jesus, I Trust in You!
