Grand Knight's Comments

The Knights of Columbus provides us an opportunity to realize our life's purpose. It helps us clarify the deeper meanings of what it means to be a Catholic. It offers Brotherly love and avenues to lifelong friendships. Our commitment to those in need is rich and meaningful. It about getting involved in the parish and a spirit of "giving back". Our Knights of Columbus journey helps us to truly understand why we were placed on this earth and a drive for continuous improvement.

Communication is a vital part of what we do. If we are to lead, to follow, to grow and to inform, then we must excel at communication. Whisper good counsel in a fellow Knight's ear. My desire is to ensure everyone is on the same page. A collective vision and a plan that we all share and understand.

With the upcoming Holiday season, be vigilant when gathering and traveling outside the immediate areas. Know the local restrictions and guidance for those areas. The goodwill of those we serve is the foundation of our success, it's a real pleasure at this holiday time to say "thank you" and on behalf of myself, my wife Earnestine, Deputy Grand Knight Anthony DeMaio and his wife Althea, and the entire elected and appointed knights of Fredericksburg Council 4034 we are proud and pleased to wish each of you a holiday filled with peace, love and rich with blessings. Our sincere thanks for your loyalty and support.

"May the Song of the Angels of Glory to God and peace to His people on earth be ever more true in your home, in your heart and everything that you do." May God continue to keep and bless you and your families and may we continue to pray for one another.

Fraternally
 Your Brother in Christ,
 Anthony B. Hall

Chaplin Comment's by Fr Folmar

The opening Sunday of Advent (Mark 1:1-8) has St. John the Baptist preaching “a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sin.” Thus, St. John is “preparing the way of the Lord.” Consequently, by us repenting we are preparing the way of the Lord in our hearts in which we are leading our families by example in helping to prepare our loved ones, besides ourselves, for Christmas.

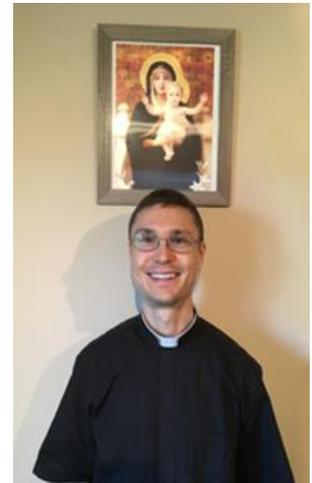

And so, Mark’s Gospel starts with this call to repentance with a quote from the Book of Isaiah. In a part of this Book that’s referred to as the “Book of Consolation” (Isaiah 40-55), with the literal meaning for the time this was written, being words to console the People of God while they were in Babylon – their place of exile.

Therefore, even though repentance can be seen by our world as something negative, these are actually very comforting words. Because it speaks of their exile ending. And what’s better, God will take away any barriers that are in the way so that “He can lead [and guide] His people” across the desert into the Promised Land. Something that we, as holy men of God, already do with our families. We, as protectors and defenders of our families, help to take away barriers in our families and lead and guide them to Heaven.

Consequently, a way in which we do this in our families is by first recognizing that we ourselves have sinned, that we are sincerely sorry for these sins, and acknowledge that we need Christ’s help and grace in amending our lives in trying to improve and do better. All of which is why we approach Christ’s throne of mercy with unflinching trust in what He can, and will, do. But it all begins with repentance.

And by leading our families in this way, not only ourselves, but our loved ones as well, are all learning to look to God more and thus depend on Him more, rather than the world, which ultimately disappoints.

So, may we be sincerely sorry for our past sins, ask for God’s help, receive His mercy and grace, and allow Him to lead us, so that we can lead our families even better than we already are. Prepare the way of the Lord!

Drive-By Santa Breakfast

December 12th

Our breakfast with Santa will be a little different this year. The PLC is still off limits but that will not beat us.

We are going to hold a drive by Meet and Greet at the Christmas Tree Sale Lot behind the church so that those that need Toys are able to grab a donut, a beverage, and a toy. No child should be without the feeling of hope during the Christmas Season.

We need volunteers to make this event successful.
