MEANING OF CHRISTMAS - ANONYMOUS

Once upon a cold Christmas Eve, a man sat in reflective silence before the flames flickering in the fireplace, thinking about the meaning of Christmas. "There is no point to a God who became human," he mused. "Why would an all-powerful God want to share even one of his precious moments with the likes of us? And even if he did, why would God choose to be born in a stable? No Way! The whole thing is absurd! I'm sure that if God really wanted to come down to earth, he would have chosen some other way."

Suddenly, the man roused from his musings by a strange sound outside. He sprang to the window and leaned on the sash. Outside he saw a gaggle of snow geese frantically honking and wildly flapping their wings amid the deep snow and frigid cold. They seemed dazed and confused. Apparently, due to exhaustion, they had dropped out of a larger flock migrating to a warmer climate.

Moved to compassion, the man bundled up and went outside. He tried to "shoo" the shivering geese into the warm garage, but the more he "shooed," the more the geese panicked. "If they only realized that I'm trying to save them," he thought to himself. "How can I make them understand my concern for their well-being?"

Then a thought came to him: "If for just a minute, I could become one of them, if I could become a snow goose and communicate with them in their own language, then they would know what I'm trying to do."

In a flash of inspiration, he remembered it was Christmas Eve. A warm smile crossed his face. The Christmas story no longer seemed absurd. He visualized an ordinary-looking infant lying in a manger in a stable in Bethlehem. He understood the answer to his Christmas problem: God became one-like-us to tell us, in human terms, that we can understand, that he loves us, that he loves us right now, and that he is concerned with our well being.

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

It was Christmas Eve. A jostling crowd of shoppers were busy grabbing last-minute bargains. A small girl in tattered clothes made her way through the crowd. Her name was Nelly. You will find such a girl in your city or town.

Nelly was also shopping - window shopping. She had no money and she was hungry. The twinkling lights, the colorful Christmas candles, the dazzling decorations and displays in the shop windows fascinated Nelly. As she passed the bakery with the cakes and pastries, she felt even more hungry. She paused...then moved a step closer to press her little snub nose against the window as she gazed at the Christmas "goodies". It lasted only a while. The manager saw her face in the window --- the pale face pinched with hunger --- so Nelly was told gruffly: "You there, be off!"

Nelly did not need a second bidding. She was frightened. She hurried through the crowd until she reached the attic where she lived with her aged Grandma. Grandma was asleep. Sleep was the only thing they did not have to buy. This was the slumber that helped them forget misfortune --- being hungry, no gifts, no new clothes, no decorations. Nelly also soon found refuge in sleep. From a distance wafted the strains of the well-loved carol, "Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth to men good will."

Is there such a Nelly in your neighborhood with whom you can share the joys and blessings of Christmas? All you have to do is look around.

We are charged to seek out those lost in the shuffle of life, to smooth out rough places; to fill in the valleys of hunger and want; to level out the mountains of injustice.

Merry Christmas to you all!

Fr. John

KC LADIES

Hopefully you have made your reservation for our annual Christmas Salad Potluck on Thursday, December 3rd. If not, call Joan Zingsheim at 274-0854 before November 30th. Plan to meet us in the back room of the Clubhouse at 11:30 a.m. with one of your favorite salads to share. Please also bring a gift for our charity this year – Luke House Community Meal Program. Food staples they can always use: (larger sizes of) Folgers drip grind coffee, sugar, salt, pepper, bleach, Windex, Dawn, and rubber gloves. And, of course, they always appreciate cash – checks should be made payable to Luke House, Inc. They receive no government assistance, so they rely on us for food and cash donations to keep them going. Thanks to Joan and Gorianne for organizing our Christmas gathering.

At our Christmas luncheon we also plan our activities for the next year. Come with ideas of places you would like to see and things to do. How wonderful that we all take turns to organize our monthly activities.

We wish all of you a wonderful holiday season, from Thanksgiving through Christmas and the New Year. Enjoy your family and loved ones while you still have that opportunity. Remember, we take the month of January "off" to stay home and hibernate until the temperatures warm up.

Thanks to everyone who attended our November Memorial Mass and Breakfast. It was a great turnout and it is wonderful to visit with good friends and enjoy a meal together.

Remember that all wives, or widows, of KC members are welcome to participate in our activities at any time. We do not charge dues nor have a membership roster. We just gather to enjoy each other's company and try new adventures, while growing in our Catholic faith. For questions, call Betty Blumer at 277-9621.
