Poem from Samaritan House by Charles McKinstry “Awful Me”
Awful, awful, awful me
Took candies from the Christmas tree
Got chocolate on my hands and face
Drives me crazy from the way it tastes
Got string popcorn all around on the floor
Stood in a chair so that I could reach more
My parents upset but not mad at me
But I’m OK I do believe
O,,, awful, awful, awful me
As I sat snacking on the Christmas tree
The lights go on and they catch me
Eating everything on the Christmas tree
O,,, awful, awful, awful me
Ate too much candy and popcorn
From the Christmas tree
And now I’m sick, sick as can be
But when I’m better
I’ll finish that Christmas tree...

Pray for those who are sick in spirit, mind or body:

Thought for December
Many Protestants can’t understand why Catholics honor Mary so much. And we certainly do honor her. If you need to explain this to someone here’s a simple way. The 4th commandment for Catholics is “honor thy father and mother” (It’s the 5th commandment for Protestants). Since Mary was truly Jesus’ mother, he honors her. He follows His own rules. Since we try to imitate Jesus, we honor Mary too. We also call Mary the Queen of heaven. Why do we do that? In the Old Testament the kings usually had many wives so a wife was not made a queen. Instead the king’s mother was the queen. Remember Solomon who had many wives His mother Bathsheba was the queen. Mary is Jesus mother. Jesus is King so it’s very reasonable that Mary is queen.
