CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Reverend Martino Choi, Parochial Vicar
St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church
E-mail: mchoi@adwparish.org Phone: 301-924-2284

Dear Brother Knights,

Lent is upon us! The Scriptures tell us of the forty days of the Great Flood, the forty years of wandering in the desert by the Israelites, the forty days Jesus spent in the desert before beginning His ministry. Likewise, Lent provides us with an opportunity to disentangle ourselves from the busyness, distractions, and concerns of this life to focus on our relationship with God.

The Church offers prayer, fasting, and almsgiving as traditional Lenten practices. Prayer helps us learn to listen to God's voice amidst the busyness of our lives. Fasting builds up our self-control so that we aren't easily pulled away by distractions and temptations. Almsgiving allows us to practice detachment, letting go of this world and reminding us of our eternal destiny.

As we begin with Lent with the Ash Wednesday call to "repent and believe in the Gospel," may this season be a time to turn closer to the Lord, to deepen our relationship with Him. Then, we will be able to celebrate the Easter joy of knowing the power of God's love for us.

In Christ,
Fr. Martino Choi

Motto: "Lord, direct our actions to fulfill Your will."

DISTRICT DEPUTY'S REPORT

SK Joseph F. Kremasky, District Deputy (30)
E-mail: JKremasky@gmail.com ~ Phone: 301-570-4891

February 3 - St. Blaise
February 20 - St. Amata
February 14 - St. Valentine

As we near Valentine's Day, a young man's heart turns to the affairs of love. And, we should know a little more about St. Valentine, whose name is shared in this famous day.

St. Valentine of Terni was a third century priest that married young couples in strict disobedience with Roman law (young single soldiers fought better than those with a wife/family waiting).

In the year 269AD, Valentine's judge, Asterius, sentenced Valentine to a three-part execution of a beating, stoning, and finally decapitation all because of his stand for Christian marriage. The story goes that the last words he wrote were in a note to Asterius' daughter. He inspired today's romantic missives by signing it, "from your Valentine."

By now, those intending to attend the 120th Convention in Ocean City, Maryland should have already made arrangements by registering on-line for the convention, as well as, reserve a room at the Princess Royale. But, if this has slipped past you, still try to register, or get on the waiting list by contacting John Trainor.

As in the past, Fr. Peter Paul Maher Council and the Lions Club will hold our annual pancake and sausage breakfast. Ed Shaffer is chairing this event, and is coordinating help assignments, advertising, etc. If you can't help, please consider patronizing this event by buying a hearty breakfast/lunch.

As we approach Lent, we typically have our "Fat Tuesday" celebration, and our Annual Easter Egg Hunt (complete with prizes and bunny). I don't know who has the most fun - the children or the adult helpers. I would be reminiscent if I didn't include some words regarding the growth of our order. Fr. Peter Paul Maher, and the other councils in District 30 have done "okay" when it comes to growth, but we can't rest on our laurels. Unfortunately, long time members of our order are passing on. Unless we replenish with new members, the Knights of Columbus is doomed to a slow "death spiral." We must continue to bring in new members. Your ideas are welcome.

Keep an eye out for the upcoming articles on our State Deputy and State Secretary's recent trip to Guatemala. They were able to see first-hand where the "boxes of joy" that we prepared went, and how they were received.

The best is yet to come.!

Vivat Jesus

My Brother Knights, Recently my family received the FAMILY OF THE MONTH Icon from Supreme. This is truly an honor and we accepted it gratefully.

We have displayed it in a prominent place in our home and as I look at it each day it causes me to reflect on "FAMILY".

There are so many definitions of "Family" as we go through our life; some near, some far, I believe that our challenge as a Knights of Columbus "Family" is to explore ways to bring these families closer together. The many and varied programs we offer certainly present multiple opportunities for all of us to form a stronger Catholic Community Family to better serve our Church, Community and each other.

Please join with me and my family as we go forward in 2018 and beyond. Look for chances to ever widen our family circle, to be more inclusive, to be more welcoming and to be more understanding.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph gave us the model, may we forever strive through prayer and action to make their model our FAMILY.

Fraternally, Joe Feakes.

2018 MARCH FOR LIFE – A RECAP

Brother Knights. I had planned to join the 2018 March for Life last Saturday, January 18, as I had always done since I became a Knight of Columbus in 2010. Accordingly, I had planned to write this article based on what I expected to be a happy, exciting and interesting day. It was to be the first time, since I started participating in the March, that the weather would have been fall-like on the day of the March. Unfortunately, I was sick, and continue to be as I compose this article.

So what I planned to do was to write this article by paraphrasing news articles I could find on the internet. But as I went through the write-ups I found, I decided that you would probably enjoy better seeing the pictures taken during the March of the very young and old gathered together to voice their heartfelt love for life and aspiration for the end of abortion. So here are the URLs for three websites that let pictures speak thousands of words about the March.

CONVERSION TO THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

(Reflecting on questions about the dignity of life can lead us to God's goodness and love)

THE SPIRIT of the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C., is extraordinary. It is not only peaceful but also full of hope and joy. It is forward-looking as it seeks to create a culture of life and love. And while it draws people of all ages, the crowd tends to be young, including many millennials and young families. Standing in the crowd, you feel as though you're at a version of World Youth Day — filled with the conviction that human life is God's precious gift and that each person, from the moment of conception, is endowed by the Creator with inviolable dignity and, indeed, "a right to life."

When I attend the March for Life each January, I invariably catch a cold, but it's worth it. I come home with a renewed determination to resist what Pope Francis calls "the throwaway culture" and to foster genuine love and respect for human life, especially when it is defenseless.

I often ask myself what draws so many people to this event. What makes them travel great distances, spend sleepless nights on buses, and stand for hours on cold, soggy ground? Is it merely a political movement, or is it something more? The answer, I think, is that the Lord is at work in the minds and hearts of these good people and many more like them. The word for it has to be “conversion” — the Lord is converting minds and hearts to the Gospel of Life. And I would further offer that this process of conversion takes place within us on three levels — intellectual, moral and religious.

SEEKING TRUTH

We commonly think of conversion solely as a religious experience, such as coming to faith in Christ or converting to Catholicism. Yet conversion has other meanings as well. In general, it is a change of direction in our lives that takes us beyond ourselves, beyond our limited point of view, beyond our purely personal interests — or, as Pope Francis would say, beyond our comfort zone. It is a shift that leads us to strive to be better, more authentic versions of ourselves.

Conversion is thus a common human experience. And as noted above, it often occurs on three levels in our lives. Let’s look at all three to understand more deeply the ways in which people can be converted to the truth and beauty of the Gospel of Life.

First, intellectual conversion begins when we start asking questions and challenging assumptions. We begin to wonder whether what we had assumed to be true is in fact true. We question the rhetoric and hype that we hear and see.

Many people who once considered themselves avidly “pro-choice” arrived at a point in their lives when they started asking questions about arguments for abortion, leading them to ultimately change their minds. At a certain point, they took seriously the philosophical arguments and scientific evidence advanced in favor of the humanity of the unborn child. For others, the breakthrough experience came when they actually saw an unborn child via an ultrasound machine. Indeed, this is the case for many as a result of the Knights of Columbus Ultrasound Initiative.

MOVED TO GRATITUDE

A change of mind often leads to a change in one’s actions, to moral conversion — to a different way of understanding, judging and acting. As a rule, people see themselves as reasonable and conscientious. When individuals take that view of themselves seriously, they may arrive at a point when they become uncomfortable making decisions and acting solely on the basis of what they think is in their best interest. They start thinking not only about their own problems, comfort or convenience. They start asking about what really matters, what is really important in life. In other words, they become concerned about virtues and values.

When people become convinced of the value of human life, they may be led to make difficult choices. Their newfound support for the cause of life may alienate friends and colleagues. A woman experiencing a difficult pregnancy may find the courage to bring her child to term in spite of her family’s opposition.

Even as individuals undergo intellectual and moral conversion, something deeper may be going on in the depths of their being — namely, a genuine religious conversion. After all, once life is understood as a precious gift, many are struck by the thought that God loves what he has made. From there, it is a short step to thank the Creator for the gift of life and, in so doing, to fall in love with him.

We are prompted to believe in, trust and worship the living God, thanking him for creating each person in his image; thanking him for sending his Son to assume and redeem our humanity; thanking him for calling us to friendship with himself.

Thus, intellectual convictions and moral choices in favor of life become surrounded by God’s grace and love. This experience transforms us deeply and fills our pro-life advocacy with genuine love of God and neighbor. We then become not only advocates for life but also witnesses to the God of love who created and redeemed us.

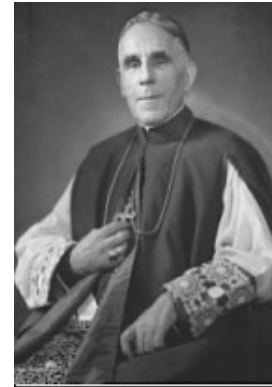

This, I think, explains the joy I experience each year when I take part in the March for Life. I hope you’ll experience that same joy!

ESSAY CONTEST

The Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest is underway at St. Peter’s school. The essay contest is a creative way to encourage young people to become citizens who are firmly grounded in the Faith. The theme of the contest is “The Importance of Religious Freedom.” The contest is open to all seventh graders. The criteria include creativity, thoughtfulness and grammar. The winner receives a scholarship award and a plaque commemorating the achievement. The scholarship and plaque will be presented at the school’s year-end awards ceremony in June.

This essay contest at St. Patrick’s was a huge success. The essays reflected serious thought by the students. I believe some young eyes were opened about the importance of religious freedom, how fortunate we are in this country to have religious freedom, and that this freedom should not be taken for granted. Thanks to Ms. Christie Anne Short, the school principal, for allowing the students to participate. And we have a winner!!!!

The winner will be announced at the school’s year-end awards ceremony in June.
