CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Monsignor Donald Essex, Pastor, Our Lady of Grace Church
[Website: <http://ourladyofgracelw.weebly.com>]

Dear Knights and Ladies:

I start by wishing you and your families a blessed and happy New Year.

As we begin January, we see the start of a new 90 legislative session in Annapolis. We Catholics are called to be a voice in the dialogue in "the public square." This year, again, we anticipate that a bill to allow assisted suicide will once more be introduced. Please be prepared to make your voice heard on this and other issues that are clearly guided by our Church's moral teaching. In the meantime, be sure of my prayers for you.

Sincerely in Christ, Monsignor Essex

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

SK W. Fred Taylor, Grand Knight
E-mail: Taylorwf8@verizon.net ~ Phone: 301-871-8928

Brother Knights and Ladies:

Welcome to a new calendar year, Elaine and I both wish each of you a Happy and Healthy New Year. January also begins the second half of our fraternal year. We have enjoyed a productive and exciting beginning to our fraternal year and look forward to our many planned activities to support our Community and our Church. Our Program areas include Church, Community, Family, Youth, Culture of Life, and Council and provide many fun and rewarding opportunities for each of us.

We had many events and activities in December that were well supported. Our annual event at St. Peter's Parish Center, the Breakfast with St. Nick, was an outstanding success. The crew arrived at 6 am and we were engaged until after noon. Christmas Carols were playing in the kitchen and we served breakfast continuously for nearly 4 hours. Guests enjoyed the food, Santa, and the crafts. This was a truly joyful experience for the parish community.

Elaine and I thank Joe and Lynn Feakes for another fun filled evening at the Night at the Olney Theater. We all enjoyed the reception before the play and everyone agreed that "Mary Poppins" was a truly great production! Many of us spent an evening at Montgomery General Hospital singing Christmas Carols for the patients and staff. We were rewarded by the smiles on patients faces and the staff joining in the songs and dancing at their work stations.

Our annual Christmas Party was an event well attended and enjoyed by all. My thanks to Steve Sutkowski for leading this event and to the many Knights and Ladies who contributed to its success. The event included a pot-luck dinner, the presentation of awards for the Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest, a Yankee Sway present exchange, a drawing for a large stuffed bear for the youth, presentations to our Seminarians, singing Christmas Carols, and a visit from Santa reflecting on the true meaning of Christmas. We had our raffle drawing and awarded prizes. Half of the proceeds from the raffle ticket sales support our Seminarian Fund. This year we are supporting 10 Seminarians. We also distributed a new Matthew Kelly book after the Christmas masses at St. Peter's Church. Such activities continue to be part of the ongoing evangelization effort that we support.

Our Communion Breakfast for Life is coming up soon. This activity will support the Knights of Columbus State Ultrasound Program that places ultrasound machines in pregnancy centers throughout Maryland. The event will feature a speaker and a full breakfast. Please keep an eye out for additional details. Mark your calendars for our next Social Meeting on January 25 when we will be showing a truly inspiring film about the life of Father McGivney.

Many opportunities to serve our Church and Community are on our agenda in upcoming months. Remember the importance of recruitment and retaining and engaging our Brothers and their families, making them welcome and a vibrant part of our Council.

Please visit our web site at www.kofc6793.org or our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/KnightsOfColumbus6793/. Take a moment to be informed, keep an eye on the newsletter, and attend a Business Meeting to find things that suit your particular interests and join us.

Make the time to become a more active Brother Knight and support Council activities. You can reach me at 301-871-8928 or Taylorwf8@verizon.net.

God bless you and your families.

INSURANCE CHECK-UP FOR 2017

Where did 2016 go? It seems like it was summer yesterday and Easter was last week! I hope you and your family had a great finish to 2016. Now, the first quarter of 2017 is upon us. And hopefully, you've established a few goals for this year. I've learned a great tip regarding resolutions. First, write them down. It's not too late if you haven't already done this. Commit your goals to paper and post it someplace you will see it often. Writing down a goal is the first step towards achieving it. It may not make sense at first, but I'm sure you have heard stories of the success this simple task can bring. Whether your goal is to exercise more, give more to charity, read more or watch less television, you're more likely to accomplish it if you write it down.

Second, resolve to have an expert look at your finances. I recommend that you have a team of experts help you, and I would love to be the first you sit with. Let's schedule some time to meet together, and I, your professional Knights of Columbus insurance agent, will provide an "insurance check-up" (at no cost!) that will evaluate any gaps in your family's life insurance protection. Now might be the perfect time to fill those gaps, not later. Keep in mind that unlike many other products, you don't just need money to obtain life insurance; you also need good health, and no one knows when your health could change.

Did I mention my check-up is free of charge? When was the last time you received something for free that could provide value to you and your family for generations? Contact me TODAY; see my contact information above.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

SK Stephen Goldhammer, Chairman, Culture of Life

E-mail: SEGoldhamm@aol.com ~ Phone: 301-570-9613

On November 14, over 50 people, including many Knights, gathered to pray near LeRoy Carhart's abortion clinic in Germantown. Similar gatherings have continued every Monday since he arrived in December 2010. As usual, two security men stood outside of his clinic, several staff members arrived, and a few patients came for their appointments. This day, however, Carhart did not come. Rather, it was learned that Carhart had abandoned his late-term business and would not return to Maryland. This is great news, and an answer to persistent prayer! One of the most notorious and zealous late-term abortionists in the nation appears to have given up his late-term business. While Carhart is gone, the battle for life must continue. It is rumored that, unfortunately, another late-term abortionist may assume the Germantown practice. Please pray that the rumor does not become fact and that Carhart will also close his Nebraska clinic.

The election is over and the president-elect is naming people he will nominate for the most senior positions to run the government. Many of the people named are strongly pro-life. Now, we must continue to make it clear that pro-life issues are important and cannot be ignored. The largest pro-life march in history takes place on the Washington Mall every January -- the national March for Life. This year it will occur one week after the new president is sworn in. The upcoming 44th March for Life will be Friday, January 27, from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Mark your calendars and make plans to participate. Let's show the rest of our country that we in Maryland support the pre-born.

The Maryland State Council is donating its 19th ultrasound machine to Mary's Center in Glen Burnie. Several additional applications are under development and more machines are needed. For each machine, the State Council contributes about $25,000, which is matched by funds from the Knights of Columbus Supreme Headquarters. The state fund for this program is running low and additional contributions are needed. Several councils and districts are planning to hold or have held fundraisers specifically for the Ultrasound Project. Can your council do the same? For more information or to make a donation, contact PSD Richard Siejack at RVSiejack@aol.com.

Carl A. Anderson – 12/01/2016

IT HAS BEEN one of the most surprising election seasons any of us can remember. Among the many surprises was the disclosure by WikiLeaks of emails from within a presidential campaign organization that caused great concern about the disparaging language used to describe Catholics. The disclosure prompted the president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz, to issue an unprecedented public statement about what he described as an attempt "to interfere in the internal life of the Church for short-term political gain." He urged public officials "to respect the rights of people to live their faith without interference from the state."

While the fact that these disclosures came from within a political campaign was troubling, more troubling still was that they were made by Catholics about other Catholics. The episode points to a serious challenge for Catholics in the United States: America remains a deeply divided country, and those divisions are reflected within our own Catholic faith community.

The question that we should ask ourselves is: Will Catholics in America be a source of unity and reconciliation or a cause of further division?

The answer to that question will depend largely on what we think it means today to be a Catholic in America. In other words, what is fundamental to our identity as Catholics? Pope Francis, in his book On Heaven and Earth, written while he was archbishop of Buenos Aires, stated: "There are those that seek to compromise their faith for political alliances or for a worldly spirituality. One Catholic theologian, Henri de Lubac, says that the worst that can happen to those that are anointed and called to service is that they live with the criteria of the world instead of the criteria that the Lord commands from the tablets of the law and the Gospel."

While the pope was specifically writing about the clergy, I think what he says applies to all Catholics. As Knights, we must strive to be a source of unity in our Church and society, and we must do this in a way consistent with our commitment to charity, fraternity and patriotism. Read more at: http://www.kofc.org/en/columbia/supreme_knight/fromthesk_20161201.html

PRAYER TO ST. JOHN PAUL II

With the ecclesiastical approval of Cardinal Donald Wuerl

O Blessed Trinity, we thank you for having graced the Church with St. John Paul II and for allowing the tenderness of your fatherly care, the glory of the cross of Christ and the splendor of the Spirit of Love to shine through him.

Trusting fully in your infinite mercy and in the maternal intercession of Mary, he has given us a living image of Jesus the Good Shepherd.

He has shown us that holiness is the necessary measure of ordinary Christian life and is the way of achieving eternal communion with you.

Grant us, by his intercession, and according to your will,
the graces we implore, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Book 'em Literacy Program

The Baltimore, McNamara and Seton Chapters are coordinating an effort for their member councils to participate in our Literacy Program called "Book 'em." The program is simply volunteers, knights, non-knights, spouses, teenage children or grandchildren, reading short books to a class of children in grades K thru 6. The council chooses a local parish school, public school, a school in an underprivileged area or day care or day camp. Present the program to the school, get approval, get volunteers, purchase the books and you are on your way.

Our State Deputy has asked that the chapters introduce this program to their member councils and help councils to get the program up and running. Please go to the State web site for all the information you need to get started. Go to kofc-md.org, select Chapters on the right side, then select Literacy Program Information. If your council needs additional information or is interested in starting a program, please contact me or one of the other two Chapter chairmen listed. This make a great "YOUTH" Surge with Service program.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me on 301-774-6338 or at jgialac@verizon.net.

Baltimore City Council Votes to Preserve Columbus Day

Sources: MD State Council – Website

Baltimorefishbowl.com - Website

In one of the last votes of the 2016 Baltimore City Council term on Monday, December 5, 2016, lawmakers decided to keep Columbus Day the way it is. Councilman Brandon Scott had led a strong push to change the name of the holiday to Indigenous Peoples Day, later adding "and Italian-Americans" to the phrasing to appease concerns from those worried about dropping the name of an Italian historical figure from the holiday. The renaming effort was an attempt to honor the Native American populations who historians say Columbus helped decimate upon his arrival in the United States.

In November, the City Council gave Scott's proposed measure preliminary approval in a 12-2 vote, which indicated strong support for the idea in the Council chambers. However, council members' feelings appear to have changed within the last month, as indicated by the bill's failure to pass last night. The vote was close, ending with seven "yes" votes, six "no" votes and two abstentions. It was one "yes" vote shy of passage.

In a December 6 broadcast email by Maryland State Deputy, Stephen M. Cohen, he is quoted as stating:

"Brother Knights, your prayers, phone calls, and actions paid off! I'm happy to announce that while I and your Brother Knights prayed for the intercession of our Mother Mary, the Baltimore City Council voted to defeat a measure that would have eliminated Columbus Day. Thanks for taking a public stance to be heard. You made a difference." -- Vivat Jesus, State Deputy Steve Cohen
