GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Jack Giacalone, Grand Knight

E-mail: [Jgiacal@verizon.net ~ Phone: 301-774-6338]

My Brothers and Ladies:

I guess I get a little too focused, in my monthly GK messages, talking about recruiting and volunteering and attending meetings, etc. and I forget to thank you for what you do. I know we have some knights who don't attend meetings on a regular basis and are uncomfortable trying to recruit other men into the order. I do know that you do contribute in other ways, and I thank you for that.

I also thank the core group of knights, ladies and children for all you do; we simply could not do what we do without your dedication to our council and to the order.

Thank you; God bless you all and the United States of America!

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Reverend Tom Cioffi, Associate Chaplain

Well here we are once again faced with the yearly dilemma of what self-sacrifice should we offer or give up for Lent. Sure we know the disciplines of Lent are fasting, abstinence, prayer, and alms giving. These are all good acts of self-denial and self-giving. But what if, rather than not eating between meals or giving up "sweets", or an increase of prayer or coins in the poor box, we decide to approach this Lent with a different twist.

Pope Francis suggests that we identify with Christ who by taking on our humanity He became poor so that by His poverty we might become rich. The Holy Father was using a verse from St. Paul's second letter to the Corinthians which reads: "for you know the gracious act of Our Lord Jesus Christ, that for your sake he became poor although he was rich, so that by his poverty you might become rich." This idea of identifying with all who are poor in our presence is not always measured by those who lack monetary means. Sometimes poverty is seen in the faces of those who seek the love of Christ. In their poverty the poor, the homeless, the forgotten are right in our midst and yet we often fail to identify the opportunity to witness the richness of Christ in their presence.

In this context, I am reminded of the words from Mother Teresa who wrote: "At the end of life, we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged that when, I was hungry, you gave me something to eat. When I was naked, you clothed me. When I was homeless, you took me in. ... Hungry, not only for bread, but hungry for your love. Naked, not only for clothing, but naked of human dignity and respect. Homeless, not only for a home of bricks, but homeless because of rejection."

During this Lenten season, let us be moved in our actions to care for those in great need because in their poverty they seek the same richness to become one in Christ and one with Christ.

Only Having Insurance “Through Work” Doesn’t Work

Do you know anyone whose life or career has drastically changed during these years of economic downturn? It's very likely that someone in your immediate or extended family or group of friends is facing financial uncertainty. Maybe there's a possibility that you (or your spouse) could lose your job or change employers. Too many people have often relied on group term life insurance as their only safety net. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at low or no cost. The existence of this coverage might convince someone that personally-owned life insurance is not necessary.

But only having “through work” insurance can leave you and your family vulnerable. Most group life insurance policies are limited in amount, which may be tied to salary or some other benchmark. These numbers are often capped, and this cap may be dangerously low when compared to your family's actual needs. In fact, a detailed needs analysis that evaluates your specific situation, will likely show that any employer-provided coverage falls short. In addition, the amount of group insurance offered is almost always reduced, sometimes dramatically, when you retire. You could one day find yourself without coverage, and if your health has changed (which it will as you age), you might also find yourself unable to secure individual protection. At the very least, it will definitely be more expensive.

While group life insurance can help, it does not replace the need for individually owned life insurance. I'll be happy to meet with you and provide a no-cost needs analysis, so you'll know exactly where you stand.

MARYLAND STATE COUNCIL NEWS

The Polar Bear Plunge, benefitting Special Olympics of Maryland (SOMD) was postponed due to weather. The new date is Saturday, March 8! For details call John Durbin, 301-762-4448.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Steve Goldhammer, PGK, Membership Director

Hello to my membership teammates! (If you're reading this, you're on my team.) Spring is upon us, and that means it's time to 'spring' into action. There's still time to help meet your Council's recruiting goal for this Fraternal Year by asking a Catholic friend of yours to join us. Then your family and his can participate together in some of our neat Council activities and have a great time too!

Once you tell him what the Knights have meant to you and the good feelings you've felt, he should be interested in learning more about us at our information session in the room next to the chapel at St. Peter's at 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday, 11 March. I'll see you there! Thanks for your help. Please call me at (301) 570-9613 if you have any questions.

COUNCIL RECRUITMENT CONTEST UPDATE

We all need to do some recruiting! We know they are out there, waiting to be asked! Total recruited since JUL/2013 = 7. Remember, you'll earn a $100 gift certificate to the restaurant of your choice for you and your Spouse or other Dining Companion. One officer, one chairman, one director (trustees are in this group) and one brother knight in the general membership can be winners. The Knight who recruits the most new members through JUN/30/2014 is eligible provided everyone in his group recruits 1 new member. For the general membership to qualify the officers, chairman and directors must recruit one new member each. Including March, you have 4 months to win $100!

COMMUNITY NEWS

FOOD AND NECESSITIES FOR FAMILIES

Paul D. McFarlane, PGK, Food for Families Chairman

On any given day, you'll see homeless men and women at busy intersections, holding hand-made signs that read, "Homeless, Hungry, Disabled, Jobless..." How did they get into these predicaments? Do they know there are state and county organizations available to help them - to find a job, their next meal, housing for themselves and their families, if need be?

Our Food for Families program aims to keep people from asking for money at busy intersections. Here's how you can help?

Please buy any of the items below and bring them to any Council meeting or function.

Dried Beans or Peas - Macaroni and Cheese - Spaghetti and other Pastas - Snacks (cookies, crackers, granola bars, nuts) - Cold or Hot Cereals - Juices - Pancake Mix - Syrup - Chili - Canned Fruits and Vegetables - Rice (bagged or boxed) - Peanut Butter - Jelly - Jell-O - Pudding Mixes - Canned meats (Spam, Ham, Corned Beef, etc.) - Beef Stew - Soups - Canned Chicken - Muffin Mix - Dried Milk - Tuna/Chicken/Hamburger Helper (Any boxed dinners) - Ramen Noodles, Rice & Side dishes, etc.

PLEASE CHECK "SELL BY" DATES ON ALL ITEMS.

PANCAKE & SAUSAGE DAY SUCCESS!

Don Hemke, Council Financial Secretary

Most of you know that on 22 February, we again teamed with the Olney Lions Club to host our 38th consecutive Pancake & Sausage Day at St. John's Episcopal Church in Olney. The weather was an almost perfect 63 degree Spring Day in the Winter. That unusually warm day cut the walk-in diners down significantly (similar to past history with warm days), but it enabled us to have the largest support from the council in history!

We had almost 50 knights, family, and friends serving in two shifts. Chris Romano and I want to personally thank all of you who supported the event by volunteering to serve those delicious pancake & sausage meals and those who purchased ads in our program booklet. This community and family event is the principal source of funds for our council scholarship program.

THANKS AGAIN FOR YOUR SUPPORT! Let's set our sights again for next year to support this fine cause for our youth in the Olney-Norbeck community!

STORAGE SPACE NEEDED

St. Patrick's Partners in Faith Ministry launched an effort to provide home furnishings to families transitioning out of a temporary shelter into their own homes or apartments. Many transitioning families don't have any basic furniture, even beds. This "Furnishings for Families" ministry has helped families make their new residences feel like "home." In order to better respond to the needs as they arise we are hoping to obtain storage space to store items and/or a space to restore/refurbish pieces needing a little extra attention.

If you might be able to offer some storage space, please contact Jamie Fillet at filletjamie@hotmail.com.

You may phone Deacon Crawford on 301-774-7654 or contact him by email at rorycrawford@verizon.net.

COUNCIL DUES REMINDER Don Hemke, Council Financial Secretary

I want to personally thank all council members for taking the payment of their 2014 Council Dues obligation a bit more seriously than in the past. Perhaps the use of providing the individual member statements by email, for the 1st time this year, may have helped. Whatever the reason, I want to remind those brother knights to submit their dues payments to me promptly. If you are experiencing financial difficulties, please do not hesitate to contact the Grand Knight, Jack Giacalone (301-774-6338) for possible remedy. A second notice will be issued within the next few weeks, so PAYMENT NOW, will save the council significant printing and postage costs.

JOIN THIS $1,000 MATCHING CHALLENGE!

Our parish priests are “on call” day and night, bringing comfort and the sacraments to parishioners. The Catholic faithful need these men. And those men who may be considering the sacrament of Holy Orders, need you.

Again this year, a Council Brother, who wishes to remain anonymous, offers to "match your donations" to our Seminarians' Fund up to $1,000! This most generous challenge is effective through June 15, 2014. Please make your check payable to “Knights of Columbus Council 6793” and mail it to Don Hemke, Financial Secretary, Council 6793, 18729 Willow Grove Road, Olney, MD. 20832. As this Brother Knight says, “Here is your opportunity to make an offering to our High Priest and for those who aim to follow Him in the seminary.”
