CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

Reverend James Boccabella, Pastor
Our Lady of Grace Church

E-mail: jimbocabella@msn.com Phone: 301-924-0067

This has been a difficult summer for those inside and outside of the Church, as scandals, new and old, continue to dominate the media: the devil continues his assault on believers, trying to scare or shame us from remaining members of the Church founded by Jesus upon the Rock of Peter, against whom the gates of Hell will not prevail.

As we continue to be questioned by our friends(?) or others as to how we could possibly stay in the Church, I think that we need only respond that we are proud to be children of the Catholic Church. We are not proud of the sins that some have committed. We are not proud of the cowardice or the denials and betrayals of Jesus by the Apostles; we are not proud of the behavior of corrupt popes and bishops or sinful priests or religious throughout the Church's history; we are not proud of the lives of St. Francis of Assisi or St. Augustine or other saints before their conversions. The Church has never and will never condone sinful behavior; but She recognizes that, other than the Blessed Mother, none of us is without sin, and that the beauty of the Church is that She is the conduit of God's mercy and graces for us all.

Despite the depravity and the duplicity of some in the Church, we remember that God's graces and, especially, the very Body and Blood of Christ are still made available to all of God's faithful every day of the year until the time that Jesus returns to bring us all home. When Jesus warned the Apostles of the signs of His coming, He told them that, when they saw these signs, they should hold their heads up high, knowing that their salvation is at hand. We should do no less; we are proud to be Catholics.

DISTRICT DEPUTY'S REPORT

SK Joseph F. Krempasky, District Deputy (30)
E-mail: JKrempasky@gmail.com ~ Phone: 301-570-4891

I bring you greetings from our Worthy State Deputy, Dale Trott, whose motto is, "serving Christ by serving others"

The State Deputy wants me to remind all that a wonderful resource for Knight's information is our chapter meetings. All Grand Knights, Deputy GKs, Officers, Directors & Chairman should consider attending the chapter meetings (especially those held close by).

Remember, there is a State Membership Director's challenge - "Every council should be membership active by September 1."

Now that most are back from summer vacation, consider one more summer blast at the State Family Picnic - Where? North Point Park, When? Saturday, September 8, Time? 12 pm -

The golf tourney at the Laytonville Golf Course was of course a "smashing" success. Many, many thanks to Ron Herberg and Gary Palmer (Montgomery) for organizing such a fine event. We couldn't have asked for a finer day for golf, and the beer was cold, very cold.

This year's State Programs Seminar for our district was held at Our Lady of Good Counsel High School, on August 13. Participants had a wonderful experience and there was a tremendous amount of useful and new information disseminated.

The Tootsie Roll programs are off to a great start. Many thanks to all that have supported this effort so far.

And finally, there is still time to participate in the Knights of Columbus Annual Car Raffle, which benefits the state's charity and scholarship programs. This is your chance to win a brand-new 2018 Mustang or an iPad Air 2 tablet. Tickets cost just $1. All Council members should have received information by now. The Columbus Day Ball is scheduled for October 6 at the BWI Marriot, and the winning ticket will be drawn then.

Vivat Jesus

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

GK Steve Sutkowski, Grand Knight

E-mail: ssutko9208@aol.com ~ Phone: 301-890-9308

I would first like to thank our members responsible for hosting the Program Seminar at Good Counsel High School in August. This was the first seminar we hosted that addressed our new Faith in Action Program structure and it turned out well with appreciations from our State Deputy Dale Trott and the State officers. Hats off to Joe Feakes, Steve Goldhammer, Andy, Don Hemke, and all others who contributed.

Also, a recognition to all the hard work put in by Jack G. in heading up the volunteer program for the Supreme Convention in Baltimore and to all our council members who volunteered. An interesting experience and one that some of us may experience again in two years in Washington DC since we are certain they will be knocking on the door of the Maryland State Council for assistance.

We have a busy fall starting up with the Tootsie Roll campaign at the Olney Liquor Store in September and early October headed up by Fred Whitman (see information elsewhere in this newsletter). Also, we are helping out at the party honoring the Centenarians at Our Lady of Grace on Sunday, September 9 at 2:00 PM (please come early to help). We just need five people to serve drinks and cake at this party. We are also hosting a Fall Festival at the Grace House on Sunday, September 30 at 1:30 PM and need about 7-8 people to pass out prizes, serve desserts, etc. You can contact me at ssutko9208@aol.com or 301-580-5820 to help.

Finally, Bill Kollins has distributed the Car Raffle tickets, so please get those in to Bill by the deadline.

Our annual program plans and calendar has been developed and will be discussed as we move forward. I encourage all to find an activity they would like to contribute in this year. We are looking for 24 hours a year from our members to help us, and believe that is certainly doable. Many thanks for your support.

Visit our website at www.kofc6793.org or Facebook page at www.facebook.com/KnightsOfColumbus6793/ to stay informed of our future activities. Attend our business meetings and read our Newsletter to find activities that interest you and join in. Become a more active Brother Knight and support our Council activities.

In Yours in Christ.

PROTECTING WIDOWS - A FOUNDING GOAL

As a member of this council, you know how important spouses can be to the charitable works of the Order. If you're married, your wife is probably involved in a few of the many events that happen each fraternal year. This support adds great value and impact to what a council can achieve.

When the Order was founded in 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney and the other brave men were setting out to protect Catholic families, but especially wives and children. Today, we remain committed to this mission by offering insurance products and fraternal benefits designed with that goal in mind. One specific policy rider that you may not know about is called Spousal Waiver of Premium. This rider is unique to the Knights of Columbus philosophy of helping our widows.

The rider is available on most permanent and Discoverer plans purchased at standard rates by a member and his wife on the same day. When both spouses apply, the rider provides for the waiver of premiums on the spouse's contract in the event of the insured's death. Best of all, for members and spouses 18 to 60, this waiver can be added for no change. The rider stays in effect until the spouse attains age 65 or certain other triggering events occur.

Our products are designed with your needs and budget in mind. With a solid portfolio of life insurance, long-term care, disability income and retirement products, the Knights of Columbus can help you meet all of your financial goals. To learn more about these solutions, contact me today.

FAITH IN ACTION

Fred Taylor, Chairman, Faith Programs

E-mail: taylorwf8@verizon.net ~ Phone: 301-871-8928

There are many exciting Faith Programs targeted by the Knights of Columbus especially considering the new Faith in Action theme and our commitment to faith-based family programs. Our Council has always been at the forefront in this area.

We have completed our working schedule for the Council Faith Programs this year and on the top of the list is the Refund Support Vocation Program which is the Seminarian Support Program. An excellent example of this program is the Seminarian Family Day that the Archdiocese holds annually at St. Patrick's Church. It is likely my favorite event of the year! We serve the Church, the Seminarians and their families and have a great time doing it.

Our brother Knight, Fr. Kevin Fields acknowledged us generously during his presentation and Cardinal Wuerl came over to us with thanks and to take a few photos with us.

I thank Brother Knight Innocent d'Almeida for leading this event again this year and my wife Elaine for taking the photos for the Archdiocese. Remember to Pray the Rosary frequently.

ST. MARTIN'S PANTRY FOOD COLLECTION

As part of our Faith in Action Family service programs, we have instituted our Food For Families program. We will be collecting food for St. Martin's Pantry, which provides food to needy families.

There will be a box at all meetings for collecting food items. All food must be unexpired, sealed items. Items in shortest supply are canned soup, canned fruit, pasta sauce, "meals in a can (canned pasta, canned chili, etc.) and dry, unsweetened cereal.

So, next time you are grocery shopping, pick up an item or two and help feed those in need.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Kevin Kennedy, Chairman, Community Programs

E-mail: kaiser52@comcast.net ~ Phone: 301-774-5014

As you are aware, the Knights of Columbus organization is changing its program structure into 4 categories, from the old 6 categories under its new banner Faith in Action. As a Council we are finding out the details of the program, and how what we currently do, fits into the 4 categories. The programs that Supreme lists in Community are Helping Hands, Coats for Kids, Habitat for Humanity, Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest, Disaster Preparedness, Free Throw Championship, and Soccer Challenge. Our Council already runs programs in some of these areas.

I am in contact with the Principals of St. Peters, and St. Patrick's Elementary schools to determine what we can do for them within these programs, but also what they suggest we can do to assist their children.

Over the next few newsletters I will update you on these programs, but I also ask that if you are interested in any way to assist me in the implementation or scoring of these programs to contact me. This is a big year of change, and your help and suggestions are greatly appreciated.

ELECTION NEWS

Due to personal health problems, our Chancellor Ramon Bueno, has advised the Grand Knight he cannot perform his duties, and has resigned. We have a candidate, and at our business meeting on September 12, we will have an election for the position of Chancellor. If you are interested in becoming a candidate, please call Kevin Kennedy at 301-774-5014 or 301-807-9749 to provide information.

TOOTSIE ROLL CAMPAIGN

September means Redskins football and our Council Tootsie Roll Drive to help persons with intellectual disabilities. As usual, the location of our annual drive in Olney is at the Olney Liquor Store.

We need volunteers to work 2-hour shifts. We will be collecting on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from September 14 through October 7. Hours for the drive are Fridays 5-8PM, Saturdays 9AM-5PM, and Sundays 11AM-2PM.

If you can donate a couple of hours, please call DGK Fred Whitman, 240-550-1007, with the date (or dates) that you can help. We really do need help with this drive, so please volunteer.

We also need someone to coordinate the drive on Sundays. This involves getting materials to the store at the first shift, picking up money after each shift and picking up materials after the last shift. Let Fred know if you can do this.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

Ramon Bueno, Chairman, Life Programs

E-mail: ramonsk903@yahoo.com ~ Phone: 301-633-1398

Brother Knights,

For personal reasons I would rather not explain, I am resigning as our council's Chancellor. I would like to thank you all for nominating and electing me to the position for 2 fraternal years in a row. It has been an honor to serve as your Chancellor.

For the same reasons that I am resigning as Chancellor, I am likewise resigning as the Culture of Life chairman. I plan to continue participating in pro-life activities whenever possible, both as a Knight and as a pro-life activist member of St. Patrick's church.

THE BARQUE IN A RAGING SEA Reflections (by Lawrence P. Grayson)

The Barque of Peter is now being buffeted by revelations and allegations of clerical immorality and hierarchical cover-up. The recent report of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania describing wide-spread sexual exploitation of seminarians and adolescent males by priests in that state, coupled with the accusations of the obscene behavior of Archbishop Theodore McCarrick, have been devastating. Many people in the Church, clergy as well as laity, have feelings of shock, anger, sadness, shame and betrayal.

Yet, this may be only the beginning of an investigative frenzy. The attorneys general of Missouri and Illinois have announced they will conduct investigations of the Catholic dioceses in their respective states, while the attorneys general of New York and Nebraska appear to be preparing to conduct similar probes. Several seminaries also have announced they are undertaking independent examinations of accusations of sexual abuse within their institutions. Various media outlets are suggesting that comparable investigations should be conducted in every state, and that the U.S. Department of Justice file federal racketeering charges against the Catholic Church under the RICO Act. The Vatican is sending Archbishop Charles Scicluna, its most experienced sex-crimes investigator, to study the situation in the United States. His previous investigation into sex abuse cover-ups in Chile led to the mass resignation of the entire conference of Chilean bishops. The hierarchy in America may soon face greater scandal, a torrent of litigation, and hierarchical upheaval.

Pope Francis, in his Letter to the People of God on August 20, adopted the words of then-Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger: "How much filth there is in the Church, and even among those who, in the priesthood, ought to belong entirely to [Christ]!" Some may consider that the clerical abuses are no greater than what has occurred among media moguls, public school teachers, athletic directors and others in lay positions of power. But clerical abuses are worse because those in religious vocations are responsible for the faith and the salvation of souls.

Most bishops and priests are faithful to their vows, lead chaste lives and are wonderful shepherds to their people. This does not, however, lessen the malefaction in the Church.

Bishop Robert Morlino of Madison stated: "[W]e are talking about deviant sexual – almost exclusively homosexual – acts by clerics. We're also talking about homosexual propositions and abuses against seminarians and young priests by powerful priests, bishops, and cardinals...It is time to admit that there is a homosexual subculture within the hierarchy of the Catholic Church."

There will be significant changes in church operations and oversight. Carl Anderson, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, has called for "a full and complete investigation of sexual abuse led by an independent commission that includes laity," and "complete transparency by the Catholic hierarchy into all matters of criminal sexual misconduct past or future," adding that "priests and bishops who refuse to live according to their promises of celibacy should be removed from public ministry." Similar recommendations have been made by several bishops and archbishops, including Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, USCCB president. But, the issue of sexual abuse and cover-up in the Church demands more than administrative changes. There is no shortage of effective policies and procedures already in place in many dioceses. The problem, as Bishop Edward Scharfenberger of Albany described it, is a "profoundly spiritual crisis." Archbishop Samuel Aquila of Denver went a step farther, stating: "We have also failed to recognize that the spiritual battle is real. Some say the Lord has forsaken the Church, but this is not true. Rather, there are some within the Church who have forsaken Jesus and the Gospel. The devil is real and uses confusion, chaos, discouragement, and negative thinking to draw us away from Jesus."

With this turmoil, some may regard the Church to be a failed institution and turn from the faith. That is exactly what the devil wants. As Cardinal Raymond Burke has stated, "What we must never permit is that these gravely immoral acts, which have sullied so much the face of the Church, permit us to lose trust in Our Lord."

Bishop Robert J. Baker of Birmingham gives us a path forward: "We cannot allow these scandals to destroy our faith...Only by turning to prayer and penance, and by living a life of sacrificial virtue, steeped in the sacraments of the church, does any one of us stand a chance against the great evils of our time."

Repentance, reform and rebuilding are needed. While action is necessary to address the temporal aspects of the problem, prayer is essential in order to center the activities on God. Prayer and action, the spiritual and the temporal -- when the two are combined, the Church can be rebuilt on a foundation of Biblical principles, on the love of God and charity to our neighbor.

We must strengthen our devotion to the Mass, the rosary, Marian hours of prayer, retreats, spiritual readings, Eucharistic adoration, and other means to connect with the will of God. We must pray for the Pope, cardinals, bishops and priests that they are faithful to Christ. We must pray that the Church, though it is composed of members with human weaknesses, remains one, catholic, apostolic and holy.

We must fast to atone for the sins of depravity committed by members of the clergy for, as Bishop Morlino reminds us, "Some sins, like some demons, can only be driven out by prayer and fasting."

With faith in God's mercy, the Barque will survive the storm.

A LETTER TO CHAPLAINS FROM THE SUPREME KNIGHT ABOUT THE SEXUAL ABUSE CRISIS

Worthy Chaplains and Dear Brother Knights,

The issues that have come to light concerning sexual abuse by Archbishop Theodore McCarrick and in the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report are cause for grave concern among Catholics and Brother Knights. Many feel deeply betrayed by those whom they long held in high regard. Such concerns are shared not just in the United States, but in Europe, Latin America and elsewhere.

These sins of commission and omission have sent the Church we love, the Church we serve and the Church that Jesus Christ established into convulsions. Sadly, the disgrace not only is borne by the perpetrators, it hurts us all, as does the silence of shepherds who have ignored the cries of their flocks.

There are many wonderful and faithful laborers in the vineyard of the Lord among our priests and bishops. However, it is clear that in addition to devastating criminal acts, we have seen many other moral failings by clergy that represent a crisis of commitment to the Gospel.

Too often the needs of victims have been subordinated to a distorted sense of mercy toward the perpetrators or an instinct for clerical self-preservation. The sexual acts — both criminal and non-criminal — highlight the need to recover a respect for and a renewed commitment to the priestly promises of celibacy.

The Knights of Columbus has supported the pastoral and charitable work of our bishops and priests since our founding by the Venerable Father Michael McGivney. We understand that the priest should lead the parish and the bishop should be the center of unity in a diocese. But we — like all Catholics — are painfully aware of the wreckage that ensues when elements of this leadership are abdicated by evil actions whether directly perpetrated or covered up.

Now, the Knights of Columbus — laymen, priests and chaplains together — will have an important role to play in rebuilding the Church. We must commit the Knights of Columbus to work for repentance, reform and rebuilding of the Church.

Repentance should include a full accounting of the misdeeds by those who have committed them. Archbishop McCarrick and others at fault owe us a full account of their actions, motivations and cover-ups. After years of having us confess to them, it is now time for them to come clean about what they have done and what they have failed to do.

This will also help increase the recognition that clerical sexual abuse is a global problem that must be addressed at the highest levels of the Catholic Church. Moreover, priests and bishops who refuse to live according to their promises of celibacy should be removed from public ministry, not out of retribution, but for the protection of the faithful and to prevent future variations of the scandal we now suffer.

Reform must include many good ideas that have been proposed, such as a full and complete investigation of sexual abuse led by an independent commission that includes laity; complete transparency by the Catholic hierarchy into all matters of criminal sexual misconduct past or future; an expansion of the zero tolerance policy to include sexual activity or misconduct by clerics including bishops, and by seminarians; and a call for faithfulness by all members of the clergy, including bishops. There must also be an independent ethics hotline for reporting of criminal and other conduct at odds with Catholic teaching on the clerical state of life; and there must be protections against retaliation.

Such reforms will be difficult for a Church largely unused to them, and we must support our bishops and our priests in embracing these reforms in order to rebuild.

We can help to rebuild our Church in several ways. Above all else, Knights — and our chaplains — must embrace love of God and love of neighbor. This is Christ's great commandment and the founding mission of our Order. It is also exactly the opposite of the rejection of God and exploitation of neighbor that our Church has witnessed in these scandals.

Shortly before becoming Pope Benedict XVI, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger decried the “filth” in the Church “even among those, who in the priesthood, ought to belong totally” to Christ. He also provided the antidote, stating at other times that what the Church needs now more than anything else is “saints.” Pope Francis reiterated Pope Benedict’s sentiments in his letter on Aug. 20.

In the days ahead, the Knights of Columbus will help renew our Church on a national level through a Novena of Masses in reparation for these sins that have so grievously wounded the Body of Christ. I take this opportunity to ask that you offer this Novena of Masses for our Church at your earliest opportunity.

Beginning in November, the Knights of Columbus will sponsor, in cooperation with the Shrine of St. Jean Vianney in Ars, France, a national tour of the relic of the heart of this great patron saint of priests. In the coming weeks, I will share more details with you about this initiative.

We will also continue to strengthen and rebuild our Church at the level of our families and parishes through our Building the Domestic Church program. Its twin elements of imbuing families with faith and strengthening parish life are critical to providing a Catholic Church that rebuilds based on the Gospel principles of love of God and love of neighbor. Together with our recently announced “Faith In Action” initiative, we will strive to make our parishes truly become, in the words of Pope Francis, “a family of families.”

Now is the time for all brother Knights to stand steadfast in faith, as Catholics and as gentlemen. We will assist priests, bishops and our fellow Catholics in helping the Church chart a course for the future that puts Christ at the center, so that truly we may say, “Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.”

This is the moment in which Knights — including in a special way our priest members — can be part of a great renewal for good in our Church. And as we strive to follow the Lord more closely in the days ahead, may he deliver us from every evil and in his mercy graciously grant his Church peace and unity.

In closing, know that your faithful witness and sacrifice can bring inspiration and hope to millions of your fellow Catholics. It will be needed in the days ahead more than ever before. And to every priest and bishop whose commitment and dedication to our Order and to our Church has been faithful and exemplary, please accept my gratitude in both a personal way and on behalf of the Knights of Columbus.

Let each one of us prayerfully invoke the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, so that in the words of St. Maximilian Kolbe, our hearts would be cleansed and themselves become immaculate, similar and like unto her own heart.

Faternally,

Carl A. Anderson
Supreme Knight
