Volume 28, Issue 2

February 2020

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers

Areas of focus:

- Novena for Life
- Special Olympics
- Mass for people with Special Needs
- Abortion Vigils – Need 5 before the end of the year.

Please pray for those in our prayer list. We need to add:

Deployed and serving our nation:

Clint Fowler (Steve Keene's son) and Clint's family as they visit in Saudi Arabia

Marc Jr. Mendoza – is deployed to Saudia Arabia

ILL:

Our very own John Roman as he recovers from pneumonia.

Gary Crawford (Jamie Ladd's father-in-law)

Passed:

Marion Bason (Joe's wife)

This year's focus:

Growth within:

- Your relationship with GOD
- Faith
- Your personal journey
- Yourself

Engagement with:

- Family
- Church
- Community

If you "grow" within yourself you'll have a higher desire to "engage" others and share GOD's Love and Spirit!

Family of the Month
February

Congratulations to Phil and Liz Caron. Phil meet Liz at a through a blind date setup by his sister in Lubbock, TX. They have been married for 42 years this June. They have 3 daughters, 3 son-in-laws and 6 grandkids. Phil was born in Wichita Falls, TX and and raised in Fort Worth, TX from the age 5 years old. While Liz was born in Corpus Christy, TX and and raised in Houston, TX. Phil's family moved to Ft. Worth, TX. in 1959 from Wichita Falls, TX when his dad got a job at General Dynamics in White Settlement, TX. He attended St. Peter's school in White Settlement, TX; catholic high school at Nolan then went UT of Arlington, TX earn a MBA. He retired in July of 2018 from working for the hospitals as a CFO (Chief FInnancial Officer) and Liz is also retired from working with the school districts. Phil became a Knight in 1979. He has been involved in numerous KoC activities such as on the money counting team, intrium Treasurer, highway cleanups, street fundraisers, Meals on Wheels, etc. He was currently the intrium Treasurer and serves on the money counting team, and helps Liz with the St. Vincent dePaul society while Liz is involved as the president of the St. Vincent DePaul and Eucharist minter, and numerous volunteering she is also on the money counting team. Phil's hobbies are traveling, reading, seeing the grandkids, etc. Liz really enjoys volunteering, traveling, and also seeing the grandkids (they are about 5 hours away).

Knight of the Month
February

Congratulations to Ricardo Baez as Knight of the month,

he was born and raised in Michoacan, Mexico. He went to schools and college at Michoacan, Mexico. After college, a dream brought him to Texas. He wanted to open his own automative shop in Mexico but needed money to buy his tools and went to Texas to work. He learn the skills of auto mechanic, welding and carpenter. Ricardo has been in Ft. Worth, TX since 1992. He has been a member of St. Thomas the Apostle parish for 6 years. He became a knight in October 2019 and was recruited by Josh Gomez, Bruce Mallory and Mark. Ricardo injured his foot which keeps him from holding a regular job after 25 years as a production manager but he keeps very busy with handy man jobs of odds and ends. His duties are acolyte, movies with the kids, RCIA instructor, fish fries, Cursillos, liturgy with kids with English and Spanish, conseling with adults. His hobbies is remodeling his home, making wooden crosses.

Thought for February

St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church of Fort Worth is a catholic parish that occuplies a large space in the hearts of those whoconsiderit their home. Generous service to others, a strong emphasison prayer, and enjoyment of community have been the hallmarks of St. Thomas of Fort Worth.

In response to Jesus' call, parishioners express love for one another as catechists, liturgical ministers, vistors to the sick, and organizers of funeral receptions. They deepen their faith through participation in shared scripture study. And they also enthusiastically join to celebrate events such as the Lunar New Year, the Fourth of July, and other Parish Feasts. Parishioners share a sense of belonging ang the opportunity to have a good time and contribute to their wonderful community.

Today, St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church is a "Body of Christ" with more than 1200 families. Parishioners and clergy pray and worship together, work together side by side and enjoy the Feast at the Lord's Table as one family. They also gather throughout the year to enjoy a meal of fellowship.

February Happy Birthday
