K of C RETREAT – “FAITH IN ACTION”

The following brother Knights are recognized at the May 2 Council 7613 meeting for carrying out the 3rd best Faith project in the state. The award, held by SK Sal Scalia, is also shown below.

The purpose of this Day Retreat was to increase member Spirituality through prayer and reflection, to promote membership fraternity and involvement, to support membership retention, to recruit new members, and to build our parish community.

The Day Retreat was held at Sanctus Ranch in Pipe Creek Texas. Msgr. Ryan said mass to begin the day for 50 of our Council Knights plus 9 “non Knights” (one of the non Knights has since joined our Council). “Reflections” were provided by Jonathon Bassett, SK Deacon Steve Marques, and SK Sal Scalia. Time was provided for some table talk after the “Reflections” and some great music was provided by Lyle Bird, Jonathan Bassett, and the KEG group.

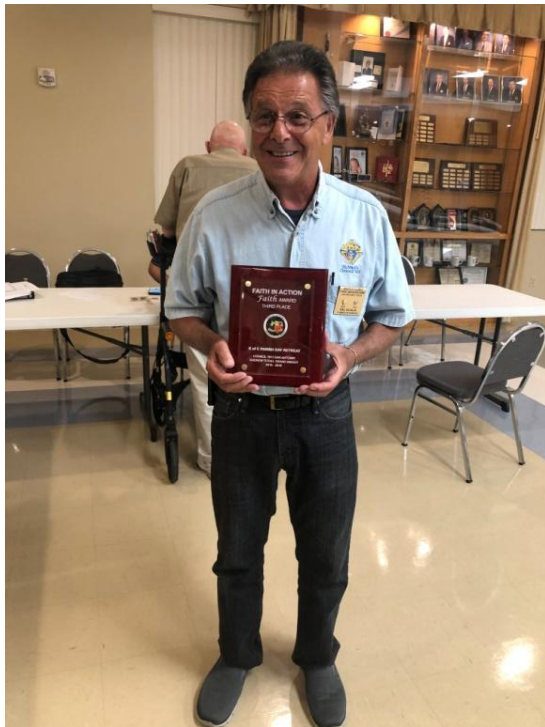

Everyone carpooled to the Retreat center which, along with a nice breakfast and a great lunch, enabled fellowship and discussion on the ride up and back.
