Grand Knight's Letter

My Brother Knights,

It is good to be writing to you during this Christmas season. After all the activities we held in November, it has been good to have a small break – a chance to reflect on all the gifts that God has given to us. Of course, even during this break, we have had plenty of things going on. Just before Christmas, we inducted five new brothers into our council at a First Degree ceremony over at St. Clare's. I was proud to see so many brothers from our council there at the ceremony – we had nearly as many people there as the host council! Truly, I believe that the new brothers were made to feel welcome with us. I hope to see them at our first meeting in January as well. As a reminder, our second meeting in January will also have a First Degree ceremony. We had a couple of people whose schedules didn't line up with the First Degree on December 22, so that should be another chance to bring them into the Knights.

And just the other day, I had the privilege of attending Father Richard Dyer's ordination Mass. Our council has helped support him through the seminary, so I feel that we have a strong connection to him. But it wasn't just us in the pews. It was his family and friends. It was his fellow seminarians and priests. And it was Knights of Columbus from around northern Virginia and beyond. All of us there were there to share in the joy of welcoming a man into the ranks of the priesthood. Father Dyer has given all of us a great gift in dedicating his life in service to God. Please pray for him as he begins his life in Holy Orders.

The new calendar year marks the halfway point for the Columbian year, and so that means another state meeting – this one being held down in the southeastern part of the state. I will be attending and will fill you in on any news presented down there.

Planning has started for the golf tournament to be held later this year. We are always looking for more help with all of the tasks that need to be done for a successful event, and we hope to make use of the experience from last year's tournament to make an even better experience. If you think that you might be interested, please contact me at james.auwaerter@gmail.com or Brother Tom Browne at tjbrowne101@gmail.com for more information.

Finally, I want to put in my own plug for the March for Life. I did not go to the March for Life the first couple of years that I was in the Knights of Columbus, thinking that I was too busy and needed to go into work instead. The year before last, I carved out the time to go in and assist, and I have never once regretted it. We are so fortunate to live so conveniently close to D.C. Other people drive from around the country, or even from other countries to attend, and we can get there with an hour-long bus and Metro ride. The Knights of Columbus do a great thing to help marshal the march (even if the politicians always seem to talk too long), and if you're on the fence about attending, let me tell you now to go. You will be blown away by the dedication of the thousands of people standing up for the sanctity of life in protection of the unborn.

Vivat Jesus,
James Auwaerter,
Grand Knight

Deputy Grand Knight's Letter

Greetings Brothers,

We have entered into a new calendar year, but the Columbian year is just hitting its mid-point. Our first meeting is on January 3 and will be a regular business meeting. Our second meeting of the month is scheduled for January 17 and will be a First Degree ceremony. We expect to have 12 candidates there – an excellent way to kick off 2012.

I want to thank those who assisted with set up and clean up during the Adult Christmas Party that was held on December 10. There were 40 people in attendance I thank those who were able to attend. All seemed to have a good time.

The Children's Christmas Party was held on December 17 and approximately 20 children and their families attended. All had a chance to visit with Santa and I would like to thank Brother Jim Bertine for his assistance. I would also like to thank Brothers Dave Skouby and Tom Polson for their assistance in distributing food and drink and the clean up afterwards.

There are two other council events that I want to mention. The first is our Council Blood Drive, organized again by Brother Mike D'Aiuto to be held in conjunction with the American Red Cross. It is coming up on January 8, and I urge all those who are eligible to donate to please come before or after Mass and help out.

The second event is the annual March for Life in Washington D.C. on January 23. Brother Knights will once again be needed to help marshal the parade. I had the opportunity to act as a marshal last year, and I can assure that it is an inspiring sight to see thousands of people turn out from across the country and show their commitment to the unborn. If you are interested in volunteering as a marshal, please e-mail the Grand Knight (james.auwaerter@gmail.com) or me at salveggio@netzero.net.

There are always opportunities to do more with the Knights. Although June seems far away now, it's worth thinking about whether you might be interested in serving as an officer in the 2011-2012 Columbian year. If you think you might be, please speak with the officer currently serving in that position for more information, and to the trustees who will be giving a recommendation near the end of this Columbian year. Thank you.

Vivat Jesus,
Tom Salveggio,
Deputy Grand Knight

Council Intentions

For the health and well-being of:

Joe Marter
Jane Ascone
Pat Eichenlaub
All those on the Parish prayer list

For the repose of the soul of:

Regina Auwaerter
Martha Underwood
Vincent Paulucci
John Pretz
Thomas McLane

Prayer for All of the Faithful Departed:

Heavenly Father, I believe that in Your wisdom and justice You willed to purify all persons who die without having attained the state that they need for all eternity, all who have still to expiate completely the sins committed here on earth.

I also believe that You have mercifully arranged that this process of purification can be aided by the prayer of the living, and especially by the Eucharist. Help me to pray for my brothers and sisters who have departed from this world.

(Mention here the names of those for whom you pray)

May their time of purification be short, and may they be quickly guided into that holy light promised by Our Lord to Abraham and his descendants. Accept them for all of the souls of the faithful departed and admit them all to eternal joy in heaven. Amen
