Grand Knight's Report

Who would have ever thought that someone as unorganized as I am, would ever wind up as your Grand Knight? Well.....just goes to show, that pigs do fly! I humbly ask your patience, during this awkward transition period. As we enter the new fraternal year, may we go forth with renewed zeal for what our order stands. May we dedicate ourselves even further into benevolent acts of charity, for our brother's sake. It is my earnest hope, that each member of our council will put forth the effort necessary to grow our works. We do so much.....but are capable of so much more. I am always humbled by the presence of those who so selflessly put themselves into so many of our activities. And look forward, with expectant joy, to seeing new faces among the steadfast volunteers! Fraternity is where we get our power from. Without each other we are weak, but when we pool ourselves into a common commitment, we are unstoppable! Let us, therefore, go forth this new year with a renewed commitment. Let us each accept that we ARE brothers and need involvement to grow individually and communally, as true Knights. Assert yourself and receive the many blessings that the Almighty gives to those who do his corporal works of mercy! I congratulate Steve for taking the fore front this past year, serving this council! I also thank Ann, for all the support and effort she selflessly put forth, to insure that our fundraisers went well. Should any of you have suggestions or ideas that would improve our council or your involvement in the council, please let me know, either personally, at the meetings, or via email. I look forward to a great year and hope everyone can grow spiritually and fraternally!

Michael

Hope everyone enjoys a safe Independence Day and please remember all those who gave their lives, that we might yet remain free!

Congratulations to our newly ordained 4th Degree brother priest, James Wilcox! Please continue to keep our newly ordained priests in your prayers, that through God's

Family of the Month

Congratulations are in order for Earnest and Denise Clemmons, our family of the month for July. Earnest is a 1st degree knight, and has been very active with the fundraising this past spring. He became a knight this past February, and he and Denise became regulars at St. Thomas last June. They have been married for 16 years and have a 14 year old son, Michael, who is an alter server. Earnest works for TXU, and loves playing basketball with his son in his spare time. What he really likes about being a Knight, is the camaraderie and believe it or not.....fundraising! How cool is that! Denise works at Cook's Children's hospital, and is active with the women's organization, as well as helping Rita and clan with the annual bag stuffing for the Presbyterian Night Shelter. She states that in her spare time, she enjoys eating (don't we all), and traveling. Thanks, Earnest and Denise, for being role models we can all look up to!!!

Knight of the Month

Juan Rivas was chosen unanimously as Knight of the month for July. Having only been a Knight since this spring, he has already shown dedication by fervently attending the meetings each month. He has been coming to St. Thomas since last October and went through the RCIA program. He spends his spare time in the gym, indulging in sports, and in activities at church. His favorite thing about being a Knight is the sense of unity and fraternity. Thank you, Juan, for being you! Look forward to getting you even more involved in the near future. I know you are up to it!.
