Brothers In Christ,

I hope this greeting finds you in good health and spirits. If it does not, please know that I have been praying for you.

It's been a year since I was elected the honor of serving as your Grand Knight, alongside many truly great men we call our officers. Please join us at our installation dinner as we once again take the honor of serving for you another year.

The month of June flew by, reminds us one of our mottos TEMPUS FUGIT, MEMENTO MORI TIME FLIES, REMEMBER DEATH Let us not get caught up in life that we forget to live it. As we get on in years, we may come to realize how our concept of time can deceive us. We look back over the decades and are surprised by how quickly they have passed. We also remember that when we were young time seemed to pass much more slowly. Then, we believed that we had all the time in the world, and we probably did not heed too well the advice of our elders who told us that we should use our time well. Now, that we are middle aged or older, we are either reaping the benefits or paying the price for how we spent those years.

One of the most effective strategies of the devil is quite simple: encourage people to fritter away their precious time in self-centered pleasure. If they feel guilty about their sins, assure them that they have plenty of time to get right with God. Encourage them to live by this motto, "Enjoy today, repent tomorrow."

However, God does promise us forgiveness, but He doesn't promise us tomorrow. We can only repent today, and we must try to remain in a state of grace every day if we want to be assured of our salvation.

"Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is." (Ephesians 5:15-17)

I wish and pray for a safe and festive 4th of July. Please be safe and drink responsibly Which leads me to a couple of housekeeping items.

There is to be no drinking of alcohol during our business meetings. Our meetings are not social gatherings and will not be treated as such.

Please read the bulletin, Fr. Carlos and staff make us aware of all events pertaining to our parish.

Be a Knight, Be Involved.

May God Bless You All. VIVAT JESUS!

Reynaldo Maldonado, Jr.

Hello Brothers, please let me know anything that you need or are missing. For Example Name Badges, Membership cards, not receiving emails, etc.

The Second Notice for Membership dues for 2017 was due on February 28th. If I did not receive your payment by now, you have been placed in retention, which means the retention committee has reached out to you to attempt to collect payment or discuss your options. This is the first step in suspension from the Knights of Columbus. Please reach out to me if you have any questions or any type of financial difficulty that is not allowing you to pay your membership dues. The last thing we want as a council is to suspend a member, so please communicate with me so it can be avoided. If you no longer wish to be a Knight of Columbus, please send me an email letting me know you wish to resign your membership.

Please send payments to
