Grand Knight's Report

Many thanks to those who helped at the River Oaks fund raiser. It was a very hot day and we ended an hour early. We brought in a little under $2000 We'll change the fund raising schedule to be March/April and Oct /Dec so as to avoid hot weather which seems to drop contributions

To all those Knights who rarely come to meetings but who could, we now ask you to come because we have work for you, good work that will benefit you and your family. We need your help. Our country is become more secular, more immoral and the family is being attacked. The Knights have programs that can protect and strengthen your family. We need you to implement them, to make them happen.

These programs focus on Faith, Family, Community, and Life: Faith because that is the source of strength for your family. In turn, the family is the source of strength for our communities and our country. : Life because life is being disrespected by those who see no intrinsic value in it. The unborn and the sick and the old need our care but society wishes to remove them because they are too much trouble. That might be you someday.

The Knights have made some good changes in the Supreme website. For example Knights wanting to help with the faith programs can log onto that website and learn how to do them. You will get a lot of help: Similarly for the family, community and life areas. Each area has 8 programs. Our council is required to do only one program in each area but we can do as many as we wish. This is the first year for these programs and the supreme website is still under construction but will be ready soon

Please come and find out about these things.

Thought for July

Some Catholics don't understand or believe in purgatory. They think it's unfair of God to make us suffer after death as well as in life. The Church speaks of "fire" in Purgatory. But since after death we will have no bodies until the resurrection we can't suffer physical pain. But we can suffer spiritually. What might that be?

Well, after death we are judged... We will go to Heaven or Hell. Probably most will be judged worthy of heaven. But it says in the Bible that nothing imperfect will enter heaven. Most of us are imperfect even though our sins are forgiven. The Protestant view is that, for those who are saved, at the instant of death they are made perfect and so go straight to heaven. The Catholic Church says that while God loves us and is merciful; He is also just, which is the reason for Purgatory

Now the two Great commandments are love God and love your neighbor and most of us don't love God perfectly or our neighbor. Much of the time we ignore Him although He never ignores us. You can't love someone very well if you ignore them. In Purgatory you will learn just how wonderfully God did love you while you lived and still does. The pain comes from realizing that you ignored His Love. You will be joyful because you know you are going to heaven but you will suffer. That's the strange thing about joy; you can suffer and be joyful at the same time.

Next month we'll continue this thought
