FR. GERLICH COUNCIL

Grand Knight's Report July 2019

It would be good if we in the council could devise new ways to raise funds. People are getting tired of standing on street corners. But so far that's our main method. Speaking of which, the River Oaks fund raisers are now in October 5 and December 7 so as to avoid the hot weather.

We held our election in June and the new slate of officers is:

Grand Knight..... Joshua Gomez

Deputy Grand Knight..... Matt Haines

Chancellor..... Chad Degner

Treasurer..... Joe Bason (Phil Caron will be his substitute for a few months)

Advocate..... John Grimes

Warden..... Bill Vosberg

Inside Guard..... Earnest Clemons

Lecturer.....John Roman

Recorder.....Bryan Hearne

Trustees...Jan Nowicki, Dennis Helgeson, John Thome

Thought for July

It's important to know that emotion is stronger than logic and reason. This is important since temptation usually involves emotion and not reason. If you are tempted by lust, reason isn't much help. The only helps are the sacraments and prayer. Confession and Communion are tremendous sources of strength and grace. You can tell yourself that giving into the temptation will hurt your family. You can see the troubles ahead. But since emotion is stronger these thoughts aren't much help.

If you haven't strengthened yourself with the sacraments temptation often wins. Just look at the divorce rate. The Catholic Church survives because of the Sacraments. Yes, the Church is full of sinners. It's bursting at the seams with sinners including many clergy. But Jesus said he came for sinners and not the righteous. The sacraments work no matter how sinful the clergy are. It is vital that priests use the homily to encourage use of the Sacraments. The homily is the only teaching most of us get.
