Knights help as churches resume services
Area pastors have asked Santa Maria Council #1443 to help as parishes reopen for Sunday services. Above, GK Adam Elgart and Bro. Jim McShane guide parishioners at St. Rose of Lima Church.

Grand Knight's Message

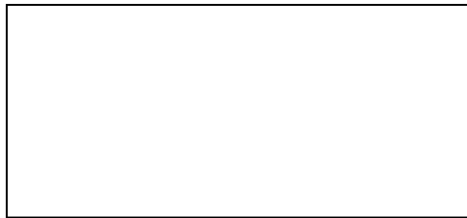

Last July, I was privileged to write my first message to you as the Grand Knight of this august Council of the Knights of Columbus. You might remember that I noted in my message, "while not perfect, America is the greatest steward of good on the face of the earth ... yet it will only continue to be so if we (the people) continue to look to do good." I still believe that, but the weeks since the death of George Floyd have tested my theory.

I have observed to some of you regarding race relations that where we were as a nation in the late '60s and where we are now in the '20s of a new century should give us hope. And while I understand that there is still work to be done to curb racism, it will lessen only because we remain committed to make lasting changes.

Sadly, I suspect that there will always be some segment of the population that will default to the lowest form of thinking when it comes to conversations about race and race relations. It will be up to the rest of us to remind this weary nation we love that the ideals of charity, fraternity, unity, and patriotism are not just lofty aspirations, but the threads that hold the quilt that is America together.

God Bless you, your families, and America. Enjoy the 4th of July holiday!

Adam Elgart, GK
