A Note from the Editor

With the new fiscal year underway there is a lot of things going on. Start out with the new officers, they will be busy keeping our council doing well. Grand Knight Andy Donovan has already hit the road running. Some of the upcoming events are the fireworks display on July 3rd helping Hot Meals USA, Gibbon 4th of July parade, Council picnic, 5th Sunday breakfasts, bingo, fish fries and as you already know many more thing will be coming up. Council 1728 is a very busy council.

We wish our officers well and thank them for all they do. If an officer asks you for a little help, step forward and give them a hand.

A Message from the desk of:

Andy Donovan
Grand Knight

Sir Knights, Happy Independence Day. By celebrating what we have we honor those who gave us our freedom. We have some opportunities to help this month. We will be marching in the Gibbon 4th of July Parade. On Wednesday July 17 we will be hosting a Cruise Night Picnic before the cruise to the Nursing homes. If nothing else come down to support this cause. No meeting this month as we are having an installation of officers on July 22. On July 27, St James is asking us to help with the Feast of St James following the 5pm mass. Please help where you can. We don't have a deputy Grand Knight and we are still looking. My schedule is plenty busy so if you need to find me generally I will be at the store and I can attend to Knights business as I can. You can reach me at 308-293-0587. Looking forward of next two years of service to my fellow brothers.

Andy Donovan

Dear Knights

As you know Fr. Art has retired and is in South Dakota for a two month sabbatical. We wish him the best for the next two months and hope he gets some rest and relaxation.

When Father Art gets back I am sure he will be able to spend more part time with the Knights.

Message from Dist. Deputy Mitch O'Neill

Brother Knights,

I encourage all Grand Knights, Deputy Grand Knights, Financial Secretaries, and Faithful Navigators to attend the Leadership Seminar on July 13-14 in Grand Island to help get our councils and assemblies off to a good start this fraternal year. The Supreme programs 'Building the Domestic Church' and 'Faith In Action' will be discussed.

Three (3) copies of the Fraternal Leader Success Planners have been sent to the Financial Secretary of your Council. Bring your copy to the Leadership Seminar.

Congratulations to 1728 Kearney for 1 new member initiated in June. Be sure to invite all new members to participate in your next charitable activity.

I am continuing to have an Admissions Degree every month in my District. Contact me for a preferred date for it to be held at your council, or I will assign a date for you.

I will be in contact with the Grand Knights to decide when our District meeting will be held in late July or early August. All Council Officers and Program Directors are invited to attend that meeting as well.

Vivat Jesus

Brother Knights,

4th Degree News

With the New Year come changes with the 4th degree uniform. Can't say I like it but as they say you can't fight city hall. Supreme says the Cape and Chapeaus are a thing of the past. In place of a tuxedo with a black bow tie, members will be wearing a blue blazer, tie and a beret, all with the Fourth Degree emblem on them, along with a white shirt and dark gray slacks. Throughout the years, the regalia of the Fourth Degree, known as the "Patriotic Degree," has gone through changes. Yes. Ceremonial swords will continue to be part of the Fourth Degree. When swords are used, gloves should also be used.

Who Were Cain and Abel's Wives?

*Dear Catholic Exchange:
Someone asked me about Adam and Eve. They had two sons, where did the women come from for them to marry? I said, "I don't know, but I'll find out." Help! How did all this happen? Thank you.*

The testimony of the ancient rabbis is that Cain and Abel married their sisters. This is also logically inferred from the Church's doctrine on original sin. Original sin is passed on to all human beings from our first parents, Adam and Eve. As St. Paul says, "[S]in came into the world through one man" (Rom. 5:12; cf. Rom. 5:19-20 and Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 402-06).

The typical response is, "How could God sanction incest, even if only for a limited time?" The short answer is that, unlike fornication and adultery, there is nothing morally wrong with intermarriage within the first generation of offspring for Adam and Eve. They had no choice of spouse except their siblings. Beyond the first generation, there arise concerns regarding incestual birth defects and also inbreeding that will impair, not foster, family ties and the covenantal expansion of the family of God. Because of these concerns, there developed proscriptions against incest in both the Bible and modern Church Canon Law (cf. Lev. 20:17; Canon, no. 1091.2).

As a result of original sin, disease and other defects began to plague man, culminating in death. These diseases and defects are more likely to be passed on via procreation within incestual unions. However, because Adam and Eve were created directly by God, this was not a major concern for children procreated through the intermarriage of their first-generation sons and daughters; the gene pool had not been impaired as it would be in successive generations. The ancient rabbis teach that Adam and Eve had upwards of 25 sets of twins, so there would certainly be no need for incestual unions to continue after the first generation of their offspring
