June 2019

Grand Knight's Report June 2019

Only 7 people showed up May 4 for the fund raiser at 7th and University but they did well. Many thanks to Bill Vosberg, Mike Costanza, John Luttmer, Chad Degner , Tu Doan and Joe Bason. We worked from 9 to 12:30 and collected around $1800

The installation dinner is June 22 not June 29.

There is a Knight in a Day in Weatherford Hosted by: Council #7264 Saturday, June 8, 2019

There will be a 4th degree Oct 19

There is a blood Drive at St Thomas June 9 from 9 AM to 3 PM. Those preregistered will get priority

We have football sweepstakes tickets to sell. They are $10 each and can pay $400. The money we raise goes to reduce our per capita to State.

The 24th annual diocesan Religious Appreciation dinner is July 29

Family of the Month

Congradulation to Frank Losoya and family as Family of the month. Frank became a knight in 2014 and recruited by the insurance knight. He has been a knight for about 5 years now. Frank was born and raised in San Angleo, TX. Janis was born and raised in San Antonio, TX. And went to Sunset high school in Dallas. Frank and his wife, Janis have been married for 6 years. They met each through some friends. They have 2 children Frankie 31 years old and Katie 29 years old. He moved to Fort Worth 6 years ago from Irving, TX. he moved to Fort Worth because this is where Janis was living. Frank retired from the Dallas fire department after 39 years and some days. Janis retired as a Nurse practioner after 35 years. Frank helps out with various church activities, money counter, fundraisers, direct traffic, cleanup, group trips to Italy, France, Israel etc. Frank enjoys golf,casinos, traveling with friends on long trips. Janis enjoys playing the flute with the choir, casinos and also traveling with friends. We are glad to have you as a knight in our council.

Knight of the Month

Congradulation to Mike Costanza as Knight of the month. Mike became a knight 6-7 years ago. Charlie Parr at that time was the Grand Knight and recruited Mike. Mike moved to Fort Worth in 1976 from New Orleans, LA. When asked what brought him to Fort Worth, he said that Fort Worth seem like a nice place to raise a family. Mike is retired from real estate and investment. Mike went to University of North Texas. Mike helps out around the church on various functions and events that are going and working fundraisers. Mike enjoys shooting at rifle/pistol ranges.

Thought for June

Satan is the great Tempter. He is the source of our temptations. How we respond to these temptations is up to us. We can give in and act on them or think to grow the temptations in our minds. Or we can pray and use the sacraments to overcome them. We shouldn’t feel guilty that temptations come to us. We all have bad habits and Satan takes advantage of these habits to make temptations that “fit in” with our habits. A good prayer life is essential for resisting temptations. And we must remember that our will is like a muscle. If we don’t exercise our will by some penances it remains weak and flabby. Then we are less able to withstand temptation. Small penance like waiting for a few minutes before eating desert, or getting up 10 minutes early are a good way to start. Always remember that God loves us more than we can imagine. If you take a small step toward God he will run to you with love and His Grace. You should trust him more than anyone else. Have confidence in Him. Then ,with prayer, you will be close to Him who loves and protects you.
