Roman Monstrance

This monstrance was presented to the Knights of Columbus by the Holy See as a tribute to the organization's loyalty. The vessel is used to present the Eucharist for public view, most often during the rite of exposition and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The name derives from the Latin term meaning "to show" or "to display," and originated in the 14th century in France and Germany.

Pentecost and Discipleship

You may have noticed that our prayer this month asks Jesus Christ to “pour out His Holy Spirit on St. Mary Magdalene Parish for spiritual renewal” and to help each of us “develop a personal relationship with Him as our Lord and Redeemer”. Giving yourself to Jesus Christ will change your life. Reflecting on John 20:19-23, the Gospel we heard recently on Pentecost Sunday, I tried to relate discipleship to the 12 Apostles. These were the men who were closest to Jesus during his public ministry and knew Him best. As I reflected, I recalled how confident and effective the Apostles were in spreading God’s word “to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8). They showed extreme courage in the face of danger. Each one of the Apostles was persecuted and ultimately martyred because of their personal relationship with Jesus. What wonderful examples of discipleship!

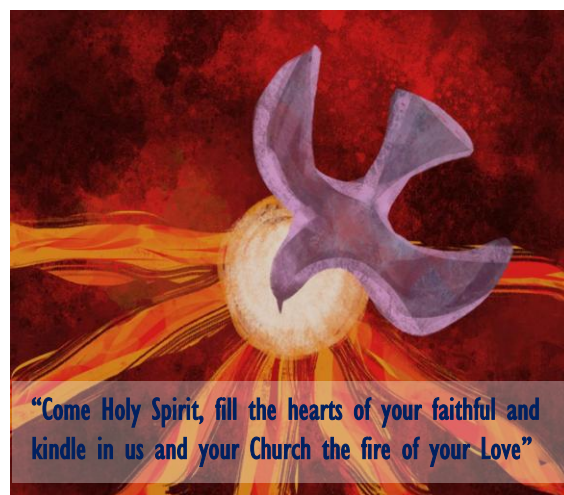

In the gospel we heard on Pentecost, however, we saw a much different picture of the Apostles. We saw them huddled in fear behind closed doors. They had just seen Jesus brutally crucified by the Jews and they were afraid that if they were recognized as His followers, they would meet the same fate. They had lost all hope and their spirits were destroyed. They were afraid that their “personal relationship with Jesus Christ” would get them killed. They were afraid of death and were not at peace. Fear destroys peace.

And what is the first thing Jesus says to them as he “stood in their midst”? He says “Peace be with you” and showed them the wounds of His crucifixion. Again He says to them “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you” and he gave them the Holy Spirit, giving the Apostles the mission of discipleship.

These 12 men, who were once huddled together in fear, were now men of courage proclaiming their personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Lord and Redeemer to the world.

Like the Apostles, very often in our lives we are locked in by our own fear. We also experience pain, suffering, and sorrow. As we know, Jesus also experienced pain, suffering, sorrow and fear. Since he is fully human as well as fully divine, he knows what we’re going through and just like in his personal relationship with the Apostles, He is constantly “in our midst” proclaiming to each of us “Peace be with you”. By having a personal relationship with Jesus, the joy of His presence touches us as it touched the Apostles on Pentecost. He breathes on us as he breathed on them saying, “Receive the Holy Spirit”, the Spirit of the wounded and risen Jesus who gives us new life, strengthens us in our struggles, and gives us courageous hearts that are no longer locked in fear behind closed doors.

By developing a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as our Lord and Redeemer, our lives will be changed. The very essence of the Holy Trinity is Love, and, love casts out and conquers all fear. “Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us and your Church the fire of your Love”. “Help each of us develop a personal relationship with You as our Lord and Redeemer. Form us into the disciples You want us to be”.

Which included a Decade of All The Glorious Mysteries recited in English, Spanish, Vietnamese, Pilipino and Polish (Individuals shown on next page) Grand Knight Robert Felton facilitated the Program with Father Theo, Church Pastor. Nestor Acosta, Deacon (In-Training) Led the Procession, the order of program, read the Gospel and gave a poignant reflection on Mary *, our Blessed Mother, Virgin Mary, and Our Lady of Guadalupe who we came to pray this day. A Beautiful Ceremony. Indeed. Special Thanks to our District Deputy Gary Bays for his continued support and assistance.

Catholic Prayer and Devotions

<http://www.kofc.org/en/cis/devotional/index.html>

The human heart is drawn to the divine. Many people have a sincere longing for holiness and that is why they spend time in contemplation. We are encouraged to cultivate a profound inner life, contact with Jesus Christ that is both personal and constant. The Fathers of the Church have consistently said that without true friendship with Jesus, it is impossible for a Christian, to fulfill the mission of the Lord.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

If you know of any Brothers who are sick or in distress, please contact me (Dan Haberle) via email haberled0966@bellsouth.net so that we may remember them in our prayers.

Let's also remember in our prayers all Brothers who passed away in the past year and all our deceased Brothers, that they may Rest In Peace and that their families have Peace within their Memories.

A Plea to Pray and a Hope That You Will

Brother Tom Ennis suggested at our most recent Council Meeting that all Brother Knights attending Council Meetings arrive earlier.

He inferred with the doors to both the church and parish center heartbeats away from each other, pre meeting prayers and personal relations with God can be a refreshing few moments -- on your own, in your own way -- you can reflect on just how special you are in the eyes of God. Certainly, prayers for family, friends and for others can be in the equation...

Brother Knights – Let's Adopt the Introductory Prayer to this Newsletter as our Opening Prayer at All Meetings As Follows:

As We the Knights of Columbus Council 10819 realize and continue to strive in being worthy sons of the church, We Pray:
Lord Jesus Christ, pour out your Holy Spirit upon St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church for spiritual renewal.
Help each of us develop a personal relationship with You as our Lord and Redeemer.

Knights Council Supports SMMCC Military Support Ministry in its presentation of Flag to Altar in Honor of those who made the Supreme Sacrifice.

Sir Knight Frank Benedetto introduced Korean War Veteran, Sir Knight Carl Swanson leading the procession accompanied by Knights in Regalia and Music “Going Home” by Music Director Steve Janetti and SMMCC Choir. Despite it being the Shortest Ceremony on record and the Flag (In its Case) being brought back outside from the Altar and placed on the Ground in the Vestibule -- it should be noted it was a very worthy activity that promised by some will be given all due respect for future event/s.

FAREWELL FROM
ROBERT J. FELTON

Brother Knights,

June 2015

I was truly honored to be your Grand Knight for our Council 10819 this past year. Thank you for your show of support and faith in my abilities to guide us further into the year on a path of many successes. Along with the Brotherhood of the Knights and my seasoned officers, I realized that I was not alone on the journey. The leadership of this council is only as strong as its members. Without strong leadership the members cease to exist as a council. Without the members, the leadership ceases to exist. We are in this journey together. I encourage every member to continue to participate, to voice your concerns and to offer solutions. None of us is as good as all of us.

The Principles: Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism are the solid rock on which the foundation of the Knights of Columbus was built. Father McGivney's dream and direction is the light on the hill. We must continue his dream. We must continue to be in our own special ways, the light on the hill.

We are beginning a new year and I encourage every member to participate. I will be nearby as your newest Trustee. Be mindful - Your voices, your concerns, your challenges, your solutions, are what are necessary in maintaining this as a strong and vibrant council. I'd like to leave you all with a message of my faith in all of you "Fire Up Your Personal Relationship With Jesus" is the message and direction that I wish you all give prayerful consideration to - as you take the council forward this year.

Again, let me say that I was honored to be your Grand Knight this past year. I look forward to the upcoming year and ask each member to keep Father McGivney's dream in your heart.

God Bless
Bob

*Fraternally yours in Christ,
Robert Felton, Grand Knight*
